

Gardner-Webb University

Digital Commons @ Gardner-Webb University

Jenkins, Charles Augustus (1908 – 1911)

Pastors of First Baptist Shelby

8-21-1963

Correspondence - August 21, 1963 - J. B. Davis

J.B. Davis

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.gardner-webb.edu/first-baptist-shelby-charles-augustus-jenkins>

Zebulon, N.C., Sept.
~~Sept.~~ Aug. 21, 1963

Dear Sir:

In reply will say I am sorry not to be able to give you the requested information concerning the Bro. Jenkins. I have been absent from this village. I know little about this little town that covers a pretty big territory. I came here last year and have been here for several months. My sister in law, ~~Wm.~~ Mrs. Strickland Davis.

I have made inquiries from several persons, and thus far have learned nothing definite. I suppose the one you mention did not stay here long, or I would have known much more than the little I have. If from further news I will let let you know.

From your letter you must keep up quite well. I shall be glad to hear again from you. In our work we must cross trails, or tracks, pretty often.

I am,

Most sincerely yours,
Thos. B. Davis
Thos. Davis

BOX 52

ZEBULON, NORTH CAROLINA

Liz Davis

5c U.S. POSTAGE

Mr. Thurman Hamrick,

Shelby, N.C.

Rev. C. A. Jenkins

Books written by J. P. Hooke - "Good Lumpston" and "The Bride's Return" - over

Church building started in 1910,
under Rev. Jenkins.