It is safe to venture that the host of Hamricks to be found in Cleveland and Rutherford Cos. today ^{with} ~~as~~ those who have shifted elsewhere are descendants of one or another of these three brothers whose father was Hans George Hamrick.

Charles Hamrick, one of the three brothers was the great great grandfather of the 6 brothers, namely Newton, Sidney, John, Leander, Alving and Wylie of whom most of us gathered here today are direct descendants.

Chas. Hamrick, had a son, Price Hamrick who was the great grandfather of the 6 sons mentioned above.
Price Hamrick was born in 1765 and died in 1822. He married Nancy Bridge and to this union was born and reared 3 sons, Richard, John and Moses. Moses being the grandfather of the 6 named brothers and the father of Street Hamrick. Moses Hamrick was born Dec. 24, 1791 and died on Aug. 1868. On Feb. 5 1818 he married Sallie Robinson, daughter of Isaac Robinson the Revolutionary hero, who was then living in Rutherford Co. N. C.

Moses Hamrick's wife died in A.C. 1850. To this union were born 13 children: 8 boys & 5 girls. Among these was Cameron Street Hamrick father of the 6 brothers already mentioned.
Street Hamrick, as he was always known and designated, was born Aug. 29, 1822 and died June 29, 1900.
On Aug. 10, 1843 Street Hamrick and Elmory Bridges, daughter of Jesse Bridges, were united in marriage.
The 6 sons were born to the union Marshall Newton, Sidney Hill, John Calhoun, Frank Shepard, George Mason and Wylie Cicero Hamrick.
Newton Hamrick married Adeline Holland and to this union was born Emma Hamrick who married Sam Andrews, whose children Sue, Beth, William & Robert are first cousins of Mrs. O. May Gardner.
