For several years the Dover Church has held special services on the first Sunday in October to pay tribute to and honor the memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dover. During the service this year the Hammond Organ and the beautiful Carillonic Bells presented to the church by the Dover Foundation in memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dover will be dedicated.

The following men have spoken at the services through the years: J. T. Bowman, John W. Suttle, Zeno Wall, J. Horace Grigg, W. A. Elam, L. W. Swope, the late O. Max Gardner and P. L. Elliott.

We are thankful today for the flowers that adorn the Lord's House.

As we come into this service today, let us remember afresh the beneficent and beautiful lives of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dover. May everyone present be blessed and inspired for higher and nobler living.

My Soul-House

I have a wondrous house to build
My Soul-House, rich with treasures filled;
Treasures rare of peace and joy,
And happiness without alloy.
And knowledge of the Living Word—
A sanctuary of the Lord—
And love, with music heavenly sweet,
And faith, that makes it safe retreat.
And hope, all radiant with the light
Of Glories that are infinite;
A house of comeliness and grace,
To be the Master's dwelling place.
Then let me build with utmost care,
That it may be graceful and fair;
A house in all proportions fit,
To lodge the Christ who tenants it.

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. II Cor. 5:1.
