WEBB ADMINISTRATION BUILDING — CAPITAL FUND CAMPAIGNS

PROPOSED ADDITION—Funds from the current capital fund campaign will allow expansion of the present Webb Administration Building on campus. This drawing is an architect's concept.

Capital Fund Campaign Goes Over $1 Million

The drive for $1,500,000 in capital gifts for the construction of major buildings on the campus, including a new library, has passed the $1,200,000 mark, according to John Beam, director of development.

Two of the 11 area campaigns have been completed and Beam says that plans are well underway in the other areas.

"We are thrilled over the response that we have had to the campaign," said Beam. "The campaign has gone into only two local areas and we are well within range of our goal. We are most grateful for the efforts that have been put forth by our alumni and friends."

The Boiling Springs campaign was the first on the list. This group had a goal of $30,000. The final report meeting listed a total of $32,970 given by the Boiling Springs area.

Dan W. Moore, Jr., who is now principal of Shelby High School, was the campaign chairman. The division led by John Washburn, Jr. was tops with gifts totaling $13,080. James Beason led the special gifts committee which reported $14,000.

Shelby was the next area to go over the top and this group set a goal of $150,000. With chairman Lloyd Bost leading the way Shelby reported gifts exceeding $211,000. There are still some cards outstanding and work will continue in this area.

C. Rush Hamrick, Jr. was chairman of the team which led the way in Shelby. R. Patrick Spangler, Jr., who is the campaign's general chairman, served as special gifts chairman in Shelby. This committee reported gifts of $11,825.

The campaign will now move into Cherryville, Belmont, Kings Mountain, Upper Cleveland, Forest City, Rutherfordton and Charlotte.
