Dear Faye:

I hope you will forgive my addressing you as "Faye," but it is all I ever heard my Dad call you. I am Rex & Eva Bestic's daughter, Evelyn, and will always remember how kind it was of you & Mr. Gardner to let us have the use of your apt. here when we visited in 1946. My husband, three year old daughter, & I have been here in Washington since the first of the week & I had so hoped to have the opportunity of meeting you.

Mother was with us on the earlier part of the trip, but has returned to Calif. now. We all were together in Nashville & rented a car to drive over to Asheville to see

WASHINGTON • D. C.

Daddy's brother, Wilburn, & family.
I hated to be so close to Shelby & not get to drive there, but they only allowed us three days for the whole trip over & back. I did so want Herb, my husband, to meet
"Madge" & see your lovely home there — also to see the house where Daddy was born. Herb & my Dad thought so much of one another and we do miss him so.

We did not know until Mr. Gardner's passing that he was a Sigma Nu. Some of our very best friends in Calif. are Sigma Nus from Stanford Uni.

We are taking a plane for N.Y. now so must close, but if you ever come to California please let us return your favor.

Sincerely,

Evelyn Bastic Grouson
