Dear Mrs. Gardner:

The invitation to become a Colonial Dame is an honor which I appreciate deeply. It opens an opportunity to share in the Society's historic work which I shall welcome because I am keenly interested in research and in the restoration of places of historic interest.

In whatever branch of its work the Society might think me useful I should be willing & proud to serve.

Sincerely your friend, Mabel Holt Cole.

my dear Mrs. Williamson

I desire to propose the name of Mrs. M. F. P. (address) I have known Mrs. P. since childhood. She comes from a distinguished Carolina family and possesses to a high degree the character & qualifications worthy of membership in the Colonial Dames Society. She came from a long line of patriotic ancestry dating back beyond Revolutionary War.
I am pleased to propose her name and recommend her to the favorable consideration of the Board most sincerely
