

Gardner-Webb University

Digital Commons @ Gardner-Webb University

Madge Webb Riley

Webb Family

3-6-1953

Correspondences - 1953, March 6 - M. Unknown

M. Unknown

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.gardner-webb.edu/fay-webb-gardner-madge-webb-riley>

Recommended Citation

Unknown, M., "Correspondences - 1953, March 6 - M. Unknown" (1953). Madge Webb Riley. 35.
<https://digitalcommons.gardner-webb.edu/fay-webb-gardner-madge-webb-riley/35>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Webb Family at Digital Commons @ Gardner-Webb University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Madge Webb Riley by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Gardner-Webb University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@gardner-webb.edu.

R 2 - Box 254
Arthur 4
20-10-53

Thursday Afternoon
March 6th 1953

My dearest Fay, - Your telegram did not reach me untill this morning. They won't deliver out here - So it came out in this morning mail - Madge's death is very sad and you and your family are going to miss her very very much as well as all of her many friends. For she certainly was a true friend to those she loved and liked. I can't help but feel that her going is a great help for Madge and a blessing from our "Heavenly Father". I grieve for the way her last days in her life had to be spent and for the many years that she had to suffer. I am sure that it will be a comfort to all of you to know that there was never a time that she suffered for any thing and was able to always have the very best care and every thing she wanted. Our Merciful Father who knows what is best for us will comfort and bless each of you now. Enla will write you in a few days. A heart full of love and deepest sympathy to you and each of your family. Love up toth -

Sincerely "Mum"