

Gardner-Webb University

Digital Commons @ Gardner-Webb University

---

Barnett, Micajah Cicero (1850, 1866 – 1870)

Pastors of First Baptist Shelby

---

2021

M. C. Barnett - Second Pastor

Unknown

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.gardner-webb.edu/first-baptist-shelby-micajah-cicero-barnett>

---

M. C. BARNETT

"Second Pastor"

Rev. M. C. Barnett was born May 20, 1818 in Spartanburg County, S. C.

His early education was very limited, but by hard work and constant devotion to his studies he became one of the best educated men of his day. Rev. Barnett was ordained as a Baptist minister in March, 1843 at Cedar Springs Church, his home church near Spartanburg, S. C.

He served the Shelby Baptist Church as pastor at two different times, first from December 31, 1849 until November 30, 1850, and the second time from January 22, 1866 till December 31, 1870.

He died in Shelby, September 20, 1872 and was buried at El Bethel Baptist Church in York, <sup>county</sup> S. C.

*Rev. M. C. Barnett married miss Nazareth
Lipscomb*