Laurie,

You have our permission. Thanks so much for bringing to our attention the fact that only twelve libraries in the USA have this historic volume on Southern Baptist Chaplains in their collections. Thanks especially for your library making the decision to preserve this book via digitization for educational purposes.

Per our conversation today, we hope to produce an updated volume on the history of the SBC Chaplaincy in the near future.

God bless you,
Doug

Dear Professor Carver:

You are hereby giving the Gardner-Webb University John R. Dover Library permission to scan “History of the Southern Baptist Chaplaincy” by Lawrence P. Fitzgerald; for the sole purpose of preservation and educational use; making this wonderful and unique book available to scholars worldwide, via Digital Commons.

We agree to pay for the cost of digitization and will make no profit from this material.

Is that correct?
