Reverend Harvey Laughter
Pastor, Concord Baptist Church
Bostic, North Carolina

Dear Mr. Laughter:

I was so glad to meet you yesterday at my daughter-in-law's Fair Haven Rest Home. We appreciated your part of the impressive dedicatory program.

After seeing you later at the Concord Church cemetery, I was pleased to find where my ancestors were buried and to also find room for the re-burial of my ancestors who lie buried in the yard of our old Webb ancestral home.

It is now owned by the Ben Walls, Jr. on the Rutherfordton-Morganton highway, not too far from Ruth, North Carolina.

I called Jim Padgett, also the Walls, and they say they will take care of the removal, but will get in touch with you and the chairman of your cemetery grounds.

Mr. Wall says there are four graves--three with markers (one can't be read) and one with a rock marker.

Jim Padgett says he will consult with the right persons to get all the markers cleaned.

Now, I want to ask you to cancel the $250 bond I bought through Mr. T. W. Calton in 1961. I want to donate this to the church.

Thank you again for your kindness and your interest, and best wishes always for you and the church.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. O. Max Gardner
