Memorial Day!
Day Dear - This is a definitely day to ~~with~~ ^{and} in ~~love~~ memory of our Madge. I have I learned only a few days ago she left us March 3rd.
My little Pease Bullock comes to Denver & sweep I spend my winters & Spring in Hawthorn they have just come to my attention as I am going last May.
I just returned for the summer. Bless you and family you my dear you mean for dear Madge and Madge & my dear wife and you. We can't give ~~indeed~~ ^{indeed} ~~be~~ other at rest. I recall in one of your letters you spoke of a heart ailment that has ~~been~~ ^{been} ~~just~~ ^{just}

of the trip - makes me laugh & carry the gr. story to & from for M. S. H. to see you girls may have unavoidable changes - and again not see her if I don't get a chance to remember of our school days when we were all carefree & happy & that is a very joyful memory to carry.
In another Bulletin was

Anne Bell Barden's pass-you may not remember her but M. S. H. would then you hope to see and in the mood let me hope Mrs. Jacques Dupont havey - In meaning much I love you and my sympathy for you & all the family - God ever faith you - ever Mary -
