Mrs. G. F. Webb's last letter to her daughter
May

Dearest May Maddy is waiting & Maddy thinks I would try to write you a few lines. A beautiful day. Your big game just came. So glad you got them safe. We hated to see you go and friends say. Imagined I had his name out in hall here this morning Maddy got a boy yesterday morning got his ride changed ready for Sue Maddy came to school today. That told that we were going to dinner. That has just is. <sup>is</sup> situated fine but I can write.
Thank you for all he did. Can't write any more Mrs. D. hope met I will stay with you for each one of you Always lovingly Maddy
