From The Pastor's Pen

In Retrospect

Our 1962 Youth Camp is now history. As I look back upon it, I know that a great deal of real good was accomplished through it, in spite of the rain.

The church is deeply indebted to its Youth Director, Miss Carole Pearson, for the work which she did in planning and conducting the camp. The full results of the week will be known only in eternity; however, we know enough now to be able to say that God was with us during the week.

Think-Nics

Thus far during the month of June we have had a special emphasis for our children (V.B.S.); we have had a special emphasis for our intermediates and young people (our Youth Camp); now we are to have an emphasis of special interest to our adults. However, our young people and intermediates are urged to attend.

This emphasis is our annual Think-Nics. Mrs. Roland Leath, who has no peer as a Bible teacher, is to teach. The study course book to be used as a background is “From Joshua to David.”

Certainly this emphasis, which is to begin Monday night, June 25, will be a highlight in the program of our church this year. The Think-Nics will be held at homes of various members on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights, and at the church on Wednesday. It is hoped that many of our people will choose to attend and participate in this spiritual emphasis.

Vacation Time

Laura and I will be leaving on July 2, for our vacation. We will be away from Shelby for three Sundays. The Pulpit Supply Committee has done a superb job in securing outstanding men to supply the pulpit in my absence.

On July 8, Dr. Duke McCall, president of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and an outstanding preacher, will be with us. On July 15, George W. Schroeder, Executive Secretary of the Baptist Brotherhood of the South, is to be with us. On July 22, Dr. C. C. Warren will be our visiting minister. The prayer meetings will be conducted by the Reverend C. O. Greene, our Associational Missionary.

As can be observed, our church is in for a real spiritual blessing. I do hope that all of our members will take advantage of the opportunities afforded.

SUMMER THINK-NICS SET FOR NEXT WEEK

Next week - June 25-29 - we will be meeting for our Summer Think-Nics. In past years this event has been very helpful and enjoyable to all who participated.

Mrs. Roland Leath will teach the book “From Joshua to David” which covers the Biblical events between these two Old Testament characters.

These are the meeting places for each night:

Night Home Address
Monday Mr. and Mrs. Mal Spangler, Sr. Mt. View Farm
Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Keeter Country Club Acres
Wednesday Meet in the Chapel
Thursday Mr. and Mrs. John Whisnant 800 Phillips
Friday Mr. and Mrs. Lowery Austell 205 S. Thompson St.

Each night we begin at 7 o’clock.

In the event of rain the meeting will be in the Chapel. The Nursery will be open at 6:45 for children 4 years of age and under.

CHURCH 115 YEARS OLD JUNE 19, 1962

Many people will find this brief sketch of the history of our church intensely interesting. We are indebted to Mr. Hubbard Hamrick, Church Historian, for gleaning these facts from our past. Express your thanks to Mr. Hamrick.

CHURCH ORGANIZED

In the year 1846 a meeting house was erected for public worship and religious services were conducted at various times by Drury Dobbs, J. M. Webb and others, until the 19th of June 1847, when the Shelby Baptist Church was formally organized. Drury Dobbs, J. M. Webb and several other ministers and deacons from the surrounding churches and twenty five persons dismissed from other churches around constituted the Shelby Baptist Church.

William Roberts, J. R. Logan and David Warlick were the first deacons. Thomas Williams was the first clerk. James M. Webb was chosen as the first pastor and William Roberts and J. R. Logan were appointed as delegates to represent the church in the Broad River Association and ask for admission into that body, where it remained until 1856, when it joined the Kings Mountain Association.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ORGANIZED

The Sunday School which has always been a very important factor in this church was first organized in 1864 during the pastorate of Edmund A. Crawley who was also principal of the Shelby Female Academy at that time. Rev. G. M. Webb a son of the first pastor, was the leader of Sunday School organization in this section. During these early times and for sometime thereafter there were no Sunday School lesson books or literature. Teaching was done using the Bible with each teacher making his own selection of Scripture.

In the beginning there were no organized classes or departments.

SEVERAL BUILDINGS

The first church was a wooden building painted white. It was said to be a very comfortable building and was able to seat about 200 people.

LOOKING AT YOUTH

By Carole Pearson

One-hundred and thirty-three Intermediates and Young People are back from a wonderful week of camping. There are many of us who are sad because we just were not ready for the week to end. We had some rain but it didn’t seem to dampen the spirits of our campers very much. I wish you could have seen our Couples Softball game!!! or maybe I should say - you should have seen our couples when the game was over!! Couples came to the game in old clothes and barefoot and literally slid around in the mud for about an hour -- more fun!!

The high point of our week came when eight of our young people presented the play, “The Challenge of the Cross.” The cast included, Ann Putnam, Barry Hambright, Jane Gardner, Joanne Smith, John Lawrence, Jr., Don Patrick, Myra Malone and Conrad Martin. Many important decisions were made this year at camp and we are thankful for them. We know that many of you were praying for our camp — please continue to pray for young people as they try to live Christ-like lives here in Shelby.

Mr. Lawrence and Dub Riser presented our camp awards on Friday night after our International Banquet. Superlatives around camp this year were:

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF HUMAN RELATIONS

1. Speak to people. There is nothing as nice as a cheerful word of greeting.
2. Smile at people. It takes 72 muscles to frown, only 14 to smile.
3. Call people by name. The sweetest music to anyone's ears is the sound of his own name.
4. Be friendly and helpful. If you would have friends, be friendly.
5. Be cordial. Speak and act as if everything you do is a genuine pleasure.
6. Be generously interested in people. You can like almost everybody, if you try.
7. Be generous with praise—cautious with criticism.
8. Be considerate with the feelings of others. There are usually three sides to a controversy: yours, the other fellow's, and the right one.
9. Be alert to give service. What counts most in life is what we do for others.
10. Add to this a good sense of humor, a big dose of patience, and a dash of humility and you will be rewarded many-fold.

MULTIPLYING OUR STRENGTH

“Ten men banded together in love can do what ten thousand separately would fail in.”

“Eat your bread alone, and you will be fed, but share your loaf if you would know the flavor of good bread.”

“We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give.”

IT'S TRUE!

For every evil under the sun
There is a remedy or there is none.
If there is one, find it
If there is none, never mind it!

It had a balcony where the slaves of that day sat during the worship period. This church remained in use until 1889 when it was torn down and a brick structure was built. This second church was built during the pastorate of J. M. McMannaway. This second church building was used until 1910 when it was torn down and a new building was erected.

The first service was held in the third church building on June 25, 1911. Where the present auditorium is, was used for the preaching and Sunday School purposes until 1928, when the auditorium was remodeled and the educational building was built. The first service held in the new educational building was March 31, 1929.

SOME INTERESTING AND HUMOROUS NOTES

J. W. Webb, first pastor, was a native of Rutherford County. His old home still stands and his grave is nearby. He was in the State Legislature and at one time was clerk of Rutherford County.

Dr. Zeno Wall held the longest pastorate which covered a period of 22 years and 4 months. A total of 3,579 people joined the church during this pastorate. Dr. Wall served as President of the Baptist State Convention and after retirement from this pastorate was Superintendent of the N. C. Children's Homes. On July 10, 1927, after the revival led by Dr. L. R. Scarborough, Dr. Wall baptized 65 people.

The largest number of additions in any year was in 1930 when 254 people were received. This was a depression year and points up the fact that people were conscious of their need of God in such a time.

The Baptist State Convention met here four times 1875, 1890, 1913, 1929.

The church was included from the Kings Mountain Association in 1858 for “inviting a preacher of another denomination to assist in a service.” (The church was re-admitted to the association in 1871.)

The shortest pastorate was that of J. A. White, who served from March 15, 1880 to August 26, 1880.

On July 9, 1902 Pastor R. F. Treadway asked the deacons to buy a wire fence to put around the church “to keep stray cows and mules from the church yard.”

Several instances are recorded in the history of members being excluded—reason was for non-attendance.

One member asked for his letter because he could not “fellowship” another member.

First person baptized in the church baptism was July 16, 1871.

Prior to this people were baptized in the river.

The first B Y P U was organized in 1914 by E. A. Ruppe, the first Educational Director, who now lives in Parsons, Kansas. The first adult B. T. U. was organized in August 1928.

The first parsonage was built in 1905 and the present parsonage was completed in 1924.

The pipe organ was first used on September 6, 1911.

Rev. John E. Lawrence is our 29th pastor. His ministry began Feb. 15, 1954. During this pastorate a total of 1,417 people have united with the church — 516 by baptism and 901 by letter. The church is second in the state in gifts to missions; first in Training Union attendance; third in Sunday School attendance and sixth in total membership.

STANDING ALONE

It is human to stand with the crowd; it is divine to stand alone. It is manlike to follow the people, to drift with the tide; it is God-like to follow a principle, to stem the tide. It is natural to compromise conscience, and follow the social fashion for the sake of gain or pleasure; it is divine to sacrifice both on the altar of truth and duty.

Surely there is something in the unruffled calm of nature that overawes our little anxieties and doubts: the sight of the deep blue sky and the clustering stars above seem to impart a quiet to the mind.

—Jonathan Edwards

He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men, and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul; who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it; who has always looked for the best in others and given the best he had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory Leaves a benediction.

—Bessie A. Stanley

SENTENCE SERMONS

Five most important words: I am proud of you!

Four most important words: What is your opinion?

Three most important words: If you please!

Two most important words: Thank you!

 Least important word: I

Take responsibility on your shoulders and it will leave no room for chips.

If you're not as close to God as you once were, make no mistake about which one has moved.

A good example is the best sermon.

The greatest use of a life is to spend it for something that outlasts it.—William James.

VACATION TIME: Someone has described a vacation in this manner, “A vacation is a short period of recreation, preceded by a period of anticipation and followed by a period of recuperation.” Many of you will be taking a vacation soon, when you do “keep in touch” with us here.

MEMORIAL FLOWERS

Flowers will be placed in the sanctuary on the first anniversary of his death by his brother, Joe Harmon.

Love Suffereth Long

The unforgiving spirit! It splits churches, destroys friendships, and extinguishes the glow of Christian radiance. It is a disease that chokes the voice of witness like diptheria, that paralyzes the ministry like polio, causes a rash of dissension like smallpox, gnaws the vital organs like ulcers, isolates like leprosy, perverts judgment like insanity, and finally kills all joy and usefulness like cancer at its worst!

And what is the cure for such a dread infection of the soul. Two simple little words spoken sincerely from the heart, the two little words "forgive" and "forget." For some they are two bitter pills; for others just to speak them requires some serious surgery. But for the Christian, who has accepted so freely God's immeasurable forgiveness for unnumbered sins, there can be no human offense so heinous, no human hurt so deep, no human failure so final that it does not pale into insignificance beside the debt we owe our Christ. What love gives is remarkable, but what love forgives is almost unbelievable!

—Sibyl B. Townsend.
