'Good News' Scheduled

A fifth presentation here of "Good News" termed the Christian Folk Musical, will take place at 8 p.m. Saturday at Shelby Junior High School.

The program is being presented by the young people of Shelby's First Baptist Church, under the direction of Van H. Ramsey, minister of music. Four previous presentations of the musical have been attended by 3,204 persons.

"Good News" has been called "Christian folk music with the fun of an informal hootenanny, the excitement of real patriotism through songs with a fast tempo and strong beat. . . In highly dramatic and moving worshipful moments, "Good News" reaches out and grabs you. . ."

A recording of the "Good News" program has been made, and reportedly will be available in a few weeks. Saturday night's presentation will be the last in Shelby by the First Baptist group. There will be no admission charge.
