Will Direct Music at Conference

Horace Easom has been in charge of the music at the Conference on Evangelism every year except the first one. A fine program of music has been arranged for each session at Winston-Salem this year. Horace is state Brotherhood secretary, and has had many years of rich and wide experience among North Carolina Baptists in other important posts.

He was director of music and education at the First Church in Shelby for about 20 years, and educational director of the First Church in Asheville for six years. In the field of evangelism, he has worked with Gypsy Smith, Sr., G. Campbell Morgan, S. D. Gordon, George W. Truett, and others.
