DOVER CHAPEL
DOVER, JOHN R. JR.

CHAPEL IS NAMED — The religious activities chapel to be constructed at Gardner-Webb College will be named in memory of John R. Dover Jr. A sizeable gift toward its construction has been made by the family of John R. Dover Jr. This includes his wife, daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Vincent and his son, John

Chapel To Honor J. R. Dover Jr.

BOILING SPRINGS — Dr. E. Eugene Poston has announced a gift from the family of the late John R. Dover, Jr. to be applied to the construction of a Religious Activities Chapel on the Gardner-Webb College campus.

The religious activities chapel, part of the proposed religious activities center for the college will be built in memory of John R. Dover, Jr., who served many years on the Gardner-Webb Board of Trustees and in other capacities of assistance.

John R. Dover, III, acting on behalf of himself, his sister, Mrs. G. J. Vincent and his mother, presented the gift to the college through Dr. Poston. He remarked that his father had often told him of the many contributions Gardner-Webb College has made to the community and to his own life.

Boiling Springs High School, forerunner of Gardner-Webb, in 1911 and was part of the school's growth from a high school to a junior college. He was chairman of the committee which selected Dr. Poston president to replace the retiring Dr. Philip Elliott. Dover was active in civic and church life of the community serving in many capacities. Among these was presidency of the Shelby Rotary Club and superintendent of the Dover Baptist Sunday School. He also served as chairman of the board of the Dover Textile Group.

The Dover's interest in the college is evident by the presence of the Dover Memorial Library built in memory of John R. Dover, Sr. and the Charles I. Dover Campus Center now under construction.

John R. Dover, Jr. gave the first money for an endowed academic scholarship at Gardner-Webb and the fund, named in memory of Dover, has now grown to over $50,000 with interest from it being used to assist students who are academically talented.
