Office of Clerk Superior Court,

Wake County.

W. M. Russ, Clerk.

V. Royster, Deputy Clerk.

Raleigh, N. C., 190
Sunday evening
8 o'clock.

My darling girls; Papa has gone up to see if mail has come in yet, think it is late for have not heard it. I don't yet. Papa drove up to farm this morning, did not get back till one o'clock. He leaves this evening for Kissin, seems to have to go this is the extra court he likes to have held in August.
Judge I got your letter yesterday, say its you had gotten your pa's hat, yes, I think it right high, but it seems that they are high enough when Miss Maggie had her opening Thursday.
I have not seen any of her Willie said she went up that- day but she did not think any of them was especially pretty said high priced, some $15.00 or $20.00 and $25.00 said she thought one of her $10.00 ones was the prettiest.

The same Emma Anderson said she and Mrs Mitchell went up-thought some of them right pretty said she went to Goff's and got her tin, Iceland's wife. Emma said she heard Mrs Kemp send-all got a $25.00 hat and Mrs Jim Lieberman a $23.00 one - I can't afford to get one at that price for you all right. Day papa said he wrote you yesterday that you had better not go to Madison and Macon now, said by the time you get your suit and hat left to Atlanta, and home would be as much as he could stand now. I guess I will go over to Goff's Tuesday or Wednesday, get there in time to meet Maggie. It has been raining so, that I haven't gotten to do.
