Mrs. Leath Named Woman Of The Year

Mrs. Roland Leath is Shelby's 1972 Woman of the Year. She was named at a dinner meeting of Shelby's Business and Professional Woman's Club Tuesday night in the Charles Dining Room.

In 1946 Mrs. Leath received the honor of being named Woman of the Year in the state of Arkansas, noted Van Ramsey who presented Mrs. Leath.

She has been a frequent speaker at a number of various clubs in this area. She is in demand as a speaker in the Cleveland County churches, teaches the teachers of her church and for 20 years has been teacher of the Faith class at First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Leath, mother of three children and grandmother of three, is employed as Guidance Counselor at Shelby Junior High School. She was presented a gold loving cup and plaque.

The Woman of the Year Award for 1972, was made during National Business Women's Week.
