

Gardner-Webb University

Digital Commons @ Gardner-Webb University

Bridges & Blanton Families

Series 2 - Genealogical Research (Gardner, Webb, Andrews, Love, & Blanton families)

9-1957

Correspondence - 1951 - Lizzie Bridges Dunn

Lizzie Bridges Dunn

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.gardner-webb.edu/fay-webb-gardner-bridges-and-blanton-families>

Recommended Citation

Dunn, Lizzie Bridges, "Correspondence - 1951 - Lizzie Bridges Dunn" (1957). Bridges & Blanton Families. 12.

<https://digitalcommons.gardner-webb.edu/fay-webb-gardner-bridges-and-blanton-families/12>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Series 2 - Genealogical Research (Gardner, Webb, Andrews, Love, & Blanton families) at Digital Commons @ Gardner-Webb University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Bridges & Blanton Families by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Gardner-Webb University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@gardner-webb.edu.

Glendon, N.C.
Sept - 1957

Dear Cousin Mudge: May I call you this? I hope you were as thrilled as my sister, daughter and I when greeting and visiting in your lovely home last week, as we were returning from Hendersonville.
It was good being there and having you show us around and also to meet your dear friend and companion, "Miss Abby".
Please remember me to her. Sorry you were not well and hope you will be strong and well soon. would love to have seen Mrs. Gardner, also. It brought back fond memories of childhood days, being in Shelby, as our mother often talked to us about living there with Uncle Bill Love. Her name was Carrie Love and her father's Miller Love (he was killed in Civil War). My mother passed away when I was fourteen which has now been forty nine years.
I am enclosing leaflet showing you what I was doing in Hendersonville
I hope to see you again and you will get well and visit all of us.
Lovingly,
(Mrs) Lizzie Bridges Dunn

Bladenboro, N.C.
Sept 26 1951