2. Laurels, "Fresh Laurels" for the Sunday School we bring, They will make you good and true,
You will love and prize them true,
Oh, send us laurels the best we know,
That reward this heavenly reward we know.
3. Laurels, "Fresh Laurels," for the Sunday School we bring.

2. Laurels, "Fresh Laurels," they reward the way we go,
They will make you good and true,
You will love and prize them true,
Oh, send us laurels the best we know,
That reward this heavenly reward we know.
3. Laurels, "Fresh Laurels," they reward the way we go.

1. Je - sus is our loving Sa - viour, He, our Lord, our constant friend; In his service is pleasure. For he loveth to the end. Love - ing Saviour, loving Saviour, Have us at thy beck and beck. Have us at thy feet, O Lord, have us at thy feet.

 2 Jesus is the children's Saviour,
 'Twas for them he shed his blood;
 Plead, O poor and needy sinners,
 Might be reconciled to God.
 (Dying Saviour!)
 Basing thus our sinful head.

3 Jesus is the children's Saviour!
 "Hallelujah," he says, "be come,"
 If they seek his face and grace,
 They shall share his Heavenly Throne.
 (Rising Saviour!)
 Never more from him to roam.

4 Loving, Suffering, Dying Saviour!
 Bless, O Saviour, us Thy chosen,
 Have us day when every trial
 Shall by cross be overthrown,
 And the angels
 Of the earth, to Thee belong.

"Let us labour therefore in order unto that rest,"—Heb. ix. 11.

1. When labor and weary toil, lay, The sweet sleep on my brow, I long to rest for a - while, To drop the burden now—
 Then comes a gentle - shal - low, To quell each sighing sigh— "Wash thy face—"
 2. This life is full of sin - ne, And for judgment it - leav - es, Who will be patient in - stead To rest for a - while—
 Then, prayer, work and wait - ing, Peace on the soul is - leav - es, Then— "Wash thy face—"

3. When the day is all - ing, There's resting by and by, Resting by and by, There's resting by and by, We will be straight before you, There's resting by and by.

4. We shall not always cry, The end is drawing near - er, The end for which we sigh, We'll not always cry, The end is drawing near - er, The end for which we sigh, We'll

5. Let our weary burden down, There's resting by and by,
 6. May rest when overburdened,
 7. When weary in the harvest,
 8. Let the day's strength be made,
 9. We'll be straight before you,
 10. There's resting by and by,
 11. When weary in the harvest,
 12. Let the day's strength be made,
 13. We'll be straight before you,
 14. There's resting by and by,
 15. When weary in the harvest,
 16. Let the day's strength be made,
 17. We'll be straight before you,
 18. There's resting by and by,

ENDURING REST.

"There remaineth therefore a REST to the people of God."

1 O why should I labor, or why should I fear, Though heavy the cruellest temptation be, When at - or our friends or ourselves may be, I'll think of the promise recorded for me, I'll think of the promise recorded for me. Rest, rest, on - dur-ing rest in the bright green fields of the pure and bliss. There's rest and looks out on the smiling plain. There's rest for the people of God remain-ing, Rest, rest, rest-ing, rest.

ACROSS THE RIVER.

1. Ah, just across a fairer shore, Where the sad sorrows are unknown. Where weary souls find peaceful rest, And

CHORUS

All that love the Lord are blest. The just across the riv - er. The just across the riv - er. The

Just across the riv - er. Up on the oth - er side. And there up on the oth - er side we hope to meet by part no more, And dwell with God for ev - er. And dwell with God for ev - er.

1 Ah yes! there's a power divine,
Beyond the clouds that darken Thine;
A world of perfect joy and love,
Where saints and angels live above.
Chor.—The just across the river, etc.

2 Then glad up our voices and ps,
Forgetting all things here below;
No earthly pleasure can compare,
With bliss we may in heaven share.

CHORUS

Savior be near us, Thy gentle voice can cheer us, In - our my Sav - ior, Lead us to thee.

3 Then wilt not leave me, Comforter here,
Why should I doubt thee? What do I fear?
Light in the darkness, Breathing I see,
Thou I am weary, lead me to thee.
Chor.—Savior be near us, etc.

4 Jesus I love thee, Drawn to my heart,
Never to sever, From our depart;
Hope like a rainbow, Shining I see,
Thou I am weary, Lead me to thee.
Chor.—Savior be near us, etc.

1. { The sweet to think, no night comes on, Dark and dense, Dark and dense,
 The "stars come twinkling one by one" Earth to cheer, Earth to cheer. } There is a world where none is night,
 2. { The sweet to think when round us lie, Grief and care, Grief and care,
 Our Jesus hears the sad sigh, Death's cry, Death's cry. } And if we love him, we shall see

It needs no sun or moon to light, For Jesus' presence makes it bright—No night there, no night there,
 That "land down yonder never lies," And, oh! we know that there will be—No tears there, no tears there.

THE LOVE OF JESUS, I. M.

1. I know 'tis Jesus loves my soul, My nature is by sin defiled,
 And makes the wounded spirit whole. Yet Jesus loves a little child.

- 2 How kind is Jesus, oh, how good,
 Twice for my soul he shed his blood;
 For children's sake he was crucified,
 For Jesus loves a little child.
- 3 When I offend, by thought or tongue,
 Ours the sight, or do the wrong,
 If I repent he's reconciled,
 For Jesus loves a little child.
- 4 To us may Jesus send his Spirit,
 A Father as young as a gracious youth,
 Alas! I'm sick by sin defiled,
 Yet Jesus loves a little child.

Hymn No. 1000.

HYMN No. 1000.

1 (Tut! we hear the day is breaking, joyful times are near at hand; God, the mighty God, is speaking by His word in an 'O' land.) When he comes, — O'pt'ly sing of his command, When he comes, Darkness flies at his command.

 2 With the voice of joy and singing
 Let us hail the dawning day;
 Let the blessed daystar, bringing
 O'er the earth a glorious day;
 At his rising,
 Gloom and darkness flee away.

ALETTA. No.

WM. B. BRADSHAW.

1 Weeping men, no longer weep,
 Jesus at thy grave hath been;
 There his blood has been Poured out for thee;
 There thy sins are laid,
 Weeping men, no longer weep.

2 All thy sinners on him were laid;
 Now, upon his precious blood
 Wash the stains of sinners' hearts,
 Give us thy comfort and joy;
 Heavy sinners, keep them near
 On the rising nation.

3 That thy glory and his,
 Praise his mighty to whom;
 At his feet thy sinners lay,
 Look thy doubts and fears away;
 Now be with the sinners,
 Praise his power, that his grace

1. This is a war song - war song with us, With us and for us, and of our Father's love, And he who would a soldier be, to help the low the Lord, Must break down the strong, the evil, and the proud.

CHORUS.

I will fight under the banner of King Immanuel, I will fight under the banner of King Immanuel, Oh, let us join to fight under the banner of King Immanuel.

2 This life is a warfare, but why should we fear,
The Heroism is our Captain, and he is ever near;
And if we trust his mighty arm and in his strength repose.

Through his own great command, we'll conquer all our foes. Ch.

1 This too is a warfare, then boldly we'll stand
Against the angel tempter and all his traitor band.

Under the standard of the cross, we'll never, never yield,
Salvation is our Incent, the Bible is our shield. Ch.

This life is a warfare, but soon 'twill be o'er,
And then a dreamy world as where trials are no more;
And there with all the ransomed host, in that bright world above,

We'll gather round our Saviour and sing welcoming love. Ch.

THE THRONE OF GRACE.

I stand in the presence of thy grace, To love thy name, O Lord, my heart desires,
When a-sundered souls beneath the cross, When all around is dreared in dark,

That light our guilty souls restores,
And points to Christ's atoning blood.

O then be glad to know
God can be just and merciful too.

The cross to know the Saviour's love,
When friends are invited to the cross.

And those who love are matched away
Like flowers that wither in a day.

From sin and sorrow he leads,
To dwell in the Father's mansion;
This will be meeting the Redeemer!

The silver cross of earthly life
Is less than thought, compared with him.

1. Christians, I am on my journey! Ere I reach the haven near,
I would tell the wonders that - ry, What the Lord has done for me. } Glee-ry, glee-ry, hal-lelu-jah, That a stranger here I roam, I am on my way to Zi-on. I'm a pilgrim going home.

If I was lost, but Jesus found me,
Taught my heart to seek the throne
From a wild and lonely desert,
Brought me to His field of grace,
Glee—Glee, glory, do.

Now my soul with rapture glowing,
Sings aloud His praise—sing love,
Looks beyond a world of sorrow,
To the pilgrim's home above.

I shall yet behold my true home,
What the day of life is worth,
I shall see my crown before Him,
I shall praise His name
Glee—Glee, glory, do.

WIRTH, C. M.

W. B. HOLMES.

2. Have stood and heavenly is the sight,
In our brother's peace and light,
When those that love the Lord
And those that love his word,

- 2 When each can feel his brother's sigh,
And with him bear a part;
When sorrow flows from eye to eye,
And joy from heart to heart;
- 3 When love is our delightful stream,
Through every human flow,
And union sweet, with kind esteem,
In every action glows!
- 4 Love is the golden chain that binds
The happy world above;
The happy world above;
And he's an heir of heaven that finds
His heaven lived with love.

THE BEAUTIFUL TREE OF LIFE.

1 On a hill stands a beauti-ful tree, Its fruit is all golden and fair,
And its shade and its branches are free, For all who may willing repair,
Its leaves, ever green, do not die, Its

2 Leaves with fragrance abound, Its splendor captivates the eye, Its branches with music resound, Its

3 The thousands by sight and by sight,
Have found and gathered in store,
Have found the rich location away
On Soliman remains evermore.

4 What is so name? who can tell?
And the tell where? (wherever it be)
By thy side I will locate me to dwell,
O wonderful—beautiful tree,

5 On Elon's left stands you behold
Its form is bright golden-green,
There glows its green and its gold,
There life its full band to the shore
Tree planted by Ishmael's line,
From the hills overlooking it come,
Tarry Elman, they call it above,
But, Elman, on earth, is its name.

1. Let us pray for one an-oth-er, (Let us pray, let us pray.) Let us pray for one an-oth-er, When we
 For a sin-ner or a brother, (Let us pray, let us pray.) For a sin-ner or a brother, Let us have be-fore the throne, make their names re-own. Let us not for- get to cherish Those thought-fuls as well as we, And to pray that none may perish. But the way of life may know, Let us pray, let us pray, Christen let us pray.

2 Let us not forget the dear ones,
 (Let us pray—let us pray.)
 Let us not forget the dear ones,
 Who entered the blessed earth;
 They are making the heavenly strings,
 (Let us pray—let us pray.)
 They are making the heavenly strings

And the sweetest spot on earth,
 We must pray that in the future
 They may all united be,
 And meet live in heaven forever
 An undivided family
 (Let us pray—let us pray.)
 Christen, let us pray.

1 Let us not forget the lambs,
(Let us pray—let us pray.)
Let us not forget the lambs,
In their sick and distant lands.
They are waiting for the dawning
(Let us pray—let us pray.)
They are waiting for the dawning
Showering with their helpful hands.
If we cannot go to teach them,
And the blessed gospel bear,
We can send the precious Bible,
We can share their hearts with prayer.
(Let us pray—let us pray.)
Christians, let us pray.

2 Let us pray for all the children,
(Let us pray—let us pray.)
Let us pray for all the children,
You, the meekest of them all;
While their youthful hearts are tender,
(Let us pray—let us pray.)
While their youthful hearts are tender,
May they heed the Father's call;
That their hearts be early guarded,
In the way of love and truth,
They may seek and find their Father,
In the pleasant days of youth.
(Let us pray—let us pray.)
Christians, let us pray.

3 When our praying days are over,
(We shall sing—we shall sing.)
When our praying days are over,
We shall sing the "new made song."
We shall dwell with Christ forever,
(We shall sing—we shall sing.)
We shall dwell with Christ forever,
And the bright angels throng;
There, in every hour of trial,
When we feel our hearts drag,
Let us look straight up to Jesus,
He will hear us when we pray.
(Let us pray—let us pray.)
Christians, let us pray.

THY WILL BE DONE. No. 27a.

VOICE OF A TEACHER TO PUPILS.

1 Jesus, while our hearts are bleeding,

We would all wickedness forsaking,

O'er the path that death hath won,

Celestial joy Thy will be done.

2 Though, cast down we're not laid low,	Though, to day we're filled with woe,	By thy hands the cross was given,
When,	morning,	There hast taken our sin—
Though, afflicted, not alone	Many will to us the Father's	Lord of earth, and God of heaven,
Thou hast given and given hast given,	With thy Father of love returning,	In answer—Thy will be done.
Blessed Lord—Thy will be done.	We can sing—Thy will be done

1 If you have not gold and silver
Ever ready to command;
If you cannot trouble the needy,
Search on your open hand:
You can visit the afflicted,
Use the seeing you can keep,
[2] You can be a true disciple,
Sitting at the Father's feet. [2]

3 If you cannot in the conflict
Prove yourself a soldier true,
If where fire and smoke are thickest,
There's no work for you to do,
When the battle-field is chosen,
You can go with careful tread,

You can find it anywhere. [2]

VERSE REVERSED FOR THE CHORUS. [2]

SWEET SABBATH CHIMES.

1st. 2d.

Sweet Sabbath chimes down on the air, Blessed day! Blessed day!
And call the world to praise and prayer, Blessed day! Blessed day! ... day! O'er Sabbath, by our Father's hand, And believed for his people's rest. It brings repose to our weary hearts, Blessed day! Blessed day!

1 To day our dear Redeemer came,
Blessed day! Blessed day!
And triumphed over all his foes,
Blessed day! Blessed day!
While each chorus our God and King,
The heavenly praise eternally sing,
While angels cheer with radiant song,
Blessed day! Blessed day!

2 Deposed the vain and vain realities,
Blessed day! Blessed day!
A rest from sorrow, toil, and pain,
Blessed day! Blessed day!
The happy liberation from these days,
When sinners' in that region lay,
Shall sing through centuries ages then,
Blessed day! Blessed day!

1 (Je - su, I come to thee, a wand'rer, a wand'rer, a stranger from my Father's home, I would no longer be Je - su, I stand with thee a wand'rer, a wand'rer, O wash me in thy precious blood, and save my spirit free.)

Now blessed Father, take thy weary wand'ring child, Redeem me, O keep me from the tempter's snare, My lonely heart by the oppressor I would leave his burden on thy breast, And find refuge and peaceful rest, For ever - in - thine

2 Jesus the living way, O save me, O save me,
O lead me to the precious field,
And let me never stray.
O let me leave thy name, my Father, dear Father,
In gentle tones my portion speak,
And bid my soul rejoice. Chorus.

3 Jesus, the way is bright before me, leading me,
My journey is toward the clouds are gone,
I see thy glorious light.
Jesus, my savior I'll name a wand'rer, a wand'rer,
My Father leads me in his arms,
And bids me welcome home. Chorus.

1. For the starry windows
 Over her path had shone,
 By the angels called her
 To the far unknown.

Smiles and glances brighter
 Wreathed that fair young face,
 Till the gleam's whitened
 Tell of death's unknown. Repeat.

1. O E - den Land, thou land of life, Beyond the shadows of the tomb, Beyond the pain, and grief, and death. That sin and sorrow cannot reach. O E - den Land, thou land of the bliss, Where we can lose that pain and grief. O E - den Land, thou land of the bliss, Where we can lose that pain and grief.

2 O Eden Land—bright world of bliss,
More fresh and fair, and pure than this;
Oh how our weary spirits long
To reach that clime of light and song!
Thou Eden Land, at whose close gate
The treasure of our future wait.

3 Then Eden Land, Oh could we grasp
Thy promised blessings in our grasp,
Fain would we leave our hold on earth,
And rise to that immortal birth,
Which shall alone place in our hand
The key to heaven's fair Eden Land.

1. I love the name of Jesus, That saves the angels' song, And with their loud hosannas, The heavenly portals ring
To Him my all surrendering, In Him my joy surrendering. I serve with Christian meekness My duty at His feet.

I love, I love, I love the name of Jesus, The sweetest name, The name, The name the angels sing
I love, I love, The sweetest name, The name the angels sing

KEEP TO THE RIGHT!

Wm. A. Whitman

1. March a long, long path - on, By our steps and tears, His eye upon us watching, Taking note of each.

Thou art our Father, And our Heavenly Father bright, Keep to the right, keep, keep to the right, right.

2. Breathe on high your hymns,
That the hills may fly,
Like the wing of eagle
Swinging to the sky,
If you wish to conquer,
Every day you fight,
Keep to the right, keep,
Keep to the right.

3. Of your heavenly Father,
Strength and courage seek,
Hearts are to us precious,
If the heart be weak!
Every man endeavor
With a warrior's might,
Keep to the right, keep,
Keep to the right!

4. Love should be your guide,
Every day you fight,
Every day you fight,
Till a crown you win,
For a home on high,
Fighting with all your might,
Keep to the right, keep,
Keep to the right!

EARLY SEEKING 78.

From Rev. ALBERT WHITMAN.

1. Seek him, then art ever happy,
And I plead thy promise true,
Thou art our Father, And our Heavenly Father bright,
"Early seek, and ye shall find."

1 I am vile and full of sin,
Jesus, make me pure within;
Lead me to the heavenly land,
Wash me in Thy precious blood.

Make me gentle, weak and mild;
I would pure and holy be,
Teach me how to come to Thee.

When I seek my quiet bed,
Let Thy wings be as an awning spread;
Morning, bid me bid I fall,
Design to leave me whilst I call;
O, guard my lambs to my!
Save me, Jesus, or I die.

2 Lord, I want to be Thy child,

3 When I go to work or play,
Be Thou with me day by day:

GLADLY MEETING.—Opening Song.

1 Gladly meeting, Kindly greeting, On this day, the Sabbath day, Faithful thoughts be all I own to him,
Let us seek in quiet to be true, Let each heart be God's own love, While we sing and pray.

2 Gladly meeting,
Kindly greeting,
Let us all strive to love,
While the throng we're all addressing,
And our cheerful ways refreshing,
Let us seek a heavenly blessing,
For our loved Saviour.

3 Gladly meeting,
Kindly greeting,
As each Sabbath shall return,
May our minds be truly forgiven,
May our aspirations brighten,
And may grace and love still bless,
While we strive to love.

FIRST TIME SING ALONE, IN TIME ALL SINGING.

1 We will love our neighbors as ourselves,
We will love them like our brethren,
And as we wish they should do to us,
So we will do to others.

And then sleep from day to day
That lay us full of beauty,
For the Golden Rule of our Sunday School
Is the royal road of duty.

CHRIST FOR ME.

2 In him I see the Godhead shine
Christ for me, Christ for me;
He is the majestic divine,
Christ for me, Christ for me;
The Father's well-beloved son,
Co-partner of his royal throne,
Who did for human guilt atone,
Christ for me, Christ for me.

3 Today as yesterday the same,
Christ for me, Christ for me;
How precious is his holy name,
Christ for me, Christ for me;
Christ a more name, may answer you
Who answer's nothing past or new,
But I will praise you ever do,
Christ for me, Christ for me.

 I am weak, but thou art strong: Greatly lead my soul a-long, Help me come to thee.

2 Jesus, dear, I long for thee,
 Long thy grace to know,
 Grant thou your joys to me,
 Earth can no longer be;
 Jesus, dear, I cling to thee,
 When my heart is free.

Thou wilt kindly speak to me,
 Thou wilt make me glad,
 One—Jesus love, etc.

3 Jesus, dear, I trust in thee,
 Trust thy tender love,

There's a happy home for me,
 With thy saints above;
 Jesus, I would come to thee,
 Thou hast said I may,
 Tell me what my life should be,
 Take my sin away.

FULL CHORUS.

2 We are happy, always happy,
In the Sunday School we learn,
We are singing, gladly singing
Of the promised land above;
There are rewards for us in glory,
And we'll tell the joyful story
In the Sunday School we learn. Ch.

3 Come, come, dear friends and join us
In our happy Sunday School,
Come and work with us for Jesus,
Come and leave the Golden Valley
There where life's short day is over,
We will sing with joy and power
In the promised land above. Ch.

I will pray to Je - sus, right away, right away.
I will seek his blessing every day,
While my heart is pleading,
He is so merciful,
I will pray to Je - sus right away.

3. I will live for Je - sus right away, right away.
The my Father calls me, I say!
Now in childhood's morning
In the quiet's warning,
I will live for Je - sus right away.

4. I will work for Je - sus right away, right away,
Labor in his vineyard every day.
While my heart is pleading,
What my hands are doing,
I will work for Je - sus every day.

Where the saints of life are past.

St. hymn.

1 Grant us Lord, thy heavenly light,
All our steps to guide aright,
Hither along the narrow road
Which shall lead our souls to God.

We are weak and prone to stray—
Keep us in thy holy way;
All our wants let grace supply,
Lead us onward to the sky.
2 Thus protected, may we go
Safely through this vale of woe,

May thy gracious presence cheer
Us in all our trials here,
Loving all thy sinners, Lord,
Ever dwelling in the Word,
May we reach that happy home
Where no ill can ever come.

Who brought us with his hand.

PRAYER. C. M.

WM. A. BARNARD.

Dulcissimo.

1. Prayer is the soul's sweet desire, Unstinted, or unrepressed; The motion of a hidden fire That breathes in the breast.

2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,—
The falling of a tear,—
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.

Prayer, the wilderness flower that yields
The Majesty on high.

Returning from his ways,
While angels, in their songs, rejoice,
And cry,—Hallelujah, he prays!

3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech,
That infant lips can try;

4 Prayer is like Christ's vital breath,
The Christian's native air.

His water-word at the gates of death,
His sweetest intercourse with prayer.

5 Prayer is the humble sinner's voice,

O thou, by whom we come to God,
The Life, the Truth, the Way;
The path of prayer thyself hast laid;
Lord, teach us how to pray!

THE WORD OF THE LORD.

Words by J. W. B.

2. When Jesus remembreth
He will leave us to perish;
The word that believeth
He ever will cherish.
He bring us to Jesus
With steadfast endurance,
"The word of the Lord
Endureth forever."

3. And when on the borders
Of death's darkness river,
We'll trust him who promised
Our souls to deliver,
Our souls from our dark-ness
He power will sever,
"The word of the Lord
Endureth forever."

1. Jesus lead me, Jesus guide me in the way I ought to go;
 Help me bring me to praise thee, Teach me [Chorus] Lord, thy word to know. That my heart is weak

2. In thy word I read the promise—
 Ask for mercy and thank thee;
 They who early seek shall find thee,
 Lord, I will, I do believe
 Jesus lead me, Jesus guide me,
 In the way that leads to thee,
 Heavenly hope my only comfort,
 Jesus, thou hast died for me.

3. Gladly now, my soul has found thee,
 I can sing thy praise forever;
 I can tell the world around me,
 I am thine, forever thine
 Those with heart me, thou wilt guide me,
 Heavenly now I rest on thee;
 Heavenly hope, my only comfort,
 Jesus, thou hast died for me.

2d HYMN.

1 Take my heart, O Father! take it,
 Hold it and keep it all thine own;
 Let thy spirit melt and teach it;
 Lead to seek this heart of stone.
 Heavenly Father, deign to mould it
 In obedience to thy will;
 And, as passing years unfold it,
 Keep it weak and child-like still.

2 Father, make it pure and holy,
 Punctured, kind, and free from strife,
 Turning from the path of vanity
 Of this vain and sinful life.
 May the blood of Jesus lead it,
 And be close to all dangers;
 Holy Spirit, who and what is,
 Guide it in the path of heaven.

1. We are young, we are young, but we need to come to Jesus, He will guide, he'll provide all we want upon our way.

He will hear when we cry, he will fill our minds with love, That we're young, very young, we have need to watch and pray.

2. Tho' we're young, very young, Satan ever tries to lure us,
Toss away, toss away, let him not obtain our ear;
He is vain, we are weak, never let him win us over,
If he calls, if he calls, we must still refuse to hear.

For the young, for the young, Jesus has a heart to love us,
We will come, we will come, there is room for each of us;
Like a child, like a child, we must ever go to Jesus,
He is here, he is here, for a faithful friend with us.

No. 1. MARCH.

1. A change to keep I have, & God to glorify; I am - er - dying, need to move, and so it is for the day.

2. To serve the present age,
My willing to fulfill,
Oh, say it all my powers engage,
To do my Master's will.

3. Love me with jealous care,
As in thy sight to live;
And oh, thy servants, Lord, prepare,
A strict account to give.

4. Help me to watch and pray,
And on thyself rely,
Assured if I thy trust betray,
I shall forever die.

1. I love thy kingdom, Lord, Thy church our latest habitation we've
 The home of thine abode, With his own precious blood.

2 I love thy Church, O God!
 Her walls before thee stand,
 Dear as the apple of thine eye,
 And grafted on thy land.
 3 For her my tears shall fall,
 For her my prayers ascend,
 To her my voice and truth be given,
 Till truth and love shall end.

4 Beyond my highest joy
 I point her heavenly way;
 Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
 Her hymns of love and praise.
 5 True as thy truth shall last,
 To thee shall be given
 The brightest glories earth can yield,
 And brighter bliss of heaven.

CHORUS.

2. Blessed are the pure in heart,
Free from sin and stain,
Bright with love they start,
Trumpets sound praise to valour,
For they have no Jezebel's art,
He will keep them safe from harm. Oh.

3. Blessed are the pure in heart!
(Oh! that we may stand,
Choosing now the better part
At the Lord's right hand,
With no Jezebel's art,
For the sake of Christ who died! Oh.

Thou looses light upon life's shadowy way!

But we know our lot, sharing with our neighbors,

All the holy peace and joy that comes with thee.

Sweet Sabbath morning! Sweet thy returning,

Oh! may we meet thee, Sabbath day,

Mark! a voice is calling: Through the willows falling,

Calling us to meet and sing our Father's praise.

3. Every Sabbath morning, Meekly pleasant morning,

Our Sunday-school shall be a sacred spot;

There our voices ring, With the angels singing.

Lead our thoughts away where none and sin are not.

Oh, holy pleasure! Oh, heavenly measure!

We'll ever praise thee, sweet Sabbath day!

Bringing heaven nearer; Making Jesus nearer;

Fitting us to join his saints, and see his face.

I Then like a little pilgrim,
Wherever I may roam,
I'll take my joy in sorrow—
And try to follow Jesus.
He'll comfort me in trouble,
He'll wipe my tears away.
With joy I'll follow Jesus
All the way. Oh.

I Then while around me
And pain I need not fear;
For when I'm close by Jesus
Grief cannot come too near.
Not even death can harm me,
When death I meet one day;

WELCOME TO THE SABBATH.

5-5

These numbers are new words.

W. B. BRADY

1. (Welcome, welcome, day of rest, Sweet as life from every man.)
 Comfort to the weary heart (Hark,.....) Are the joys thy moments bear, God of Love thy grace is past, Comfort every mourning heart, God of love thy grace impart, Comfort every mourning heart.

2. Welcome, welcome, Sabbath bells,
 Chiming on the fragrant air,
 Pealing o'er the flowery dells,
 Calling to the house of prayer,
 Those who long this way have trod,
 Those who love to worship God.

3. Precious words of life we have,
 From our pastor's lips they fall,
 Streams of truth give out our ear,
 Lord, we praise thy name for all,
 On the wings of faith we rise
 Upward to our native skies.

4. When these mortal scenes decay,
 When the toils of earth are past,
 Jesus, may we hear thee say,
 Welcome, faithful ones, at last,
 Off my Father you are blest,
 Enter now eternal rest.

5. Jesus, Shepherd of thy sheep,
 Gather with thy flock we come;
 All our souls in mercy keep,
 Ever from thy side to roam.
 Take the lambs within thine arms,
 Gently to thy bosom press'd,
 From all sin and mortal harms,
 In thy free salvation press'd.

6. When the pasture waters flow,
 Thither Lord, each wand'ring lead,
 Where the greenest pastures grow,
 There securely let us feed.
 Close beside the sheltering rock,
 Where the dewy wind is high,
 Gather all our little flock,
 Till the trumpet shall pass by.

7. Take each under shepherd's care,
 Unless thou thy blessing give,
 Here, O Lord, our humble prayer;
 Let us in the firm rely,
 And when death's dark shadows fall,
 And the day of life shall dawn,
 May each lamb, each shepherd, all
 In thy heavenly fold remain.

Words by Miss ELLEN B. CLYDE, Author of "True Women."

Wm. B. BRADY.

1. If we knew what voices the West Thro' the snowed-away way, That some part of woodland wilderness there be
 2. If we knew what voices were singing For the shade that we should sing, If we knew what lips were pouring For the side our path, we hear, We would pause where now we hasten, We would often look around, Lark-like we hear that should were we should sing, We would work with eager footsteps, We would work with willing hands, Bearing cups of swelling trumpets, Some ears jewel in the ground, Let our marchers that should trumpet Some ears jewel in the ground, water, Flushing rivers of shining pulses, Bearing cups of swelling water, Flushing rivers of shining pulses.

If we knew what friends around us,
Clearly given to every "good bye,"
Which among the best that live us,
First should "meet the solemn tie,
We would sleep no more around them,
Looking on them through our tears,
Under words of love eternal
We would whisper in their ears.

If we knew what lives were darkened
By some thoughtless word of ours,
Which had ever lain upon them,
Like the frost upon the flowers,
With what anxious meanings,
With what anguish of regret,
With our eyes were overflowing,
We would say, "forgive," "forget."

If we knew? Alas! and do we Ever care or seek to know,
Whether better looks or words
To our neighbors' gardens grow?
And forgive us! let hereafter
Our hearts break to hear him say
"Charless child, I never knew you,
From my presence flee away."

 While adoring I adore.

God's love grace and boundless love,
 That bless'd moment I received him,
 Filled my soul with joy and peace;
 Love I wish! I'm much forgiven,
 I'm a miracle of grace.

2d Hymn.

1 Holy Father, thou hast taught me,
 I should say to thee alone:—
 Year by year thy hand hath brought
 On this' dangers all unknown;
 When I wander'd thou hast found me,
 When I doubted thou hast light;
 Still thou art my life and joy,
 All my paths were in thy sight.

2 In the world with few small ones,
 Obedient, stronger for thee I;
 And the world may never fail me,
 Well I know before I die.
 Therefore, Lord, I come, believing,
 Thou must give the power I need;
 Thine the prayer of faith receiving,
 Strength—the spirit, strength, indeed.

3 I would trust in thy protecting,
 Wholly rest upon thine arm;
 Follow thy holy thy directing,
 Then, mine eyes guard from harm!
 Keep me from sin and evil,
 Help me true to thee when tried,
 Still my footsteps, Father, viewing,
 Keep me true to thy side.

those who serve the Lord. O ye shall shine as, shine as! Far up in heaven's own blue.

Some time, some time, I too may shine, I may shine as brightly as you!

- 3 We must bear the yoke daily — Jesus says,
 "It is easy, my burden is light."
 For he knows how frail we are, yea, he knows how frail
 we are,
 And he helps us through the day and through the DEDHAM, C. M.

1. Frequent the day of God returns And yet how slow devotion keeps!
 To shed its quickening beams; How long will we be thus!

2. Accept our faint attempts to love,
 Our faithless Lord, forgive;
 We would be like the angels above,
 And praise thee while we live.

When the assembly's work breaks up,
 The Sabbath as it shall end.

Before the throne of God appear,
 And sing our love divine.

5. When we, in high angelic strains,
 Shall all our praises sing;
 Enlightened through the eternal planes,
 And take our fill of joy.

2d Hymn.

1. Sweet was the time when first I felt,
 The first love's parting blood
 Applied to cleanse my soul from guilt,
 And bring me home to God.

2. Soon as the morn'g light peep'd forth,
 His praise loved my tongue.

And when the evening shade prevail'd,
 His love was all my song.

3. In prayer my soul drew near the Lord,
 And saw his glory shine;

And when I read his holy word,
 I said I could promise mine.

4. Now, Father! help me to prevail,
 And make my soul thy own;
 I know thy mercy cannot fail;
 Let me that mercy show.

1 To crown him of Israel's name,
 Who reign'd from the fall,
 Hail him, who saves you by his grace,
 And crown him Lord of all.
 4 Let every kneel'd every tribe,
 On this triumphal hill,
 To him all majesty ascribe,
 And crown him Lord of all.
 5 O that with psalter sung throng,
 We on his love may fall,
 We'll join the everlasting song,
 And crown him Lord of all.
 1 O for a thousand tongues to sing
 My great Redeemer's praise;
 The glories of my God and King,
 The triumphs of his grace.

2 My gracious Master, and my God,
 Assist me to proclaim,
 To spread thou' all the earth abroad,
 The honors of thy name.
 3 Jesus!—the name that charms our
 That bids our consciences : [chorus]
 The name is the sinner's care,
 'Tis life, and health, and power.
 4 He breaks the power of sin's old
 He sets the pris'ner free : [chorus]
 His blood can make the foulest clean ;
 His blood can make for us.
 5 He speaks, and healing to his voice,
 Now bids the dumb rejoice,
 The muffled trumpet's joyful
 The humble psalmist's voice.

1 Yes, I will praise thee, O my God,
 Through all my shining days,
 And to eternity prolong
 Thy vast, thy boundless praise.
 2 Nor shall my tongue alone proclaim
 The honors of my God;
 My life, with all its active powers,
 Shall spread thy praise abroad.
 3 Nor will I leave thy praise to sing,
 When death shall close mine eyes;
 My soul shall then to higher heights,
 And louder praise thee.
 4 These shall my lips in solemn praise,
 Their grateful tribute pay
 The thousand thousands on angel's tongue
 And on eternal day.

Chorus, him with gladness and love:

2. O, let us praise him with thanksgiving and song:

His praise is our offering as we have promised.

Yourselves in his temple proclaim:

With love and devotion draw near, to be joyful in God, and to be joyful alone. Ours is a sacred Father who will,
And bless him to draw a life from him, for good in the Land, for good in his good, and we are the work of his hand.

And we are his people, his temple we own, His church, and we follow his will; we follow his will, we follow his will
His mercy and truth from other us - by stand, And shall be with us - by stand, to other us - by stand, to other us - by stand.

1. A - way! a - way! not a moment to be lost, Hasten we now with footstep free, Where those who love us live.

This holy day we will try to improve it,
For its light is o'er - Oh.

2. Away! away! not a moment to forget,
Hasten we now with footstep free,
Where those who love us live in the city of the living,
Wait for you and me. - Oh.

1 Good night! good night! till we meet in the morning;
Far above this fleeting shore,

To achieve joy in a moment's waking,
There we'll sleep no more.

Chorus.—Where the purely good will never, never close,
And the love of life be dewy shadow shown,

Where the moment's rest is love repose,
Our glorious home shall be.

2 Good night! good night! till we meet in the morning;
See the hosts are waking fast,

Along the banks of the dear flowing stream
We shall meet at last. Chorus.

3 Good night! good night! till we meet in the morning;
When our spirits have gone before,

In robes of white they are waiting to greet us
On the other shore. Chorus.

4 Good night! good night! till we meet in the morning;
Thou hast paid and sorrow fast,

With him who died from the grave to redeem us
We shall ever be. Chorus.

LISBON. S. M.

1 Welcome, sweet day of rest, That saw the Lord arise, Welcome to this evening feast, And those rejoicing yet.

2 The King himself comes near,
And leads his saints to-day;

Here we may sit, and see him face,
And love, and praise, and pray.

3 One day, said the angels,
When my dear Lord, hath been,

Is sweeter than ten thousand days,
Within the arms of us.

4 My willing soul would sing,
In such a strain as this,

And sit and sing myself away
To everlasting bliss.

M HYMN.

1 Oh, bless the Lord, my soul,
His grace to thee providing;

And all that is within me, join
To bless his holy name.

2 Oh, bless the Lord, my soul,
His grace to thee providing;

Let all that is within me join
To bless his holy name.

3 Forget not all his benefits,
Who is to thee so kind.

4 He pardons all thy sins,
Preserves thy body health;

He leads thee from darkness,
And rescues thee from death.

5 He leads thee with his love,

Thou shalt see with his truth;
And, like the eagle, he rears
The young of thy youth.

6 Then, bless the Lord, my soul,
His grace to thee providing;

Let all that is within me join
To bless his holy name.

2. Would you leave all sinful ways?

Come again, come again;

Would you join our churchful days?

Then come, come again.

We are bound for Heaven's land,

Will you come and join our band?

We will take you by the hand

O come, come again.

3. Words of comfort you shall hear.

Come again, come again;

From the book we love so dear,

Then come, come again;

Joins suffered on the tree,

Jesus died for you and me,

His disciples you may be,

O come, come again.

4. Come on every Sabbath day.

Come again, come again;

Never, never stay away,

O come, come again;

How improve the hours that fly,

They are gliding swiftly by,

You are not to young to die,

Then come, come again.

1. O thou whose tender mercy flows

Whose hand is indulgent, whose the tears

Compassion's humble sigh ; From sorrow's weeping eye.

1 How, how before thy throne of grace,
A wretched wretched creature,
Hast thou not bid me seek thy face?
Hast thou not said—"Return?"

2 And shall my guilty heart prevail
To drive me from thy love?

3 Let not this dark refuge fall,
Thine only safe retreat!

4 O shine on this benighted heart,
With beams of mercy shine!

And let thy leading voice impart
A taste of joys divine.

2d Hymn. C. M.

1 How shall the young secure their souls
And guard their lives from sin?

They need the chastest rules impart,
To keep the conscience clean.

2 'Tis like the sun, a heavenly light,
That guides us all the day ;

And thro' the dangers of the night
A lamp to lead our way.

2 Thy word is everlasting truth ;
How pure is every page!

Thou holy book shall guide our youth
And still support our age.

3 Thy precepts make us truly wise ;
I love the wisdom's truth ;

I hate my own vain thoughts that rise,
But love thy law, my God.

3d Hymn. C. M.

1 Remember thy Creator now,
In these thy youthful days ;

He will exempt thy earliest sin,
And lead to thy prime.

2 Remember thy Creator now,
And seek His will His care ;
For evil days will come, when time
Shall do us numbers sore.

3 Remember thy Creator now,
His willing servant be ;

Then when thy heart is death shall
He will remember thee. [Hos.

4 Almighty God! our hearts incline
Thy heavenly voice to hear ;
Let all our future days be Thine,
Devoted to Thy care.

4th Hymn. C. M.

1 Jesus, my Saviour, and my Lord,
To thee I lift mine eyes ;
Teach and instruct me by thy word,
And make me truly wise.

2 Make me to know and understand
Thy whole revealed will ;
For would I knew to comprehend
Thy love more clearly still.

3 Help me to read the Bible o'er,
With ever new delight ;
Help me to love its Author more ;
To seek thee day and night.

4 Oh, let it purify my heart,
And guide me all my days ;
Be mercies, Lord, to me impart,
And thou shalt have the praise.

1. I will not be afraid at night When all alone I lie, And darkness takes the place of light, For God is nigh.

2 His shield 'round me supports my head, And bravely he keeps A constant watch around my bed; God never sleeps.	I will not be afraid to hear The rolling trumpet wild, If Jesus whisper in my ear, I am his child.	I will not be afraid to tread The portals of the tomb, For Jesus there a light will shed To cheer the gloom.

THE YOUNG ABSTAINER.

Quick.

1. I am a young abstainer, oh, from drinking customs free; I shun those who the drink will drink, For water give to me. Pure, cold water, water give to me! For I am a young abstainer, from drinking customs free.

2 The drunkard is a foolish man;
He staggers through the streets,
And he is pelted on with stones
By every one he meets. Ch.

3 The drunkard is a careless man.
He throws his cash away;
He does not save his money up
Against an evil day. Ch.

4 The drunkard is a cruel man;
And thus we often see
His wretched wife and family
In rags and misery. Ch.

5 The drunkard is a wicked man.
His quiver teigns his mind,
And that will punish him for that,
As he will surely find. Ch.

May drink wine, gin and beer,
But I prefer a wiser plan:
My drink is water clear. Ch.

From drinking custom free;
Can't you give up the drunken-drink
And amuse and work with me? Ch.

O Christians, behold the hill of Zion, We shall dwell with the pure & the blest, We shall gather on the other side,
No where our greatest treasure lies, We shall sing with the faithful in glory, Pressed by grace to his kingdom's coast,
Work for the Lord while 'er our trials, Where the weary sorrow shall rest, Where the billions of Jordan are passed,
O be faithful, we shall win the prize, We're gathering in with eager longing, We shall sing with the friends we have cherished,
Covered with light in a mansion of beauty, Pressing toward the swelling tide, Alas, glory, we're home, home at last.

Yet again a child restored.

- Rever from his house to thee,
Come and welcome, sinners, come.
- 4 From the days of life shall end
Lo, I come, your Father, Friend,
Take your spirit to glory
To the mansion of endless day,
Tis to my eternal home;
Come and welcome, sinners, come.

1. How gentle God's commands! How kind his mercy to us! "Come, and pray for sinners on the Lord, And trust his name—that name.

2. Beneath his watchful eye
His saints securely dwell;
That hand which bears all nations up
Shall guard his children well.
3. Why should this restless soul
From Jesus' weary mind?
Haste to your heavenly Father's
And ever-renewed love!
4. His goodness stands approved
Through each succeeding day;
I'll drop my burden at his feet,
And lead a long way.

2d HYMN. S. M.

1. Lord, to our wandering thoughts,
Thy sacred word be lent
With deep attention and with love,
With reverence and with fear.
2. Let us remember still
That God is present here;
And let our hearts be all engaged
When we draw near in prayer.

3. And when the humble notes
Of praise our lips employ,
Give us to taste the sweet delight,
Which saints in heaven enjoy.
4. Oh, may thy sacred word
Sink deep in every breast,
And let us all by grace be brought
To Christ, the promised rest.

3d HYMN. S. M.

1. Jesus, who knows full well
The heart of every saint,
Invites us all our gifts to tell,
To pray and never faint.
2. He knows his precious one;
We never plead in vain;
Then let us wait till he appear,
And pray, and pray again.
3. Though unbelief suggest,
Why should we longer wait?
He bids us never give him rest,
But insist on mercy's gate.

4th HYMN. S. M.

1. Come, Holy Spirit, come;
Let thy bright beams arise;
Dispel the sorrow from our minds,
The darkness from our eyes.
2. Comfort us of our sin,
Then lead to Jesus' blood,
And to our wandering view reveal
The secret love of God.
3. Revive our drooping faith,
Our doubts and fears remove,
And dwell in our hearts the home
Of never-dying love.
4. 'Tis thine to cleanse the heart,
To sanctify the soul,
To pour fresh life in every part,
And animate the whole.
5. Come, Holy Spirit, come;
Our minds from bondage free,
Then shall we know and praise and
The Father, Son and Thou. Amen.

1. The Sabbath-school's a place of power, I love to meet my teachers there. There to quantify knowledge there,
 2. In God's own book we're taught to read How Christ for sinners gave 'd and bread, How Christ for sinners gave 'd and bread.

They teach us there that every one May find in heaven a happy home, May find in heaven a happy home.
 That precious blood a ransom gave For sinful men, his soul to save, For sin - ful men his soul to save.

I love to go, I love to go, I love to go to Sabbath-school, I love to go, I love to go, I love to go to Sabbath-school.

|| In Sabbath-school we sing and pray,
 And learn to love the Sabbath-day.
 That, when on earth our Sabbath ends,
 A glorious rest in heaven we'll spend.
 || I love to go, I love to go,
 I love to go to Sabbath-school. ||

|| And when our days on earth are o'er,
 We'll meet in heaven to part no more;
 Our teachers kind we there shall greet,
 And ah! what joy 'twill be to meet
 || In heaven above, in heaven above,
 In heaven above, to part no more. ||

1 Jesus, lover of my soul,
Lest me to thy bosom fly,
While the raging billows roll,
While the tempest still is high;
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life is past.
Safe into the haven guide,
Oh, receive my soul at last.

Hangs my helpless soul on thee;
Leave, oh, leave me not alone!
Still support and comfort me;
All my trials on thee I'll rely;
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of thy wing.

3 Then, O Christ, art all I want,
More than all in thee I find;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and bind the blind.
Just and holy is thy name,
I am all unrighteousness;
Pious and true art thou I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

We gather in his name.

We give ourselves to Jesus,
Our talents and our time,
Thy tender love constrains us,
And we would him be thine.
O give us strength to follow
Till life's hard journey past,
And greet each child and teacher
A merry crown at last.

1 I want to live for Jesus,
To bear his cross below,
And suffer if 'tis possible,
My constant love to show.
I want no home but his tent,
The Christian's home is here,
And say what'er he bids me,
Thy will, not mine, be done.

2 I want to live for Jesus,
And serve him day by day,
To labor in his vineyard,
And always watch and pray.
Though every sin of mine
The hand of death should reach,
I want a faith in Jesus,
That grief and sorrow chase.

3 I want to die for Jesus,
And share his glory to meet,
When on the banks of Jordan
I stand in rapturous feet,
And when I rise triumphant
To heaven's happy seats,
I want to reign with Jesus,
Where thou shalt be my King.

ST. THOMAS. S. M.

1 Hail ye, ye nations, who on his arm repose,
Looking to the hills whence comfort comes;
Let all the earth around the death
Celestial grace her doors.

2 His hand on shoulder lays,
No terror shakes his love;
No locks to drive our guilty souls
To darker flames below.

3 Now, nations, dry your tears,
Let hopeless sorrow cease;
Hew to the scepter of his love,
And take the offered peace.

4 Sing him eternal love
In glad adoration,
And hark! His voice our wretched souls
From their sleep of sin.

5 'T was mercy shed the throne,
And wrath arose to lay,
That he who was sent with justice down
To earth should be to us.

6 Lord, we pray Thy will,
We lay a humble claim
To the salvation Thou hast brought,
And love and praise Thy name.

W. B. BRADLEY.

1. How kind the zephyrus when he flies, How mildly blows the closing year,
When with a weary soul we rest, How gently hushes with'ring prayer!

2 He fishes a treasure almost away;
He strikes the gold when others are o'er;
He gently shuts the eye of day;
He dries a wave along the shore.

3 Farewell conflicting hopes and fears,
Where lights and shades alternate dwell;
Here bright the unchanging noon appears!
Farewell, transient world, farewell!

1 Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep!
From which none ever wakes to weep;
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Undisturbed by the last of foes.

2 Asleep in Jesus! ah, how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet!

With holy confidence to sing
That death hath lost his venom'd sting!

3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest!
Whom waking is supremely blest!

No fear, no wail, shall then that hour
Which manifests the Father's power.

4 Asleep in Jesus! O for us
May such a blessed slumber be!
Sweetly shall we safely lie,
And wait the summons from on high.

EVENING PRAYER.

D. A. JONES.

1 Jesus, tender Shepherd, hear us;
Draw thy little lambs to right.
Through the darkness be thou near us,
Keep us safe till morning light.

2 All this day thy hand has led us,
And we thank thee for thy care;
Thou hast sustained us, sustained us, led us,
Listen to our evening prayer!

3 May our sins be all forgiven;
When the friends we love are well,
Take us, when we die, to heaven,
Happy there with thee to dwell.

2 We should always unto the others,
See suppose ourselves the best;
Let us love our friends and brethren—
Tune the harp to his last request.

3 His example we should follow,
Who through his thorns alone,
And endured such pain and sorrow,
Out of tenderness and love.

4 When our fleshly thought would rebel us,
And our resolution break,
Let us then remember Jesus,
And trust in his love and grace.

3 From our homes, our household altars,
Where our Father leads the host,
Oh we hear a voice saying,
—Come, dear children, come to us.

4 When at night upon our pillow,
We have raised our prayer to thee,
Then we tell the word complete,
—Come, dear children, come to us.

5 Only we hear it when our teachers
Talk to us of Calvary;
In our hearts the truth is made —
—Come, dear children, come to us.

3d Hymn. No. 47a.

1 Love and kindness we may measure
By this simple rule alone:
Do we mind our neighbor's pleasure
Just as if it were our own?

3d Hymn. No. 47.

1 To the wondering and the wroth,
Everywhere on land and sea,
Jesus calls in tones of mercy,
—Come, dear children, come to me.

2 When we pass death's troubled stream,
Calm and peaceful it will be,
If we have that voice of calm,
—Come, dear children, come to me.

THY WILL BE DONE.

1. My God, my Father, while I stray far from my home, on life's rough way, } Thy will, my God, be done!
O! lead me from my loneliness }
2. If thou shouldst recall me to my sins, what need I pray— } Thy will, my God, be done!
I will yield thee what thou desire, }
I will yield thee what thou desire, }
I will yield thee what thou desire, }

3. Should passing sadness waste away
My life in passionate day,
My Father, still I'll strive to say,
Thy will, my God, be done!
4. Control me, will from day to day,
Lead it with thine, and take away
Whatever makes it hard to say,
Thy will, my God, be done!
5. Then when at last I breathe no more,
And life's sad conflicts all are o'er,
I'll sing upon a happier shore,
Thy will, my God, be done!

"God grant that you may drop down in the HARNESS. God give you the privilege of working to the last man's death!"—General Wainwright.

Words composed and sung by

W. A. BRADSHAW.

1 Let me die in the harness, Let me die in the work, In the work my life has given me to do. With his arm to uphold me, and his power to cheer. Oh, how joyful my way I'll pursue. Strong in him I'll bear my burden, Cheerful in the 1 Let my hand never weary, let my heart never faint.

He has said his grace is sufficient for me.
Let me work in this vineyard, let me work in the field,
For my Master who suffered for me.
I am His, I feel, I know it,
Blind as-crowns, both divine,
O' the cannot let Him to labor,
Jesus, my Saviour, what rapture is mine.

2 With my lamp trimmed and burning, and my staff in my hand,
While the painful truth for my soul's sake I wear,
May my Lord, when he cometh, find me still in the work,
Ever faithful and faithful in prayer;
Then through Him to life awaking,
I shall see his smiling face,
On a bright green world
Rest his favor in His dear embrace.

OLD HUNDRED, L. M.

Verse No. 1. Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him, all creatures here below,
Praise him above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Verse No. 2. To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Be honor, praise, and glory given,
By all on earth, and all in heaven.

A little boy, formerly a member of the Church of W. E. Burleigh-street, formerly wrote a letter to his mother, the subject of which was given below.

"I have met with a great loss. We have soldiers in town? One died today in France? A few soldiers before last night one called his head and said, 'Oh, I am the angels' they are coming, they are coming.' 'What, having to me, old man?' 'No a good old Mother, and I am in heaven?'—Robert G. Chubb.

Waves swayed out this word.

W. E. BURLEIGH.

Modestly, with expression.

1. Oh, I see the shining angels, Gath'ring round my dy-ing bed, With their harps and robes of glory. Then a bath-ing mother said: 'What are her robes made of? They're like heavenly robes in

I earthly joys, I know, are fleeting;
 Earthly pleasures quickly go;
 But the joys that last forever,
 From the heavenly realms flow
 When released from life's slavery,
 My glad spirit would be free,—

From that land of peace and glory,
 Will the angels come to me. Oh,
 Oh, how sweet to feel their presence,
 In the hush and silent room;
 With their bright and shining hair,

Gilding all the dusky gloom!
 When from loved friends I've parted,
 And their faces are flowing o'er,
 When from Jesus's hands I've started,
 Will the angels come to me!

1 For many long and the children
Of this weary vale of tears,
Thence the tale of love is straying
Through the heights and shadowy glens;
O' I long to be with them,
In the mountains of the West,
"Where the wild old ocean waves are breaking,
And the sunny be at rest."

2 They are journeying on the stream,
From the vale and quiet shore,
And they soon will leave my sight
When the waves reach the coast;
For the tide is swiftly flowing,
And I long to greet the boat,
"Where the wild old ocean waves are breaking,
And the sunny be at rest."

And I'll not touch the costly bowl,
While brother shall see and deem red,
Water is free. | 4. Come, then, children, just in singing
Meet heartily,
Thanks for crystal water springing
For you and me,
Oh, may our lives be like the flow,
So pure and clear while here below,
Towards the living stream we go,
Water is free. |

WALTZ MELODY FOR THE VOICE.

W. B. BRADLEY.

Listen, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth. — Luke ix, 18.
 Let your praise be loud!

C. 188.

1. Joy! joy! joy! there is joy in heav'n with the angels; Joy! joy! joy! for the prodigal's return!

He has come, he has come, he has — For that's home at last; He was lost, he is found, And the sight of glory is yours. Blessed hour of joy, and welcome — how sweet for his Heart is full and his love complete, His Father sent him and hasten to meet, And bid him welcome home.

2 Joy! joy! joy! in the courts of heaven wondrous,
 Joy! joy! joy! when the prodigal's return;
 Hark! the song, hark! the song,
 'Tis a joyful, joyful strain,
 Welcome home, welcome home,
 To thy Father's house again,
 While his eye is dim with the falling tear;
 Oh repentant sinner, never wasted year,
 The pardoning Father of his Father's chosen,
 And bid him welcome home. Chorus. Joy! joy!

3 Joy! joy! joy! in the radiant fields of glory,
 Joy! joy! joy! when a wandering soul returns,
 Let us haste, let us haste,
 While the morning sun is bright,
 Jesus calls, Jesus calls,
 To a land of love and light,
 We will journey on till our pilgrim feet
 Shall be bound as fast to the golden street,
 Our glorious Father will never be given,
 And bid us welcome home. Chorus. Joy! joy!

 morning-birds, warbling in gloom, Tamed their sweet notes to our gay son - dy. But the long winter that loved, when childhood's bright years, Sunshine and smiles were mingled with tears. Men - it was, pure as the watching and pining; Shall not we now with thy strong arms again? Shall we'st dark passions have overcome allured their reins; Chilled my young heart with the frost touch of pain; Mine is my voice like the birds on the year by spring-time, Wake at the sound of thy name in a pain; Too dear by, and by, with love by I

Now, sing to me, mother, O sing to me now! Sing to me, mother, O sing to me now!
 Now, sing to me, mother, etc.
 Now, sing to me, mother, etc.

THE GOOD AND THE KIND.

W. B. BRANFORD.

1. The good and the kind, the good and the kind, (First there's a dear gift ever springing, The good and the kind, the good and the kind, angels around him - sing - sing.)
 2. The good and the kind, the good and the kind, (An angel of blessings that pleasure, The good and the kind, the good and the kind ever on joy - a rich ever - more.)

1. The good and the kind,
 Right in the sunshine of heaven,
 All peacefully welcome the year;
 2. The good and the kind

1. The good and the kind,
 All united, and shining, and true light,
 To give laughter, blessed, or neighbor,
 2. The good and the kind

1. Sweet Daffy-down-billy came up in the cold, thought up there the world,
 Al - the the on her face, Al -
 March her own blue eyes

CHORUS.

Al - the white snow lay on every a place, Daffy-down-billy, Daffy-down-billy, Daffy-down-billy came up in the cold.

1 Fair Daffy-down-billy had heard under ground

The sweet rustling sound

Of streams as they lay at their white winter-chains,

Of whistling spring winds, and the pattering rain. Ch.

2 "And now then," thought Daffy, sleep down in her heart,

"It's time I should start!"

So she pushed her own leaves thru the hard-frozen ground,

Quite up to the surface, and then she looked round. Ch.

3 With eyes all about her; grey clouds overhead;

The trees all looked dead,

The sun would show, and the ice would not melt,

Then how do you think Daffy-down-billy felt? Ch.

4 "Cold weather!" thought Daffy, with working away

"The earth's hard to dig!"

There's but a half inch of my leaves to be seen,
 And two thirds of that is more yellow than green. Ch.

5 I can't do much yet, but I'll do what I can,

It's well I began;

For if I can't manage to lift up my head,

The people will think that the spring hasn't a head!" Ch.

7 So, little by little, she brought her leaves out,

All started about

and then her bright flowers began to unfold,

Till Daffy stood red in her spring green and gold. Ch.

8 O Daffy-down-billy, no leaves and no tree!

Would all were like you,

So ready for duty no soil can withhold

Your courage and beauty is quite of the soil. Ch.

Jingle, jingle, jing jing, jing, Right merry we shall be, The jingle, jingle, Come Kasia Kasia,
Come with your Christmas tree; And welcome, welcome, welcome Kasia, Right welcome shall you be, O there be be, yes, yes, the Kasia, The Kasia with your Christmas tree, the Christmas tree, the Christmas tree, the Christmas tree, the Christmas tree.

This song, may be sung to advantage in great advantage either by a boy or an adult, pointing to each in his place, all singing the " come let golden-bell," &c. The chorus whether a quartette or a larger number should sit on the stage behind him. One of their number should take a paper representing the Pledge. All should remain seated while singing the verse, then one by one, when the solo singer is reading the line " you may pass," &c., should have passed, take the pledge from the person in holding it, and walking off on the stage should advance to the front of the stage waving it above his head. The two others should be now standing, all rising together and singing with great spirit.

L. B. BARRY. From "Golden Bells," by permission.

1 (These Temp'tations follow us ever, by, Crowded us ever, by, Crowded us awfully, They tempt follow us

CHORUS.

1 They think the pledge those blue testaments,
 Those testaments, those testaments,
 Mark the path, those blue testaments,
 Towards our holy ones.
 They talk of war and want and poverty
 Want and poverty, want and poverty,
 Talk of war and want and poverty,
 There's truth in that I assure,
 My soul, I care, to rather surely,
 And my pocket too would too.
 My soul has gone but poverty hunted,
 And the last one wears a shawl.
 Come—then forward, etc.

2 I wish those shags would come to play me,
 Come to play me, come to play me,
 With those shags would come to play me,
 I'm not just quite loath.
 Though mine is surely my own fat pocket book,
 Give me fat pocket book, come fat pocket book,
 Come to make my own fat pocket book.
 There's a very six pence left.
 There's a wife down town would smile like Topsy,
 If I'd sign the pledge this day.
 There's a bright faced child would jump and exult,
 You may join the pledge this way!
 Come—then forward, etc.

NEVER SAY "I CANT"

Wm. D. HARRIS,
1st Solo—Chorus.

1. Never say, "I can't," my friend, Nor at any time. [Treat or sing.] Whosoever words to them I hear,
2. They will give them gladly play. Nor at any time. They can sing and say a way.

In Solo—Chorus.

All.

From the first of Joy or grief, Oh they make no doubt and fear, Nor at any time. [Treat or sing.]
Hail, and sing, will play their part; Even shall sing, what they sing, Never say "I can't."

3. Never mind how hard the task,
Never say "I can't."
Find some one who knows, and ask,
Let you have, the lesson learned
Never mind how hard the task,
Never say "I can't."

4. Man who do the noblest deeds
Never say "I can't."
He who lacks the strength he needs
Takes his heart and gives it rest,
And at length he well succeeds.
Never say "I can't."

5. But those who teach to wrong,
Always say "I can't."
In your virtue live and strong,
Give us the strength that you have,
And when better would you sing,
Never say "I can't."

OUR DARLING ONE.

SONG AND QUARTET.

W. E. B. HENRY.

1877 When in the family, a gentle, sweet song with Prescriptions or Chorales accompanied is suited to every the singing of church singing. Andante. Tempo.

And the evening angels play, When the bells at eve are ringing, Then our darling one we hold,
By the willows dewy shade, And the moon is low - so brightly, Where our darling one is hid,
When the stars are never sleeping, We shall find our dar - ling somewhere in a world of endless day.

QUARTET OR CHORUS.

And.

When the bells at eve are ring - ing, Then our dar - ling, Then our darling one we hold,

And the moon is low - so brightly, Where our dar - ling, Where our darling one is hid,

We shall find our dar - ling somewhere, In that bright - er, brighter world of endless day.

I have said our humble prayer
 For the shepherd of thy sheep,
 Let thy mercy and thy care
 Attend upon us every week.

Is thy strength only to be stored?
 Random stray arms and pain;
 And our waiting lives proving,
 Till we meet on earth again.
