Mr. Ralph Gardner
Shelby, North Carolina

Dear Ralph:

You need suffer no concern about Senator Broughton not notifying me of his coming. The fact of his coming is the important thing and I take it for granted this telegram is sufficient confirmation of that. He had told Senator Hoey that he was writing me. Doubtless, he has done so and the letter has been lost in the mails. I have just discovered that a very important letter from me to Mr. Vann, one of our Trustees at State College, has been lost. If I knew that were true, I would write him as if I had received the letter, but perhaps, since we do not know, I had better wait.

As Ben has told you we are going forward with our preparations.

Very sincerely,

PLE:olw
