INTRODUCTION TO GARDNER-WEBB

Gardner-Webb University is a confessional, residential, church-related university on a beautiful campus just outside Shelby at Boiling Springs, North Carolina. The University derives its name from O. Max Gardner, distinguished governor of North Carolina in the 1930s, and his wife, Fay Webb-Gardner. The beauty of the campus and the quality of the academic program owe much to their example and leadership.

LOCATION

Gardner-Webb University is located in the Piedmont section of western North Carolina, one of the most desirable and rapidly developing areas of our nation. Boiling Springs is a small rural town. Nearby Shelby, a city of 25,000, is noted for its support of the arts and as the home of state and national leaders. Forty-five miles east of Gardner-Webb is the thriving city of Charlotte, the largest city in the Carolinas. Less than one hour away to the south is the city of Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Gardner-Webb is easily accessible, being located only three miles from U.S. 74 and fourteen miles from Interstate 85. Less than one hour from campus are the Smoky Mountains with many recreational opportunities. Gardner-Webb University enjoys the lifestyle of a relatively small institution yet has the advantage of being centrally located to major urban resources in nearby areas.

STUDENTS

Gardner-Webb University, founded by Baptists in 1905, has grown steadily to its current enrollment of over 3,500 students. The 2,500 undergraduates come from many states and 80 foreign countries. Slightly less than half of the students are men, and the student body includes several racial and socioeconomic groups. The three graduate schools enroll over 1000 students. Gardner-Webb University admits students of any race, color, sex, and national or ethnic origin without discrimination. This diversity enriches the life of the campus community and reflects the nature of American society.

PROGRAMS

Gardner-Webb University is committed to the liberal arts as the best preparation students can have for rewarding, meaningful lives. In addition, the University offers programs in career-oriented fields to prepare students for specialized work. All of the programs at Gardner-Webb are evaluated periodically by accrediting agencies to insure that standards of quality are maintained.

Gardner-Webb provides three distinct academic programs: the on-campus program, the Quarter Opportunities for the Adult Learner Program (evening classes taught in a number of locations for graduates of two-year colleges), and Graduate Programs.

Gardner-Webb University has a Graduate School (offering M.A., M.S., Ed.S., and Ed.D. degrees in a variety of areas), a graduate School of Divinity (offering the M.Div. and D.Min. degrees), and a graduate School of Business (offering the M.B.A., M.B.A., and M.Acc. degrees). For additional information on the on-campus undergraduate and COAL programs, see the bulletin for each program.

Complementing the academic program at Gardner-Webb University is a broad range of student life programs and activities designed to enable students to develop their personal identities and to create lifetime friendships.

FACULTY

Gardner-Webb University is blessed with a dedicated staff and an excellent faculty, seventy-five percent of whom hold doctorates. The primary concerns of the faculty is teaching. The faculty have been chosen because of their academic preparation, their Christian commitment, and their desire for excellence in teaching. Many of Gardner-Webb's faculty have blessed the University with long years of service. The faculty is large enough to provide well-rounded academic programs. Yet a major strength of Gardner-Webb is that the University has remained small enough so that the relationship between faculty and students is friendly, informal and lasting. The faculty/student ratio is 1:14.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

The University's academic year is divided into two semesters and a summer school. The fall semester is a four-month term, ending prior to Christmas holidays. Following the four-month spring semester is a comprehensive summer school. For the Graduate School and Graduate School of Business it consists of two terms of five weeks each and a concurrent ten-week session in which some courses are offered. The School of Divinity also has three sessions: one six-week session, one three-week session, and one concurrent ten-week session. Evening classes both on-campus and at various off-campus locations are offered throughout the year.

The calendar is designed to meet the needs of full-time students with day and evening schedules, part-time students, and members of the communities in which classes are taught who desire further educational work.

The University offers workshops and seminars on a variety of topics and for a variety of groups throughout the year.

HISTORY

Gardner-Webb University has experienced remarkable growth, perseverance, and maturity. The institution began as a boarding high school and later became a junior college. Today Gardner-Webb is a thriving regional university with growing master's and doctoral programs.

From a movement initiated by the Kings Mountain Baptist Association in 1903, and later joined by the Sandy Run Baptist Association, the Boiling Springs High School was chartered on December 2, 1905, as an institution "where the young — could have the best possible educational advantages under distinctive Christian influence." This close relationship of the institution to the area churches continues today.

In response to the changing educational needs of the area, the institution was transformed into the Boiling Springs Junior College in 1928. The Great Depression created many problems for the College, but its survival was secured by the sacrifices of many loyal supporters.

In 1942 Governor O. Max Gardner began devoting his energy, time, and wealth to strengthening and guiding the College. So important was his influence that the name of the institution was changed to Gardner-Webb College in honor of the governor, his wife Fay Webb Gardner, and their families.

The decades following World War II were years of physical growth and academic development. New buildings went up as enrollment increased. A major step in the institution's development was its full accreditation as a senior college in 1971. In 1980 the institution began offering a master of arts degree in education.

The institution officially became known as Gardner-Webb University in January 1993, celebrating years of preparation. Today Gardner-Webb is a thriving regional university which offers eight distinct degree programs, has a highly qualified faculty and a beautiful campus of over 200 acres.

Historically the University has played significant roles in teacher education and ministerial preparation for church-related vocations. Programs of instruction and experiences designed to prepare teachers and ministers continue to be major objectives of the University.

Although there have been many changes over the years, Gardner-Webb University remains closely related to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. The University holds in high esteem its commitment to Christian principles and values as the best foundation for the development of human personality and social order.

ACCREDITATION

Gardner-Webb University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1898 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097; Telephone number 404-679-4301) to award Associate, Baccalaureate, Master's and Doctoral degrees. In addition several departmental programs are accredited by the appropriate state or national agencies. The education programs are accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and are approved by the the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction. The Master of Science in Nursing Program is accredited by the National League for Nursing Accrediting Commission (NLNAC). The M. Christopher White School of Divinity is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada. The MBA program is licensed by the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education (1335 Main Street, Suite 200, Columbia, S.C. 29201, telephone number 803-737-2265). The University is authorized by the immigration authorities of the United States for the training of foreign students.

CAMPUS AND BUILDINGS

The Gardner-Webb campus is beautiful, spacious, and rich in lawn and trees. It is designed and equipped to serve as living and learning community. Over 200 acres of rolling landscape provide more than adequate space for buildings, playing fields and landscaped areas. Extensive building and improvement projects have been completed in recent years. The present living and dining facilities are designed to serve a resident student body of approximately 1,300. Among the campus and buildings are the following:

Athletic Fields consist of many acres of practice and playing fields, situated around the campus, for football, baseball, soccer and softball. There is adequate space for all sports, intramural and intercollegiate.

Boat Gymnasium and Swimming Pool is part of the University Physical Development Complex. Renovated in 1999, it is named in memory of L.C. Boat of Shelby and Jean Boat Gardner. The facility contains basketball courts and classroom areas. The swimming pool is heated and enclosed for year-round use.

Brayhall Adventure Course, funded by the Brayhall Foundation and constructed in 1999, the Alpine Tower, the Climbing Straight Wall, and the Rescue Exercise provide leadership training activities for students and other groups.

Communication Studies Hall, formerly the Sealing Springs Elementary School, was acquired in 1990. It houses the Communication Studies Department offices, the Millennium Playhouse and classrooms for journalism, photography, television, radio and theater.

Craig Hall is named in memory of Robert M. Craig, Sr., of Gaston County, a former trustee of Gardner-Webb University. The building was renovated in 1998 and houses classrooms and offices for the Education and English departments.

Dover Campus Center, constructed in 1966, was completely renovated in 1990. It houses the cafeteria, lounges, the Campus Shop, the Center for Congregational Enrichment, Financial Planning, and the undergraduate admissions office. The building is named in memory of Charles I. Dover of Shelby.

Dover Memorial Library is named in memory of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Dover, Sr., pioneer industrialists of Cleveland County. The three-story structure, erected in 1974, is designed to provide seating for over 450 students. The library is equipped with state of the art computer technology, which provides access to libraries around the world. The buildings include several special book collections, the most notable being the library of the local post-Civil War author, Thomas Dover, and the diaries and scrapbooks of the late Mrs. O. Max Gardner. The library houses the Bell-Ella Multiracial Center, provided by the William Ella family of Shelby, N.C., and the Bell Foundation. The library houses a model of Jerusalem's Herodian Temple Mount during the time of Jesus. The 140-square-foot replica, one of only two in the world of this stature, was constructed by William McGee of Winston-Salem and donated to the school as a teaching tool. Located across from the Library is the Kathleen Nolan Dover Garden.

Dover Memorial Chapel is a graceful and inspiring structure which stands at the formal entrance to the campus. Erected in 1971, the interior features a 135-seat auditorium. The lower level houses the Social Sciences department and classrooms.

Elliot Hall, originally constructed in 1952, honors the memory of the seventh president of the University. Renovated in 1993, the building houses the School of Nursing and classrooms.

Elliot House houses the University radio station WJWG, a 50,000 watt station. Fm educational station broadcasting over a radius of 75 miles. Public Relations and the University Publications Department are also located in Elliot House.

Gardner Memorial Hall, completed in 1948, was constructed and furnished by the family of the late Governor O. Max Gardner. The building contains a recital hall, music studio and offices, classrooms, practice rooms, a band room and the campus computer technology offices.

Harwick Hall was built after World War I as a memorial to men residents who gave their lives for the cause of freedom. It was destroyed by fire and rebuilt in 1940. In 1943, the rebuilt structure was named in memory of E.B. Harwick. In 1982, the building was placed on the National Register of Historic Places. In 1998, the building was completely renovated and now houses the School of Business and the George Stanton, Jr. Auditorium.

Lake Hollisfield Complex is named in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Hollisfield, Gardner-Webb alumni and trustee respectively. The lake is surrounded by walking trails, and a bell tower with a forty-eight bell carillon.

Linsbury Hall, completed in 1967 and completely renovated in 1991, is a three-story, air-conditioned structure. It was named in memory of David and Winifred Herbert Linsbury, of Richlandtown. The building houses the M. Christopher White School of Divinity, the Religion and Psychology departments and classrooms.

Lacy-Yelton Convocation Center, completed in 1962, serves as the center of cultural and athletic activities for the area. Included in the Center is the 600-seat Kathleen Nolan Dover Theater. The stage is fully equipped to handle all types of dramatic productions. Also included in the Center is the Paul Porter Arena, which seats 1,000 for basketball games and various meetings. Classrooms, offices for athletic administration and coaches, sports information, handball courts and athletic meeting facilities complete the Center.

Noel Hall, built in 1991, is a two-story brick structure which houses the M. Christopher White School of Divinity and academic classrooms. The hall is named in memory of Dr. and Mrs. George T. Noel, of Kannapolis, N.C.

Noel House contains the programs for students with disabilities. The house was named in 1996 in memory of Dr. and Mrs. George T. Noel, of Kannapolis, N.C.

Physical Plant Offices are located just south of the main campus on Highway 150.

Poston Center, named for Dr. Gene Poston, Gardner-Webb's eighth president, contains a visitors' center, the Safety and Security Department offices and Alumni Relations.

Soccer House, located on Highway 150, provides offices for the men's and women's soccer teams as well as the GCCSA (Greater Cleveland County Soccer Association).

Spangler Memorial Stadium, completed in 1966, renovated in 2004, includes a football stadium seating 8,500, a track, and a fully equipped field house. The facility is named in memory of Ernest W. and Verma Patrick Spangler of Shelby. The field house is named in honor of V.E. Hamrick of Shelby.

Spring Athletic Facility, constructed in 2000, houses baseball and tennis programs as well as baseball dressing facilities. Included in the facility is a batting tunnel for the baseball and softball teams.

Suttle Hall, the east wing of the H.A.P.Y. complex, is named in memory of the Reverend John W. Suttle. It contains the offices of the division of Student Development, student government offices, and selected faculty.

Suttle Wellness Center was completed in 2000 and is named in memory of J.L. Suttle Jr., of Shelby, N.C. Added as a wing to the University Physical Development Complex, the Suttle Wellness Center contains a wellness/fitness center with state-of-the-art exercise equipment as well as a student recreation area.

University Physical Development Complex. This complex consists of the Suttle Wellness Center, the Best Gymnasium and Pool, and the office suite for the Department of Physical Education, Wellness and Sports Studies.

Washburn Hall was purchased and completely renovated in 1990. The building contains the offices of the College for Extended Professional Studies (CEALS), the Graduate School, and Counseling and Career Services and Academic Advising. It is named in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Gene Washburn of Bowling Springs, N.C.

Washburn Memorial Building is a brick structure erected in 1941 by Benton A. Washburn in memory of the Washburn families. Originally used as a library, the building now houses the Department of Foreign Languages.

Webb Hall was built by the O. Max Gardner Foundation in memory of Mrs. O. Max (Fay Webb) Gardner, her parents, grandparents, and great-grandparents. The first wing was completed in 1960, and the second wing was added in 1973. The building houses administrative offices, including the office of the president. In front of the Webb Hall is the Suttle-Wall Tower of Light. The tower, built in 1968, is in memory of Joseph Lincon Suttle and Dr. Zeno Wall.

The Webb Tennis Complex, constructed in 2000, is one of the premier tennis facilities in the region. The twelve courts are ideal for intercollegiate and recreational play. The courts are lighted for evening play.

Williams Observatory, named in honor of Gardner-Webb's ninth president Dr. Groves E. Williams, was built in 1990.

Wilkinson Mathematics and Science Hall, named in memory of A.T. Wilkison of Charlotte, has facilities for mathematics, biology, chemistry, and physics.

Wrestling Building, located south of the main campus, provides office and practice space for the wrestling team.

RESIDENTIAL STUDENT HALLS

Residential students may choose from the following eleven residential facilities which offer a range of housing options – Decker, H.A.P.Y., Leno-Yelton, Mauney, Myers, Nantzen, Royster, Spangler, Stroup, University Commons (six apartment buildings), and University House.

SATELLITE CAMPUSES

Gardner-Webb University at Statesville is located at Statesville, N.C. A wide range of undergraduate and graduate programs is offered at this location. Schedules are arranged to accommodate the needs of working adults.

Gardner-Webb University at Charlotte is located at Charlotte, N.C. The GCAL program, Graduate School, and Graduate School of Business programs are taught during the evenings and on Saturdays.

DISTANCE LEARNING

A limited but increasing number of graduate courses are offered in an on-line format in addition to the traditional classroom format. For information contact the appropriate Dean or Program Director.

SPECIAL ACADEMIES

THE BAYBELL ACADEMY FOR THE STUDY OF INDEPENDENT CONCEPTS

The Baybell Academy's programs are designed to help citizens examine basic concepts and issues, especially the preservation of individualism and a free economic system. Through a variety of conferences, symposia, and publications, the Academy provides information relative to economic, social, and ethical issues.

B.E. MORRIS ACADEMY FOR CHRISTIAN STUDIES

The academy sponsors special learning opportunities both on and off campus to assist church and denominational leaders in their ministries.

VISITOR'S INFORMATION

Visitors to Gardner-Webb University are welcome at all times. The administrative offices are open Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Interviews and campus tours are available between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Administrative offices and members of the faculty are available at other times by appointment.

TRAVEL INFORMATION

Gardner-Webb University is in the town of Boiling Springs, N.C., a community just outside Shelby. The University is only 13 miles from Interstate 85 and three miles from U.S. 74. It is accessible to airline services at Charlotte and Greenville-Spartanburg. The telegraph address is Shelby, and the University is served by the Shelby-Lenoir telephone exchange.

WEB SITE

If a personal visit to campus is not possible, the University can be experienced on the Internet at www.gardner-webb.edu for all the latest information about campus life, academic programs, athletics and other events making news at GWU. Prospective students can take a campus tour, submit questions about the university, and even apply for admission through the web site.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

The general Academic Information in this section applies to each of the graduate schools of the University: the Graduate School, the Graduate School of Business, and the M. Christopher Whittle School of Divinity. See the section on each school for academic information specific to that program.

COURSE REGISTRATION

Registration includes academic advising, selection of courses, and payment of fees. During preregistration, students should consult with their academic advisors on course selection and other degree requirements. However, it is the responsibility of the student, not the academic advisor, to ensure that all University graduation requirements are met.

Students will not receive credit for any course for which registration has not been completed. Unless students and their advisors consider it essential, they should not change the schedule after registration.

LATE REGISTRATION

Students must register according to the information given at preregistration. Contrasting students who register after the published mail-in deadline must pay a $50 late registration fee. Students may register for a course after the first class meeting only with the prior approval of the professor and the dean or program director.

DROPPING, ADDING, AND WITHDRAWING FROM COURSES

Changes to a student's schedule may be made by going online to www.rog.gucl-net.edu.

A student who withdraws from a course after the drop/add period must withdraw directly through the Registrar's Office. The student is responsible for carrying out the withdrawal and must secure written documentation of the withdrawal. A student who calls the Registrar's Office to withdraw from a course should request that documentation be sent to him or her by hard copy in the mail or by email.

When a student officially withdraws from a course, a grade of "W" (withdraw) is recorded during the first four weeks of the fall and spring semesters, or during the first week of a summer term. After this period a "WP" (withdraw passing) or "WF" (withdraw failing) is assigned by the professor based upon an assessment of the student's work to date in the course. No hours attempted are recorded for "W" and "WP" grades.

The last day for dropping an individual course is four weeks after students or a date not to exceed 75% of the course. The specific date is established each semester by the Registrar and published in registration materials mailed out by each graduate school. After this time the only courses which will be dropped are those which a student drops when withdrawing from school.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Each student admitted to graduate study is assigned a faculty adviser who assists the student in developing a program of study. Advisement sessions are scheduled each semester for all graduate students. It is the student's responsibility to meet with the adviser at the scheduled session or to make arrangements for an alternative meeting time. An appropriate schedule of courses leading to uninterrupted study and completion of all requirements is secured fully accepted students who remain continuously enrolled. Course scheduling, however, may prevent acceleration of the completion of degree requirements. Other schedule options are available.

COURSE AND SCHEDULE CHANGES

The University reserves the right to cancel or discontinue any course because of small enrollment or for other reasons deemed necessary. In order to assure quality instruction, the University reserves the right to close registration when the maximum enrollment has been reached and to make changes in schedule and/or faculty when necessary.

ACADEMIC LOAD

GRADUATE SCHOOL

In the Graduate School a full load is six semester hours during the summer term and three to six semesters hours during each regular semester, depending on the student's program.

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

A full course load is six semester hours during fall semester, spring semester, and three semester hours each summer semester. Most students take six hours during fall and spring and three hours each summer semester. The maximum course load for students is nine hours during fall and spring semesters and three hours each summer semester. It is recommended that students who are employed full-time register for no more than six hours during fall and spring semesters.

Most students begin the program in August, but entry during spring and summer is an option. Students who begin in August and successfully complete two courses each fall, spring, and summer will graduate at the end of their second summer of study, 24 months after beginning the program. Students taking less than two courses in a semester will most likely graduate in three or four years. Six calendar years are allowed for completion of the degree.

SCHOOL OF DIVINITY

A minimum full-time course load for M.Div. degree students is nine hours per semester. The maximum course load for M.Div. degree students is seventeen hours per semester. A class load of more than fourteen hours per semester must be approved by the student's faculty mentor. It is suggested that new students restrict their class loads to nine to twelve hours in the initial semester.

The definition of a full-time load is made for those students requiring certification of full-time status for participation in insurance programs, the receipt of veteran's benefits, or the regulations of U.S. Immigration. Students enrolled full time are eligible to apply for various financial aid packages. The students should consult with the Financial Planning office regarding the availability of financial aid.

AUDITING COURSES

Any Graduate-Wald student may audit a course for a $100 fee. The auditor is expected to complete the special auditor registration form and to complete all course requirements, with the exception of tests and examinations. Approval of the professor and the Dean or Director is required.

CHALLENGE EXAMINATION POLICY

GRADUATE SCHOOL, GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

When a student has experience and/or training comparable to that taught within a particular graduate course, the student may request the option of taking a challenge examination to demonstrate mastery of the course content. This challenge examination will be an in-depth and comprehensive assessment of the student's ability to answer questions on course content. An acceptable grade on the examination will permit the student to receive credit for the course. However, the student will be held responsible for all course material on the comprehensive examination or in the capstone experience, as applicable.

To request the opportunity to take a challenge examination, the student must prepare, in writing, justification for such an examination to the dean of the school or chair of the department in which the course is offered. *The request must be made after consultation with the advisor and within the first twelve semester hours of the first calendar year of graduate study, whichever comes first. The request must be accompanied by payment of a challenge exam fee of $150 per course. The dean of the school or chair of the department will appoint a committee to review the request, and if it is approved, will appoint the examining professor. If the examination results are acceptable, the examining professor will report the results, via the Certification of Successful Challenge Examination form, to the director/coordinator of the student's graduate program, who will sign the form and submit it to the Dean of the Graduate School or the Dean of the Business School, as applicable. That dean will notify the Registrar, who will credit the student with the appropriate number of hours for the course. No grade will be assigned or averaged into the quality point average.

*Note: The number of total hours challenged or transferred may not exceed a student's graduate program guidelines.

COMPUTER FACILITIES

In several locations on campus, the Gardner-Webb University student has ready access to a wide variety of computer facilities, including five minicomputer systems and numerous microcomputers. In addition to the use of computers in the Computer Science and Management Information Systems programs, computers are an integral part of programs such as English, Education, Psychology, and Business.

Access to Internet is provided through computer labs on campus and other locations.

LEARNING ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Learning Assistance Program is designed to help students attain proficiency in the fundamental academic skills: writing, reading, mathematics, and study skills. The program features a Learning Assistance Center where any Gardner-Webb student may request help with a particular reading, mathematics or study skill. Assistance may be provided in the form of tutoring, or through other learning materials appropriate for the student's needs. The Learning Assistance Program also offers basic skills courses in reading, writing, and mathematics. Students receive individual attention focused on their particular needs as well as ample opportunities to practice their skills in a supportive environment. In addition, the program provides occasional workshops on reading, writing, and study skills.

LIBRARY

The Dover Memorial Library is an active and integral part of the University's academic program. The Library's collections, available on open stacks, support all areas of the curriculum with a total main count of approximately 800,000, including 220,000 volumes, 500,000 microforms, and many other materials such as videos, compact discs, and computer files. The library has print and/or online full-text access to more than 11,000 periodicals and is a selective depository for federal government documents.

In addition to its collections, the library provides numerous services to reinforce and enhance the instructional process for both on and off-campus students.

Professional librarians are available for individual and group instruction. Interlibrary loan, microform, and production (laminations, transparencies, etc.) services are available. The Library's home page at www.library.gardner-webb.edu provides information about the Library, a library handbook for students, access to our automated catalog MAX, a virtual reference page linking to recommended Web sites, and lists of recently added materials. Persons may use the Library computers to access its collections of cataloged material, to conduct research in the NCLIVE and other online databases, and to perform general internet research.

LIBRARY PRIVILEGES

Student identification cards are prepared at the time of registration. These cards are necessary in order to use the Dover Memorial Library and other facilities where identification is required. Currently enrolled students may check out materials, use interlibrary loan, etc. Library privileges require compliance with stated policies affecting return of materials. Failure to comply may result in fines and suspension of check-out privileges.

NOEL PROGRAM FOR THE DISABLED

The Noel Program for the Disabled provides support to the deaf, the blind and other students with documented disabilities. In order to assess each disabled student's needs and to provide the necessary support services, professional documentation of a disability or disabilities must be furnished no later than three weeks prior to the beginning of services. Documentation must be current. Upon acceptance to the graduate program, documentation should be sent to the Noel Program.

UNIVERSITY WRITING CENTER

The University Writing Center, located in Craig Hall, offers free assistance on any problem related to writing to all Gardner-Webb students. A staff of qualified graduate and undergraduate students, under the direction of a faculty specialist in writing, provide individual and group tutoring and answer questions upon request.

CLASS ATTENDANCE POLICY

Regular class attendance is an important student obligation. Students are responsible for all course work conducted in class meetings. Students are required by university policy to attend a minimum of 75% of the scheduled class meetings. Furthermore, it is the prerogative of the professor to set a more stringent class attendance policy. During the first week of the semester, the professor will clearly state, in writing, the attendance policies which will govern the class. Students are responsible for knowing the nature of absences that they accumulate.

Absence from class does not excuse the student from responsibility for class work. Planned class absences for official business or foreseeable personal circumstances must be negotiated with the professor before the absence and plans made for completing course work missed.

EXAMINATIONS AND REPORTS

Comprehensive final examinations are required in every course at the end of the semester. The only exceptions are courses which require major research papers as the primary activity of the course. A student who does not take the examination at the scheduled time will receive a failing grade in that subject unless excused by the professor. If the student is excused, the grade will be recorded as Incomplete.

Grades will not be recorded if the student's account is in arrears unless satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Business Office.

GRADES AND REPORTS

GRADING SYSTEMS AND QUALITY POINTS

Graduation is dependent upon quality as well as upon quantity of work done.

Letter grades are used. They are interpreted in the table below, with the quality points for each hour of credit shown at the right.

Grades	Hours Attempted Per Credit Hour	Quality Points Per Credit Hour
A - Superior	1	4
B - Satisfactory	1	3
C - Passing	1	2
D - Marginal (Distinction only)	1	1
F - Failing	1	0
I - Incomplete	1	0
IN - Incomplete in Internship, Practicum, Nursing Project Thesis, or INCE 680	0	0
W - Withdraw without penalty	0	0
WF - Withdraw failing	1	0

An I is assigned when course work is not complete because of circumstances beyond the control of the student. The student has until midterms of the following semester to complete the course work and remove the I; otherwise, the professor will assign an F grade.

A W will be assigned when a student withdraws from a course during the first four weeks of the semester or the first week of a summer term. After these time periods, a WP or WF is assigned by the professor based upon the professor's assessment of the student's work to date in the course.

Once a grade has been submitted to the Registrar, it cannot be changed except in the event of a clerical error or an error in calculation, or as a result of the appeal process described below.

A student who has a question about a grade should consult the professor as soon as possible. A student who believes a grade to be inaccurate (in order may appeal) following the process described below under "Academic Appeals."

Under no circumstances will a grade be changed, after having been reported to the Registrar, without the approval of the Associate Provost of Schools.

ACADEMIC PROBATION AND SUSPENSION

F GRADE

Any admitted student receiving a grade of F in a graduate course will be suspended. The student may reapply after one year. The department graduate faculty makes the decision on whether to readmit, and, if readmitted, the stipulations that will apply. If readmitted, the student must repeat or Graduate-With the course in which he or she received the F, making at least a B. Only the higher grade will be counted in computing the Graduate-With grade point average, although the lower grade will remain on the official transcript. No more than one F may be repeated.

C GRADE

A student who receives nine hours of C grades will be suspended. The student may reapply after one year. The graduate faculty makes the decision on whether to readmit and, if readmitted, the stipulations that will apply.

REPEATING COURSES

Courses may be taken only once with the exception given under the F grade policy above.

SCHOOL OF DIVINITY

A student must have at least a 2.0 overall Grade Point Average to be awarded a degree in the School of Divinity. When the GPA falls below 2.0, the student is placed on academic probation and is so notified. In order to be removed from academic probation, the student may enroll for a maximum of nine semester hours in the following semester and attain a cumulative GPA of 2.0. If at the completion of this semester the student has not attained a 2.0 GPA, the student may be placed on academic suspension. Students placed on academic suspension will be required to withdraw for at least one semester (not including summer sessions). After that time, students wishing to resume studies may seek readmission to the degree program. Students who are readmitted after having been placed on academic suspension will be allowed to take no more than six hours and must earn a semester grade point average of 2.50. Students failing to meet this stipulation may be subject to academic dismissal.

REPEATING COURSES

Only courses with a grade of "D," "E" or "WF" may be repeated and then only once. When a course is repeated at the School of Divinity, only the higher grade is counted in computing the student's overall grade point average, although the lower grade remains on the official transcript.

TRANSFER COURSES WHILE ON SUSPENSION OR PROBATION

A student may not take courses for transfer credit from another institution while on suspension or probation.

RETENTION POLICY

GRADUATE SCHOOL, GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

A student must have an average of 3.0 overall to be awarded the M.A., M.S., M.B.A., I.M.B.A., or M. Acc. degree. When the GPA falls below 3.0, the student is placed on probation. If, after six hours of additional work, the student does not attain a 3.0 overall, the student will be suspended. The student may reapply after one year. The department graduate faculty makes the decision on whether to readmit and, if readmitted, the stipulations that will apply.

SCHOOL OF DIVINITY ACADEMIC DISMISSAL POLICY

Students who fail to satisfy the requirements for removal of academic suspension after having been readmitted will be required to withdraw from enrollment in the degree program. Students who are dismissed under these conditions are not eligible for readmission.

TRANSCRIPTS

The Registrar will furnish transcripts of credit upon written request. Official copies are $20 each, and this fee should accompany the request.

No transcript will be issued until all the student's accounts have been settled satisfactorily.

STUDENT ACCESS TO EDUCATIONAL RECORDS

Grandview-Webb University complies with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. This Act is designed to protect the privacy of educational records, to establish the right of students to inspect and review their educational records, and to provide guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data through informal and formal hearings. Students also have the right to file complaints with The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act Office (FERPA) concerning alleged failures by the institution to comply with the Act.

Institutional policy explains in detail the procedures to be used by the institution for compliance with the provisions of the Act. Copies of the policy can be found in the Office of the Registrar. That office also maintains a Directory of Records, which lists all student educational records maintained by the institution. Information known as Directory Information will be published unless the student specifically requests that the Registrar's Office withhold this information. Directory Information is defined as the following: student name, local and permanent addresses, telephone numbers, date of birth, major(s), dates of attendance, previous educational institutions attended, and degree and awards received.

Questions concerning the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act may be referred to the Office of the Registrar.

FAIR PROCESS

A student who experiences a problem concerning a grade or any other aspect of a course should first discuss the matter with the professor. If the problem is not resolved, he or she should go next to the chair of the department or the coordinator/director of the particular graduate program, whichever is appropriate. If not satisfactorily resolved, the matter should be taken to the dean of the graduate school in which the student is enrolled, who will hear only those parties involved and make a decision in the case.

ACADEMIC APPEALS

GRADUATE SCHOOL, GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

If the student is not satisfied with the decision in his or her case, that student has a right to appeal. He or she should address a letter to the Chair of the Graduate Council, stating the reasons for the appeal and explaining the circumstances. If the student is asked to appear before the Council, he or she at that time may bring a representative from within the University to act as counsel. Deadline for an academic dishonesty appeal is seven days after the date of the decision being appealed. Deadline for other types of academic appeals (except for grade appeals) is eighteen months after the date of the decision being appealed. Grade appeals must be completed on or before the last day of the following semester.

SCHOOL OF DIVINITY

A student who experiences a problem concerning a grade or any other aspect of a course, including issues relating to but not limited to academic dishonesty, should first discuss the matter with the professor. If the problem is not resolved, the student should go next to the Associate Dean of the School of Divinity. If the student or the professor is not satisfied with the decision of the Associate Dean, either party may take the matter to the Appeals Committee whose decision is final. The Appeals Committee consists of the Dean of the School of Divinity, who serves as chair, and two School of Divinity faculty members.

To initiate an appeal, the dissatisfied party should address a letter to the Dean of the School of Divinity, stating the reason for the appeal and explaining the circumstances. The Dean will convene the Appeals Committee. If the student or the professor is asked to appear before the committee, he or she at that time may bring a representative from within the University to act as counsel. The deadline for an academic dishonesty appeal is seven days after the date of the decision being appealed. The deadline for other types of academic appeals (except for grade appeals) is eighteen months after the date of the decision being appealed. Grade appeals must be completed prior to the last day of the following semester. Grade appeals relating to courses taken during the summer must be made prior to the last day of the following fall semester.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

CODE OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Preamble

As students willingly accept the benefits of membership in the Gardner-Webb academic community, which was founded on the ideals of Christianity, they acquire obligations to observe and uphold honesty, integrity, and truthfulness.

Gardner-Webb University expects its graduate students and faculty to display academic integrity. As in any community, this institution must be governed by regulations, which function best when they are fully understood, accepted and cherished by every member of the academic community. Therefore, all graduate students and faculty members are expected to be familiar with, and to base their actions upon, the following statements regarding academic integrity.

Code of Graduate Student Academic Integrity

The Code of Academic Integrity governs the responsibility of students in the various graduate programs of Gardner-Webb University to maintain integrity in academic work, defines violations of the standards, describes procedures for handling alleged violations of the standards, and lists applicable penalties.

Student Responsibilities

1. Students should recognize that the regulations governing academic integrity exist for the protection of the honest and that dishonesty in an academic setting must not be tolerated, much less condoned.
2. Students are responsible for their own work. Any assignment turned in by a student is assumed to be the work of the student whose name appears on the assignment.
3. Students are ultimately responsible for understanding faculty members' instructions for assignments. If transactions are not clear, students must seek clarification from professors.
4. Students must understand the definitions of cheating, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty.
5. Students should familiarize themselves with the proper use of citations and quotations in order to avoid submitting other people's work as their own.
6. Students are expected to report incidents of academic dishonesty to their professor.

7. Students who threaten or coerce other students or faculty members for reporting a violation of the Code of Academic Integrity will face disciplinary action, with dismissal from graduate study at Gardner-Webb University being the recommended punishment.

Infractions of the Code of Academic Integrity include, but are not limited to, the following:

Cheating - Intentionally using or attempting to use unapproved materials, information, notes, or other devices including unauthorized communication during an academic exercise.

Fabrication and Falsification - Intentional and unauthorized alteration or misrepresenting of any information in an academic exercise. Falsification is a matter of inventing information for academic purposes, whereas fabrication is a matter of altering information.

Multiple Submission - The submission of substantial portions of the same academic work (including oral reports) for credit more than once without authorization.

Plagiarism - Intentionally or knowingly presenting the work of another as one's own (i.e., without proper acknowledgment of the source). The sole exception to the requirement of acknowledging sources is when the ideas, information, etc., are common knowledge.

Abuse of Academic Materials - Intentionally or knowingly destroying, stealing or making inaccessible library and other academic resources material.

Complicity in Academic Dishonesty - Intentionally helping or attempting to help another to commit any act of academic dishonesty.

Faculty Responsibilities

1. Faculty must explain all assignments as thoroughly as is reasonable and should address any extraordinary limitations on outside assistance.

2. Faculty members should take reasonable precautions in giving tests to reduce the likelihood that violations occur. The fact that a faculty member did not take a specific precaution does not, however, constitute an excuse for any form of academic dishonesty.

3. Faculty must be willing to investigate and, if circumstances warrant, press charges against students suspected of academic dishonesty.

4. Faculty members must file an Academic Dishonesty Report any time they charge a student with an infraction.

5. Faculty members must seek to be fair in their dealings with students, particularly regarding cases of academic dishonesty, and must realize that no student can be convicted on suspicion alone.

Procedures

A student is accused of, and charged with, violating the Code of Academic Integrity by the professor in the course. A Report of Academic Dishonesty form describing the alleged violation in full is initiated by the professor and completed either in person, by registered mail, by email, or by fax between the graduate student and the professor. The student is required to enter on the report a plea of either Responsible or Not Responsible within two business days. No response is considered as Responsible.

Responsible

A plea of Responsible means that the student is not contesting the allegation and accepts the penalty to be imposed by the professor. The professor then sends the completed Report of Academic Dishonesty to the Chair of the Graduate Council.

who sends a copy to either the Dean of the Graduate School or Dean of the Graduate School of Business.

Not Responsible

A plea of Not Responsible means that the student is going to appeal the allegation and the recommended penalty. This plea requires that a written explanation be filed with the Chair of the Graduate Council within seven days of the date of the plea. The written explanation should include all of the circumstances and the grounds for contesting the charges. The professor sends the Report of Academic Dishonesty, and the student sends his/her written explanation, to the Chair of the Graduate Council, who sends a copy to either the Dean of the Graduate School or Dean of the Graduate School of Business. When the Chair of the Graduate Council receives the completed Report of Academic Dishonesty and the student's written explanation, the chair, in consultation with either the Dean of the Graduate School or Dean of the Graduate School of Business, appoints an Appeals Committee composed of the Chair and two other members of the Graduate Council. The Appeals Committee examines the Report of Academic Dishonesty and the student's written response. The committee may hear from the professor and the student, if they wish to appear before the committee. The committee decides whether to uphold or overturn the faculty member's allegation and the proposed punishment. It reports its findings to the Graduate Council, the faculty member, and the student.

Once the Appeals Committee makes its report, either the faculty member or the student may appeal the findings to the Provost within seven days, only on the basis of additional evidence, improper procedure, or a punishment inconsistent with the offense. The Provost may decide to hear the appeal or deny a further hearing. The Provost's decision is final.

Penalties

A student convicted of academic dishonesty may receive an F in the course, a situation which brings automatic suspension from graduate studies.

STUDENT GRIEVANCE POLICY (NON-ACADEMIC)

Any student who believes he/she has been discriminated against by a member of the faculty, an employee of the University, or by a fellow student is encouraged to file a complaint. If a student believes he/she has been discriminated against in accordance with policies and practices listed under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, or section 504 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973, he or she may make a claim that his or her rights have been denied. Claims or grievances should be filed with the appropriate University official.

Complaints and grievances related to academic matters should be made in accordance with policies and procedures stated in the current Catalog of Graduate Programs.

Complaints and grievances related to non-academic employees of the University should be made to the supervisor of the employee or to the vice president of that area.

Complaints and grievances related to student life, student activities, residence life, counseling, safety and security, or campus ministry should be made to the Vice President and Dean of Student Development.

Complaints and grievances related to admissions practices, recruitment, and financial aid should be made to the Vice President for Enrollment Management.

Complaints and grievances related to accounts payable and business office relatall functions should be made to the Vice President of Business Affairs.

Complaints and grievances related to athletics should be made to the Vice President for Athletics.

Complaints and grievances related to public relations, publications, and donations to the University should be made to the Vice President for University Relations.

Complaints and grievances specifically related to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)/Section 504 should be made to the Director of Human Resources, who serves as the ADA/504 coordinator. (Complaints and grievances specifically related to educational support services may be made to the Director of the Noel Program for the Disabled.) Complaints and grievances unresolved at this level may be addressed to the Human Relations Committee. The Director of Human Resources will assist with the forwarding of unresolved complaints and grievances to the Human Relations Committee. Decisions by the Human Relations Committee are subject to review by the Provost. The Provost may take whatever action he deems necessary and appropriate. The Provost's conclusions and actions are final.

If a student believes he/she has been harassed or otherwise discriminated against because of race, gender, religion, color, national or ethnic origin, age, disability, or military service, the student should report the matter immediately to the Vice President and Dean of Student Development. In the case of sexual harassment, the complaint should be made in accordance with the University's sexual harassment policy as stated in the current student handbook. If a student is not sure how to file a complaint, the Vice President and Dean of Student Development will assist the student.

Complaints should be presented orally to the appropriate University officials described above. If an informal discussion of the matter is not satisfactory, a written statement of the complaint will be requested. A written statement should contain the following:

- The exact nature and details of the grievance.
- The date, time, and place of the grievance.
- The names of witnesses or persons who have knowledge of the grievance.
- Any available written documentation or evidence that is relevant to the grievance.

The University official who receives the written complaint will investigate the complaint and take whatever action is deemed necessary and appropriate and will report to the student in a timely manner. If a student has followed the grievance policy process and remains dissatisfied with the response to the complaint, the student may appeal to the Graduate Council or to the School of Divinity Appeals Committee, whichever is appropriate, for academic matters and to the University Appeal Board for non-academic matters. Decisions by the University Appeal Board are subject to review by the Provost. The Provost may take whatever action he deems necessary and appropriate. The Provost's conclusions and actions regarding the complaint are final.

PROGRESS REVIEW

When the M.A., M.S.N., M.Asw., M.B.A., or LMBA student has earned between 15 and 21 hours credit, the student and the adviser review progress to date and determine additional work to be completed for the degree. At this time the adviser and the student fill out and sign a midpoint checklist.

APPLICATION FOR DEGREE

A student must apply for the graduate degree during the semester preceding the final term of study. An appointment should be made with the adviser who will provide appropriate forms to be filled out to obtain the degree. The adviser will validate the information on the application. It is the student's responsibility to turn in the signed form to the Registrar. An $500.00 application for graduation fee is required; this includes the academic regalia, diploma, and administrative costs. Students submitting applications after the published deadline must pay a $50 late fee.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Gardner-Webb conducts commencement exercises at the conclusion of the spring semester and at the conclusion of summer school. Each candidate for a degree must be present for rehearsal and for the conferring of degrees. The University is not obligated to grant a degree to any candidate for graduation who does not attend these exercises. Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the Provost.

GRADUATE STUDENT REPRESENTATION ON THE GRADUATE COUNCIL

The Graduate Council is the governing body for all graduate programs at Gardner-Webb except for the M.Ed. and D. Min. degrees. Graduate students are represented each year on the Graduate Council by a representative who has voting privileges on the Council.

HONOR SOCIETIES

OMI SIGMA IOTA

Membership in this International Counseling Academic and Professional Honor Society is one of the highest honors a Gardner-Webb graduate student in the counseling program can attain for academic excellence. To be eligible for membership, students must have completed 6 semester hours, have a 3.5 G.P.A. or higher, and be a student in good standing.

SIGMA TAU DELTA

Sigma Tau Delta, the international English honor society, creates camaraderie among English majors and minors, offers scholarships, provides publishing opportunities, and hosts a national conference where students can showcase their scholarship. Lifetime membership in Sigma Tau Delta is available to both undergraduate and graduate students who meet the organization's rigorous requirements.

SIGMA THETA TAU INTERNATIONAL

Sigma Theta Tau International is the only nursing honor society dedicated to improving the health of the world's people. Graduate and Baccalaureate nursing students who meet the high standards of eligibility and are endorsed for membership may be invited to join the Mu Psi Chapter-at-Large, a joint chapter of the School of Nursing of Gardner-Webb University and Queens University in Charlotte.

STUDENT LIFE

Gardner-Webb University is committed to the education of the whole person. This includes the mind, the body and the spirit. To this end, the University considers the student's activities outside the classroom to be just as important as the classroom experiences. These activities and others help the student to develop social and interpersonal skills, deepen spiritual commitments, explore career opportunities, formulate a philosophy of life, develop leadership skills, and develop sound ethical and moral principles. The University supports and encourages student involvement in a variety of activities.

ATHLETICS

GARDNER-WEBB INTRAMURALS

The Gardner-Webb Intramural/Recreational Sports Program's purpose is to actively encourage, provide, and promote recreational activities to enrich the quality of physical, mental, spiritual, and social life for the Gardner-Webb "family."

INTERCOLLEGIATE

Gardner-Webb University is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association Division I. As a member of the Atlantic Sun Conference, teams compete in men's and women's basketball, baseball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's cross-country, women's volleyball, women's softball, men's and women's tennis and men's and women's track and field. As an associate member of the Big South Conference Gardner-Webb competes in football. Other university sponsored sports are wrestling and women's swimming. In addition to NCAA I membership, Gardner-Webb belongs to the East Coast Athletic Conference (ECAC).

BROOKHILL ADVENTURE COURSE

The Brookhill Adventure Course is a unique outdoor adventure challenge complex that offers three experiential elements: the Alpine Tower II, the Carolina Straight Wall, and the Rescue Exercise (all built by Alpine Towers, Inc.). The combined elements offer participants an opportunity to experience climbing and problem solving as a metaphor for accomplishing group goals and achieving personal growth. Participants are given tasks or obstacles to overcome and are then asked to make the connection between the experience and their everyday lives. The Brookhill Adventure Course is based on the "Challenge by Choice" philosophy which allows participants to choose the level of involvement with which they are comfortable.

CAMPUS MINISTRIES

While Gardner-Webb is committed to excellence in academics, it is equally committed to the spiritual growth of each of its students. To encourage and challenge the University community in their Christian growth, the Campus Ministries staff:

- Offers pastoral care to students, faculty, administration, and staff.
- Provides vocational counseling and placement assistance to students interested in church-related vocations.
- Assists students in finding a place of worship as they seek a family of faith with which to affiliate.

The Office of Campus Ministries provides numerous opportunities for the spiritual development of each student. Through student ministry organizations, students are encouraged and challenged in personal discipleship, corporate worship, and life-changing ministry and mission experiences.

COUNSELING AND CAREER SERVICES

The Counseling Center provides personal and career counseling. Individuals are helped in developing constructive life plans, handling crisis situations, and coping with day-to-day problems. Programs and group counseling are available for special needs and interest issues. All counseling is confidential. On-campus services of the Counseling Center are made available at no additional cost to the student. Appointments can be made by contacting the Counseling Center. Referral to local community services may be made, if needed.

The Career Services Office is dedicated to serving Gardner-Webb students and alumni with an emphasis on two fundamental roles - aiding in career exploration and self-discovery and providing a myriad of resources to aid in the job search process. All Gardner-Webb students and alumni are eligible for career planning and placement services including use of SOU-PLUS, a computerized guidance system, resume writing assistance, and job listing services. The Career Services Office also sponsors educational workshops, on-campus interviewing, and several career fairs throughout the year, again open to all current students and alumni.

The Career Services Office also administers an online resume referral and job listing service. For a complete listing of upcoming events and a current copy of the Jobs Bulletin, visit the website at www.careers-gardner-webb.edu. Bookmark the site and visit often, as the content of the site changes daily.

Employers are an integral part of career services. However, the Career Services Office reserves the right to refuse employers with discriminatory hiring practices. The office will also make decisions regarding third-person employers and on campus recruitment.

VOLUNTEERISM

The Office of Volunteerism exists to provide all members of the Gardner-Webb community with meaningful service opportunities. Each year Gardner-Webb students, faculty and staff volunteer their time and talents to the surrounding community through various campus wide programs sponsored by the Office of Volunteerism. These annual programs include the Volunteer Fair, canned food drive, Salvation Army Angel Tree, Make-A-Difference Day, and others.

In addition to providing campus wide service programs, the Office of Volunteerism also serves as a resource center and clearinghouse for volunteer information. Interested individuals and groups may visit the office to receive information on various on-going and one time service opportunities.

RESIDENCE LIFE

The University strives to make residential living attractive, comfortable and developmental in nature. All of the residence halls are air conditioned. Students should bring linens, pillow, and other items to personalize their room. It is strongly suggested that they consult with their roommate about decor and items they want to bring.

Residence halls open the day before registration each semester and close after classes at the end of the fall, spring and summer semesters. Residence halls close during Christmas break except for international students or those participating in University sponsored events. Students must sign-up to stay during other breaks.

Room assignments are made through the Residence Life Office. Notification of room assignments will be made during the summer.

Each residence hall is staffed with an Area Director or Graduate Resident Director and Resident Advisors. The staff is available to assist students with a variety of questions and concerns. All halls are equipped with laundry rooms and vending machines for snacks and beverages. Each room has telephone and cable TV set-vice with DC and international access convenient to all areas of campus. In addition, the campus is wired for internet use and voice mail.

CAMPUS SHOP

The Campus Shop, located in the Charles L. Dover Campus Center, provides all books and materials needed by graduate students for their courses of study. Textbooks are delivered to students at off-campus centers.

UNIVERSITY POLICE

The University Police department is a multi-functional service agency whose primary purpose is to protect the University community and enforce regulations designed for safety and security of life and property. Full-time officers are professionals who have been properly trained, certified, and commissioned. Services provided by the department include traffic control, registering for identification purposes, educational seminars, a 24-hour emergency number, vehicle entry service for "lock-outs," vehicle "jump starts," and escort service on campus. Officers patrol the entire campus on foot, on bicycles, and in marked/unmarked police vehicles. The department also employs students who are uniformed.

VEHICLE REGISTRATION

All motorized vehicles operated on Gardner-Webb property must be registered with the University Police Office and display a valid permit. Graduate students can obtain permits for $35.00 during registrations, orientations, and regular business hours from the Office of University Police. A nonuser-only registration fee is $15. A parking regulations and restrictions manual is distributed with each permit. The University Police department is located in the Poston Center and operates on a 24-hour basis. The Poston Center also functions as a reception center Monday through Friday 8:00 A.M. until 10:00 P.M. and Sundays 1:00 P.M. until 10:00 P.M.

IDENTIFICATION CARDS

Identification cards can be obtained from the University Police department. If a campus visit is not possible, cards can be obtained by sending a photo (passport size or larger) to the Graduate School, Graduate School of Business, or School of Diversity Office. Identification cards are issued to first-time students free of charge, and replacement cards are available for $5.00. Identification cards are valid for the duration of a student's enrollment at Gardner-Webb University.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The Office of Student Activities is responsible for the educational and entertainment programming for the students at Gardner-Webb University. A variety of programs is offered to help and encourage the student to grow socially, culturally and spiritually. All students are encouraged to attend and take part in campus activities.

UNIVERSITY PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT COMPLEX

Gardner-Webb University offers students, faculty, and staff a facility furnished with the latest state-of-art cardiovascular equipment to improve comprehensive health and wellness. The Suttle Wellness Center, one of the areas in the University Physical Development Complex, also houses a complete game room for student enjoyment along with a TV viewing area and lounge for gathering with other students and friends. The Suttle Wellness Center, the Boat Gym and swimming pool, a full aerobics workout room, and a free-weight room make up the Complex. Students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use this facility as a means of achieving overall physical well-being and recreation.

CULTURAL LIFE

Each year a variety of programs is offered for the cultural and intellectual enrichment of campus life.

The Department of Fine Arts brings outstanding artists and performers to the campus during the year. The Student Entertainment Association and the Student Government Association also schedule a number of events. Distinguished scholars in various fields are invited to the campus each year to provide lectures and seminars for the enrichment of the academic program.

There are also recitals in the Dover Theatre and in the O. Max Gardner Fine Arts Hall by members of the Fine Arts Department faculty and advanced students in music. Several choral and orchestral concerts are scheduled.

Plays presented by Gardner-Webb students and by visiting drama groups are also a feature of the University's cultural offerings.

STUDENT GUIDELINES, EXPECTATIONS AND RIGHTS

Gardner-Webb University is a community of students, faculty and staff who are dedicated to learning and personal development in an environment of Christian concern. As in any community, certain standards of conduct are necessary to protect the safety, rights, health and general well-being of all members of the community. The University strives to promote concern for the good of the entire group in opposed to selfish individualism.

Each person whether student, faculty or staff voluntarily joins the University community and thus is expected to abide by rules and regulations that have been adopted to insure reasonable standards of conduct. The prohibited behavior code describes conduct which the University does not tolerate. By enrolling in the University, each student agrees to abide by University rules, regulations and expectations. The Board of Trustees has approved minimum penalties for certain of the prohibited behaviors. The University assures fundamental fairness to any student accused of involvement in prohibited behavior.

The Student Handbook describes the prohibited behavior code and the judicial process used in the event that a student becomes involved in prohibited behavior. The Handbook is distributed during orientation, at which time student rights, responsibilities and expectations are explained in greater detail. The Handbook is also available at the offices of Student Development.

Gardner-Webb University supports and is fully committed to the concept of a drug and alcohol free campus community. In order to comply with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989, Gardner-Webb publishes the following and makes it available to each student.

(1) The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession or use of controlled substances such as but not limited to the following:

- Narcotics (heroin, morphine, etc.)
- Cannabis (marijuana, hashish, etc.)
- Stimulants (cocaine, diet pills, etc.)
- Depressants (tranquilizers, etc.)
- Hallucinogens (PCP, LSD, designer drugs, etc.)
- Designer (MDA, MDA known as ecstasy, ice, etc.)
- Alcohol

It is prohibited by students on Gardner-Webb University's property or in any part of the university's activities. As a condition of enrollment, Gardner-Webb University students will abide by these terms.

(2) Gardner-Webb will impose disciplinary sanctions on students who violate the terms of paragraph 1, above. Upon conviction, the appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion from the University and/or satisfactory participation in a drug and alcohol abuse assistance or rehabilitation program approved for such purposes by a Federal, State, or local health, law enforcement, or other appropriate agency, will be taken. More specific penalties are outlined in the Gardner-Webb University Student Handbook. Violations may also be referred to the appropriate civil authorities for prosecution under local, state, and federal law.

(3) Local, state, and federal laws prohibit the possession, and distribution of illicit drugs, alcohol and weapons. The applicable legal sanctions for various offenses are listed in the North Carolina Criminal Law and Procedure book, a reference copy of which is maintained by the University's Campus Police Department.

(4) Information describing the health risks associated with the illicit drugs and abuse of alcohol is made available to all students. Additional information and individualized counseling is available through the University's Counseling Center. If necessary and at the student's expense, referral can be made to an outside agency.

(5) Local, state and federal law prohibits the possession of weapons on campus. These laws supersede any statutes which allow the possession of a concealed weapon by permit. G.S. 14-269.2

Commuters and part-time resident students may purchase meal tickets or individual meals from the University food service.

SCHOOL OF DIVINITY DEPOSIT

Advanced Deposit: Upon notification of admission to the School of Divinity, an applicant should submit a non-refundable deposit of $150 to confirm further intention to attend the School of Divinity.

Balance of Account: The balance of the charges for the semester is due prior to traveling for class. Those who cannot pay their accounts in full must make satisfactory financial arrangements with the University Business Office to obtain clearance to register.

CHARGE REDUCTION POLICY FOR CLASS WITHDRAWAL

Registration in any graduate program is considered a contract binding the student for charges for the entire semester. However, it is the policy of Clarke-Webb University to give pro-rata charge reductions through 60% of the enrollment period in the event a student OFFICIALLY WITHDRAWS from classes. In order to withdraw officially, the student must contact the Registrar in person or by phone at 704-406-1966. Withdrawal must be completed prior to the end of the semester in order to be official.

Reductions will be computed on total charges for tuition, room and board but not on fees and textbooks. Students leaving for disciplinary reasons will not be eligible for any reduction and will be liable for the entire semester's charges. For purposes of interpreting this policy the pro-rata charge reduction percentage is equal to the number of calendar days (includes weekends) remaining in the semester divided by the number of calendar days in the semester. No charge reductions will be given after the 60% period of enrollment for the semester.

When a student's charges are reduced, Federal, State, Institutional and Non-institutional Aid will be adjusted in accordance with the regulations governing the respective programs. Please contact the University Business Office for current regulations concerning these programs. Leaving the University without officially withdrawing may result in a student's forfeiting all financial aid and, thus, becoming responsible for the entire balance.

DELINQUENT STUDENT ACCOUNTS

A student with outstanding financial obligations may be prevented from registering for the following semester. A student will not be allowed to participate in commencement exercises or receive a diploma, nor will transcripts be released, until all financial obligations are satisfied. Delinquent accounts may be referred to collection agencies and/or credit bureaus. Financial obligations include, but are not limited to, student account balance, parking, disciplinary and library fines, and returned checks.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

GRADUATE SCHOOL (M.A., M.S., Ed.S., Ed.D. PROGRAMS)

FINANCIAL AID

Some school systems, medical centers and businesses assist Gardner-Webb graduate students in the payment of tuition and fees. Prospective students should inquire in their central offices as to the availability of such funds. Stafford Student Loans are also available to graduate students, as well as work study awards on a limited basis. The Financial Planning Office can provide details, but interested students should apply well in advance of the date of initiation of their graduate program.

A deferred payment plan is also available, for a nominal additional charge.

ASSISTANTSHIPS

Financial assistance in the form of assistantships is available on a limited basis to on-campus graduate students. Inquiries may be made with the department in which the student intends to enroll or to the Graduate School Office.

GOALS FOR GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS

1. Provide financial assistance and beneficial, appropriate work opportunities for academically strong graduate students.
2. Provide student work assistance to academic programs, academic offices, and athletic programs.

POLICIES FOR ASSISTANTSHIPS

1. Applications for assistantships may be obtained from and submitted to the Graduate School Office.
2. Awards are available for the academic year and the summer term to those students carrying a full-time academic load. They are renewable for up to three years.
3. Each department will select the individual recipients of the awards and be responsible for assigning work duties. Graduate assistants may not be assigned additional assistantship duties by any other department of the University.
4. Recipients of fellowships and/or scholarships may also receive assistantships.
5. Individual assistantship contracts must be re-evaluated yearly.
6. Service related to assistantships should follow the academic schedule and may not exceed 25 hours per week.
7. Students who are employed full time are not eligible for assistantships.

GRADUATE RESIDENT DIRECTOR POSITIONS

Residence Life employs graduate students to be responsible for the daily operations of a residential area on campus. Compensation includes housing with utilities, a meal plan, a free staff parking permit, and a modest stipend. More information is available on the Residence Life website at www.gwb.edu/residence-life/index.cfm or by calling (704) 406-4454.

GRADUATE EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP

Each fall a scholarship is awarded to a new student in one of the education graduate programs. The scholarship provides full tuition remission for graduate courses in the student's program. For an application, contact the Graduate School Office. Students from under-represented populations are encouraged to apply.

GRAVETT-JOHNSON PROFESSIONAL TRAVEL ENDOWMENT FUND

Established December 2001 by Dr. Darlene J. Gravett in memory of her parents, Arthur W. and Nadine M. Johnson, this fund provides a limited amount of money to help pay expenses for graduate students in English or English education who travel to professional conferences to make presentations. Apply through the department chair.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

THE PURPOSE OF THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

The purpose of the Graduate School is to provide high-quality graduate programs to students who hold bachelor's degrees from regionally accredited institutions and who are, for the most part, full-time professionals (teachers, counselors, administrators) working in their fields. The curricula emphasize independent, critical thinking; effective communications; and the importance of the education/consultation as theorist and practitioner.

The Graduate School is administered through the Graduate School Office, under the supervision of the Dean of the Graduate School. This office is responsible for the overall coordination of graduate programs leading to master's degrees in Mental Health Counseling, Elementary Education, English, English Education, Middle Grades Education, Nursing, School Administration, School Counseling, Sport Science and Pedagogy and a doctoral program in Educational Leadership. The Dean of the Graduate School also administers the graduate assistantship program.

GOALS

In order to fulfill its purpose, the Graduate School has the following goals:

1. To ensure that students receive high-quality instruction from graduate faculty who encourage independent thinking, who integrate current trends and research into the classroom, and who model the professional as theorist and practitioner.
2. To ensure that the curricula for the various graduate programs provide students with both depth and breadth of content.
3. To ensure that students receive resources, timely, and helpful advising information.
4. To ensure that graduate assistants are being used in a way that will increase skills and knowledge in their respective fields.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS (Ed.D. applicants see pg. 79)

Application materials are available from the Graduate School Office. Students may enter at the beginning of any semester or summer term. To apply for initial admission to graduate study, the applicant should submit the following:

1. A completed application, either paper format with a $25 non-refundable processing fee, or online at www.gradschool.gadsden-webb.edu.
2. An official transcript of all previous academic work beyond the high school to be sent directly from each institution attended. The Privacy Act requires that each student request in writing that transcripts be released to the Graduate School Office. (Use form provided with application.)
3. Scores on either the Graduate Record Examination, PRAXIS II Subject Assessment, or Miller Analogies Test.
4. Three professional references on graduate reference forms.
5. For appropriate programs, evidence of A level North Carolina Teacher's license or equivalent.

When all documents have been received, they will be evaluated by the Dean of the Graduate School and the chair or coordinator of the program area. The applicant will be notified of the decision. Prospective counseling majors must schedule an interview with the appropriate faculty members before formal admission. (See descriptions of these programs for additional admissions requirements.) Students are notified of their admission status as soon as possible after completing the admissions process. Because of the confidential nature of some items of information required for admission, the University reserves the right to reject any applicants without stating a reason.

International Students follow the usual procedure for admission with these exceptions:

1. Transcripts must first be submitted to World Education Services for evaluation before being mailed to the Graduate School Office. Applications for WES evaluations may be found in the Graduate School office or online at www.WES.org.
2. A satisfactory TOEFL score must be submitted unless English is the native tongue.
3. A Graduate-Webb form, Statement of Financial Responsibility, must be filled out, signed, and accompanied by a letter from student's or sponsor's bank showing amount to cover one year of graduate study.
4. Once the student's file is completed and an admissions decision has been made, the Graduate School Office will send the student an I20 Form, enabling the student to apply for a visa.

TYPES OF ADMISSION STATUS

Admission for graduate study at Gardner-Webb University is granted in the following categories.

FULL ADMISSION

An applicant who meets all criteria for admission to the Master of Arts degree program is granted full admission. These requirements include the following: a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution of higher learning with a minimum 2.50 grade point average; an A level teaching license or equivalent for those who are pursuing a graduate degree leading to graduate level licensure; satisfactory scores on either the Graduate Record Examination, PRAXIS, or the Miller Analogies Test; and three positive letters of evaluation (see the Counseling and Nursing Programs for additional requirements).

PROVISIONAL

An applicant who does not meet the formal requirements for full admission to a degree program may be granted provisional admission. A student admitted with provisional status must meet any conditions attached to his/her admission before being granted full admission. Deficiencies may include lack of undergraduate course prerequisites, low test scores, low undergraduate grade point average, or the need to complete student teaching or teacher licensure. No student may be admitted to a degree program who has a grade point average lower than 2.25 on all college work attempted or the less 64 hours of undergraduate work attempted.

SPECIAL

A student entering a graduate program to take courses for professional or career enhancement as a non-degree student is granted special admission. A maximum of six semester hours may be taken as a special student and applied toward a master of arts degree at Gardner-Webb.

Initial "A" Level Licensure Applicants who hold a baccalaureate degree but who do not hold a North Carolina "A" level Teacher's License or its equivalent may apply for admission as Special Students to the approved Program for Teacher Licensure. The School of Education and the appropriate departments offering the specialty studies will evaluate all undergraduate work.

Graduate Level Licensure: In some programs, students may pursue graduate level licensure without pursuing a graduate degree. Applicants who have earned a master's degree and who wish to earn a graduate level license in an additional area of specialization may apply for admission as Special Students. An evaluation of undergraduate and graduate work is required to determine courses necessary for graduate level licensure. Students must successfully complete the appropriate specialty area portion of the PRAXIS.

Public School Personnel: Public school teachers applying for the first time for courses solely for "A" level license renewal credit may be admitted as Special Students by completing the Graduate School application form and by presenting an official transcript showing completion of the bachelor's degree. If, however, credit is to be applied to a graduate degree, the student must make specific application for this credit before the completion of six hours, as well as meet all requirements for admission as a graduate degree student. Public school teachers and administrators applying for the first time for courses solely for graduate level license renewal credit may be admitted as Special Students by completing the Graduate School application and by filing an official transcript showing completion of the master's degree.

TRANSIENT

Transient status is assigned to an applicant from another recognized graduate institution who desires enrollment at Gardner-Webb to take courses for transfer to the institution in which he or she is enrolled as a degree candidate. A transient student must submit an application for admission to the Graduate School and a letter from the dean or director of the program in which he or she is regularly enrolled indicating good standing.

APPLICANT

An applicant to a graduate program may be granted permission to register for one semester of course work (no more than six semester hours) prior to finishing the admission procedure; however, he or she must have completed an application to the Graduate School. Credit earned will be considered graduate level work but may not be counted toward a Master of Arts degree at Gardner-Webb until the student meets admissions criteria when all credentials are assessed. The student must be admitted to the Graduate School in order for him or her to register for a second term of course work.

AUDITOR (SEE PAGE 14)

TRANSFER OF COURSES FOR GRADUATE CREDIT

The primary purpose of the transfer of credits policy is to grant incoming students credit for work previously completed. Students are expected to take the appropriate courses offered by Gardner-Webb once they enter the program. However, permission may be granted to take courses offered by other institutions when the appropriate course is not offered by Gardner-Webb or when it is more convenient for the University to approve a course for transfer than to offer the course by special arrangement. Students must satisfy licensure competencies as well as perform satisfactorily on program comprehensive exams. In addition, the Registrar's Office must have an original transcript on file showing the transfer course(s) before commencement or the student's graduation may be delayed.

With the approval of the coordinator/dean of the graduate area and the Dean of the Graduate School, a maximum of six semester hours may be accepted from another accredited graduate school toward the fulfillment of requirements for a graduate degree at Gardner-Webb. A maximum of nine semester hours may be accepted into counseling programs. Credit will not be given for courses taken more than six (6) calendar years before applying for admission to graduate study nor for courses taken towards another completed master's degree. Students currently enrolled in a graduate degree program at Gardner-Webb must have prior written approval to take courses from another institution for transfer credit.

Transfer credit will not be accepted for any course in which students earned below a grade of B. A student may not take courses for transfer credit from another institution while on suspension or on probation.

GRADUATE CREDIT FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

Undergraduate students who want to take graduate courses for graduate credit are limited to six semester hours and must obtain permission of the faculty member teaching the course and the appropriate graduate coordinator or department chair before registering for a graduate course.

Students who earned a bachelor's degree at Gardner-Webb University may not transfer for graduate credit any 500- or 600-level course taken as an undergraduate if that course contributed in any way to the requirements for the bachelor's degree. Graduate level courses that did not contribute toward the bachelor's degree may, at the discretion of the department chair, count toward the master's degree or graduate level hours.

READMISSION OF FORMER STUDENTS

Any student who does not register for three consecutive terms (the two summer sessions count as one term) must apply for readmission before resuming graduate work. No application fee is charged for readmission.

TIME LIMITS

Students have a time limit of six (6) calendar years to complete their degree from the beginning of the term in which they complete their first graduate course. Students who experience extenuating circumstances may apply for an extension through their program coordinator.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Gardner-Webb offers the Master of Arts (M.A.) degree in the following areas: Elementary Education (K-6), English, English Education (9-12), Mental Health Counseling, Middle Grades Education (6-9), School Administration (K-12), School Counseling (K-12), and Sport Science and Pedagogy. It also offers the Master of Science (M.S.) degree in Nursing, the Ed.S. (Education Specialist) in Mental Health Counseling, and the Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) in Educational Leadership.

These courses are offered in evenings, on weekends, and during summer months to accommodate the schedules of working professionals, both at on-campus and off-campus locations in North Carolina. Off-campus courses are offered in a format which brings all course work to the off-campus site except for class meetings at a library facility. Graduate students are not required to meet a residency requirement.

For students who have met all prerequisites, the programs consist of from 30 to 63 semester hours, depending upon the degree area.

LIBRARY SERVICE FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS AT OFF-CAMPUS CENTERS

Students attending off-campus classes may call Dover Memorial Library on campus at 800-253-6330 to request books and materials or access the library via the internet at www.gardner-webb.edu. Remote access to NC LIVE is also available via the library link on the Gardner-Webb University webpage.

The following agreement has been reached with the C.O. O'Kelly Library at Winston-Salem State University to assist Gardner-Webb graduate students attending the Forreth and Berry centers.

1. Area students who are Non University of North Carolina affiliated may utilize the circulation, reference and periodical collections at Winston-Salem State University by becoming city patrons. The annual fee is two ($10.00) per person.
2. Valid identification verifying current enrollment at Gardner-Webb University must be presented at the time of application. A card with an identifying bar code and the patron's address will be maintained at the Circulation Desk. An identification card such as a driver's license should be presented for all subsequent circulation transactions.
3. Books from the main collection are checked out for three weeks or until the end of the academic term for Winston-Salem State University, whichever is less. Items in the reserve collection may be used within the library only.
4. Fines accrue at twenty-five cents per day, above of overdue and first regulations will result in loss of check-out privileges.
5. Patrons are notified of overdue items. Unpaid fines and lost book charges will be forwarded to Gardner-Webb University for collection. Books may not be checked out by patrons having $25 or more in outstanding fines and/or overdue materials.
6. Check-out of heavily used materials may be restricted at the discretion of the library staff.
7. Lost book charges include book replacement cost plus a five-dollar handling fee.
8. Changes in address must be reported to the C.O. O'Kelly Circulation staff.
9. Periodicals, reference books and other non-circulation materials may NOT be borrowed for outside use.
10. Web/library connections to University of North Carolina systems online catalogs are available at all online terminals.

Students may also use the facilities of the E. Smith Reynolds Library at Wake Forest University; there is a fee for check-out privileges.

COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATIONS

The successful completion of a comprehensive examination is required for some graduate programs. The following policies govern the administration of this examination.

1. The comprehensive examination includes questions related to the student's entire program, and the entire examination is read and approved by the student's comprehensive examination committee.
2. Only written comprehensive examinations are administered.
3. Students may take the comprehensive examination either during their last semester of course work or the following semester.
4. Successful completion of the comprehensive examination is not a part of any existing course structure.
5. Comprehensive examinations are evaluated by a Graduate Faculty Examination Committee, composed of at least three persons selected by the chair or coordinator of the appropriate department. A Comprehensive Examination Form, signed by the committee, is submitted to the Graduate School Office and becomes a part of the student's records. Successful completion of the comprehensive examination is defined as approval by a majority of the examining committee.
6. Students who fail the comprehensive examination may be retested on the failed portion(s) of the examination after a minimum of two weeks from the date of the first examination. Students who fail the comprehensive examination a second time must make written appeal to the Graduate Council in order to be considered for a third examination. Comprehensive examinations may be taken only three times.
7. The Graduate School Office mails out guidelines every semester in registration packets.

APPLICATION FOR GRADUATE LICENSURE

An application for the North Carolina graduate level license must be filed with the Licensing Agent, currently the Dean of the School of Education, who may assist students in planning their program of study so that North Carolina licensure requirements may be met. With the exception of the school counseling program, one must hold, or be eligible to hold, an "A" level license before applying for graduate level license. Gardner-Webb will not recommend students for a graduate level license unless they have completed an approved program and scored satisfactorily on the appropriate area exam of the PRAXIS or, for school administration students, the state standards based exam. Students pursuing graduate and undergraduate level licenses must meet the requirements for both levels, including successful completion of the appropriate specialty area portion of the PRAXIS. Students seeking a recommendation for graduate "licensure only" must meet the same licensure requirements as those students pursuing the graduate degree. An application fee is required.

Certified checks in payment for state licensure must be made payable to the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction. Official transcripts of any transfer credits applied toward the Master of Arts degree at Gardner-Webb must be submitted both to the School of Education and the Graduate School Office. One of these transcripts will be sent to the State Department of Public Instruction with the application for Graduate Licensure.

GRADUATE PROGRAMS AND COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION

The Master of Arts in Education builds upon the instructional expertise, leadership qualities, and skills of experienced educators. The programs are aligned with the INTASC Principles and the NCDEP competencies required for licensure. The programs include rigorous academic preparation in and implementation of the latest research on human development and learning. Consequently, reflective practice becomes an integral component which supports the Oakes-Wells conceptual framework. Active participation in a program allows students to develop further those competencies essential to professional education and continued self-improvement, thus exemplifying the model of the Educator as Theorist and Practitioner.

Upon successful completion of a graduate program in education, students who hold initial licensure will be recommended for the North Carolina graduate license in the appropriate licensure area.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION (K-6)

COORDINATOR: DR. DONNA SIMMONS

The master's program in Elementary Education includes thirty semester hours in four components: professional, instructional, elective, and capstone. This program builds upon the most current body of knowledge of best practice and practical expertise (theory and practice) relevant to teaching in K-6.

In order to obtain graduate level licensure, students must hold initial licensure in Elementary Education.

PURPOSE

Graduates of the Master of Arts in Elementary Education programs are encouraged to be self-reflective, life-long learners who design, implement, and evaluate elementary school curriculum and instruction; interpret and apply current research findings and conduct relevant classroom research. The program culminates with a capstone experience requiring synthesis of a student's products of learning in conjunction with an innovative project designed collaboratively by the student and graduate committee.

GOALS

The Master of Arts in Elementary Education is designed to meet the following program goals:

1. Provide a study of the theoretical base, research, and exemplary practices of current trends and issues in elementary education.
2. Provide preparation necessary to meet the intellectual, social, physical, and personal developmental needs of the K-6 learner.
3. Provide opportunities to acquire knowledge and skills needed to meet diverse needs of students in inclusive classroom settings.
4. Provide opportunities to utilize current technologies and to integrate technology in the classroom.

5. Provide advanced expertise in teaching communication skills across the curriculum.
6. Provide opportunities to develop teachers as leaders who are agents of change in the schools, in the local community, and in the global community.
7. Provide opportunities to develop and refine leadership styles and skills through a process of active engagement in learning, self-reflection, planning, collaboration, reflective teaching, and development of interpersonal and motivational skills.
8. Provide a learning environment which fosters respect and ethical principles in teacher/student and colleague relationships.

Synthesis of Studies of Elementary Education Master's Degree Program

1. Each course in the Elementary Education program includes assignments for the final product of learning which requires students to synthesize and reflect on practices that are developmentally responsive for elementary classrooms.

2. The product of learning must be comprehensive, must demonstrate evidence of applying theory to practice and must contain evidence of technological proficiency. The product of learning will incorporate elements from INTASC standards, the propositions of the NBPTS, the NC elementary graduate guidelines, and the NC advanced technology competencies, connecting to the Theorist and Practitioner conceptual framework of the Charlotte-Webb University teacher preparation program.

3. The final product of learning (project) will be presented to education faculty and graduate students. The candidate's faculty committee will determine whether work-items to be awarded the Master's Degree in Elementary Education.

ENGLISH EDUCATION (9-12)

COORDINATOR: DR. GAYLE BOET PRICE

The English Education program (9-12) is designed to include three semester hours in professional and content area studies. It leads to a recommendation for graduate level Teaching License for those who possess initial licensure in 9-12 English. Graduate students who do not have initial licensure may obtain the degree but not the graduate level license. However, it is strongly recommended that only individuals with either student or other teaching experience pursue this program.

Admission standards are the same as those for entry into other graduate programs at Gardner-Webb with one exception. Students without substantial undergraduate coursework in English should expect to be required to take undergraduate courses prior to admission in order to obtain background needed to be successful in graduate study in English. Students who do not meet these standards will be evaluated on an individual basis.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Master of Arts in English Education (9-12) is to support the professional development of teachers of English who contribute to the community in which they teach through effective communications skills, through understanding and appreciation of literature of diverse cultures, through understanding of the importance of critical and independent thinking, through action research, and through knowledge of and reflection on effective teaching practices and strategies, including the use of appropriate technology.

GOALS

The goals of the program, in accordance with State Department guidelines, are planned so that participants will be able to:

1. Increase content area knowledge through various literature courses which recognize the scope and diversity of literature and its origins as well as the importance of a variety of skills in literary criticism and critical analysis.
2. Become better writers and teachers of writing through increased understanding of the writing process and of rhetorical principles.
3. Understand the importance of research, theory, planning, practice, and reflection in curriculum development and in the teaching of English.
4. Apply research to real-world experiences in order to improve classroom practice through action.
5. Develop the ability to be peer leaders as a result of their instructional expertise, knowledge of learners, research expertise, and ability to connect subject matter and learners.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

A. Curriculum Development/Education Foundations (3 semester hours selected from courses below)

ENGL 675	Young Adult Literature 3 hrs.

Seminar and topics may be repeated with the approval of the coordinator of the program.

E. Capstone Experience and Products of Learning (0 semester hours credit)

Professional Reflections Portfolio

1. Each course in the M.A. in English Education program includes assignments for the portfolio which ask students to reflect in writing on the course's connection with the threads of the conceptual framework of Gardner-Webb's teacher-education program and with the application of the course's theory to their own teaching situations—or to develop teaching plans which involve aspects of the course's contents that can be applied in their teaching situations, with the use of technology encouraged when appropriate.

2. English 682, The English Teacher as Researcher, culminates in a formal report of an action research project. The action research report is also a part of the portfolio.

3. At the end of the program's course work, students are given tasks which require them to reflect on and synthesize all they have learned and all they do in their own classrooms. Many of these tasks are modeled after tasks required in the National Board Certification process so that completion of the Professional Reflections Portfolio could provide an additional benefit of significantly aiding students in applying for National Board Certification if they have not already achieved it.

4. Portfolios are presented to English faculty and graduate students and evaluated by a faculty committee to determine the student's worthiness to be awarded the M.A. in English Education degree.

MIDDLE GRADES EDUCATION (6-9)

COORDINATOR: DR. CARROLL SMITH

The Master's Degree in Middle Grades Education includes thirty semester hours in five components: professional, instructional, content area, elective, and capstone. The primary focus of the program is to enhance middle level teachers' understanding and knowledge of the theoretical base, research, and exemplary practices of middle level education including, but not limited to, the nature of the young adolescent, developmentally appropriate instruction, and advanced content area knowledge. The program leads to recommendations for graduate level state licensure for those who hold initial middle grades licensure.

PURPOSE

Graduate courses for the Master's Degree in Middle Grades Education are designed to assist in the advanced preparation of individuals who teach or desire to teach in a middle school. The Middle Grades Program allows learners to improve professional skills ("wrap theory in practice") and enhance content area, pedagogical, and integration expertise. Students will benefit from a synthesis of current research and classroom applications. This program culminates in a capstone experience requiring an innovative project designed collaboratively by the student and the student's committee.

GOALS

The Master of Arts in Middle Grades Education is designed to meet the following program goals:

1. Provide an analysis of the theoretical base, current research, and contemporary practices of middle grades education.
2. Provide advanced preparation in young adolescent development within cultural and social contexts (family changes, health and safety, risk behaviors).
3. Develop an extended understanding of the comparative history and philosophy of middle grades education, and theories about its future development, including organizational components, assessment, and evaluation in the middle school setting.
4. Provide opportunities to analyze and design middle school curricula and evaluate the impact of current instructional practices and school policies on the learning of young adolescents.
5. Provide advanced content expertise and curriculum integration in one or more fields of teaching.
6. Provide opportunities to utilize current technologies and to integrate technology in the middle school classroom.
7. Develop teachers as leaders who are agents of change.
8. Provide a culminating project synthesizing middle school theory, research, and practice.

Synthesis of Strands of Middle-Level Education Master's Degree Program

1. Each course in the Middle Grades program includes assignments related to the final product of learning which requires students to synthesize and reflect on practices that are developmentally responsive for middle level classrooms.

2. The product of learning must be comprehensive, must demonstrate evidence of applying theory to practice and must contain evidence of technological proficiency. The product of learning will incorporate elements from INTASC standards, the propositions of the NBPTS, the NC middle level graduate portfolio, and the NC advanced technology competencies, connecting to the Theorist and Practitioner conceptual framework of the Clarion-Weber University teacher preparation program.

3. The final product of learning/project will be presented to education faculty and graduate students. The candidate's faculty committee will determine whether work done to be awarded the Master's Degree in Middle Grades Education.

SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION (K-12)

COORDINATOR: DR. RONALD L. NANNY

The focus of the School Administration (K-12) program is to prepare experienced teachers to serve as educational leaders; it is designed to relate to the needs of educators in both theory and practice. A minimum of three years of successful experience as a classroom teacher is recommended for entry into this program. Those with bachelor's degrees may enter the two-year program leading to a master of arts degree in school administration (K-12), which is a 36-semester-hour program including a 6-hour internship. In order to be licensed by the state, students must make a satisfactory score on the State Standards Board Examination for school administrators.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Master of Arts degree in School Administration (K-12) is to develop educational leaders through courses, research, seminars, and internships conducted in an environment based on Christian principles and values.

GOALS

The School Administration program is designed to meet the following program goals for prospective school administrators:

1. Provide a foundation in the principles and procedures of educational administration, curriculum development, and instructional improvement.
2. Promote the development of the ability to implement and evaluate models of instruction and methods of supervision in the classroom and other school settings.
3. Foster the development of the ability to evaluate classroom teachers within an academic environment.
4. Develop the capacity to interpret and implement educational research in the total school program.
5. Provide preparation for service as instructional and educational leaders.

COUNSELING PROGRAMS

The Department of Psychology and Counseling has as its mission an ongoing commitment to providing a caring and challenging environment which facilitates acquisition of knowledge and development of skills necessary for students to become effective counselors in an increasingly diverse society. Specifically, the department affirms and adopts the Statement of Core Values of the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP), which acknowledges a belief in:

- Advancing the counseling profession through quality and excellence in counselor education;
- Ensuring a fair, consistent, and ethical decision-making process;
- Serving as a responsible leader in protecting the public;
- Promoting practices that reflect openness to growth, change, and collaboration;
- Creating and strengthening standards that reflect the needs of society, respect the diversity of instructional approaches and strategies, and encourage program improvement and best practices. (CACREP Board of Directors, March 2002)

Curricular experiences and course content for both the School Counseling and Mental Health Counseling Programs are built around the following eight core areas as defined by CACREP: professional identity, social and cultural diversity, human growth and development, career development, helping relationships, group work, assessment, and research and program evaluation.

The Mental Health Counseling and School Counseling programs in Bowling Springs follow an internal cohort model. The Mental Health Counseling Program at Bowling Stateville admits counselor trainees every three years. Students admitted to either the Mental Health or School Counseling degree programs who desire to change to the other program must satisfy and meet all admission requirements for the program they wish to enter.

MASTER OF ARTS

SCHOOL COUNSELING (PRE-K-12)

COORDINATOR: DR. LAURA WILLIAMS SMITH

PURPOSE

The 48-semester-hour School Counseling Program prepares graduate students to fulfill the diverse roles required of school counselors who are both theorists and practitioners in a multicultural society. Counselor trainees are prepared to collaborate with parents, school personnel, and others in assisting students with academic, career, personal, and social concerns. The School Counseling Program stresses developmental, preventative, and remedial services. Additional emphasis is given to acquisition and application of knowledge and skills, critical thinking and decision making, appreciation of diversity, demonstration of accepted ethical and legal practices, and an understanding of the educational process within the complex school environment. The examination of personal values and experiences and their potential influence in a variety of counseling situations is encouraged. The School Counseling Program culminates in a school-based practicum and internship experience designed to solidify the counselor trainee's identity as a professional school counselor.

GOALS

1. In accordance with CACREP standards, counselor trainees will participate in curricular experiences in each of the following areas of school counseling foundations, contextual dimensions, program development, implementation, and evaluation; individual, group, guidance and consultation services.
2. Counselor trainees will demonstrate skills appropriate to beginning counselors as required by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction School Counseling Guidelines and Competencies, and recommended by professional counseling associations and credentialing bodies.
3. Supported by self-reflective practices, counselor trainees will demonstrate the acquisition and application of the knowledge and skills outlined above in appropriate school-based practicum and internship experiences.
4. Successful graduates will be recommended by Departments of Psychology and Counseling to the OWL School of Education (the university school-related licensing agent) for graduate level licensure in school counseling.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission requirements include an undergraduate grade point average of 2.7 or better, an acceptable Graduate Record Exam or Miller Analogies Test score, and three positive letters of recommendation. A background in psychology at the undergraduate level is strongly recommended. Specific requirements for prerequisites include an undergraduate course in Abnormal Psychology/Psychopathology and an undergraduate course in Developmental Psychology. Each of these courses may be taken concurrently with graduate courses but must be completed before taking the corresponding advanced level courses. Although teacher licensure is not required for admission to the School Counseling Program, applicants without teacher licensure will be required to complete an undergraduate course in classroom management prior to the practicum. Additional opportunities will be provided to strengthen students' knowledge of the school setting throughout the program as well as during the practicum and internship experiences.

The requirements for the role of a school counselor are both personal and intellectual. For this reason, in addition to general Graduate School entrance requirements, a successful interview with program faculty members is an absolute requirement for admission to the program. During this interview the faculty members will assess the academic background, personal qualities, and goals of applicants. Applicants will be admitted who meet the personal and academic requirements of the program.

Graduate students should talk with their advisors when planning a course of study to be sure that they include courses required to become licensed as professional counselors.

MASTER OF ARTS/ED. SPECIALIST

MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING

COORDINATORS: DR. FRIEDA F. BROWN AND

DR. FAITH WEATHERINGTON

Mental health counseling is a professional counseling specialty which involves the application of principles of psychotherapy, human development, learning theory, group dynamics, and the assessment of mental illness and dysfunctional behavior. Mental health counseling includes the practice of prevention, early intervention, and treatment of mental and emotional disorders for individuals, families, student groups and consultation and education for community groups interested in promoting healthy lifestyles in the community.

The mental health counseling program is designed to provide graduate level preparation for students who seek advanced educational experiences and clinical training leading to certification and/or licensure for professional positions in the mental health counseling field. The M.A./Ed.S. degree is a combined, combined degree. A student cannot finish one degree without the other. Therefore, in order to obtain either degree the student must complete the entire graduate program. Students holding a counseling master's degree from a graduate program here within, or outside Gardner-Webb University will not be able to pursue the Ed.S. portion of the degree by supplementing their course work with additional courses from the Gardner-Webb University Mental Health Counseling program.

PURPOSE

The M.A./Ed.S. program in mental health counseling is designed to develop skilled clinicians and well-educated leaders in the field of mental health. Within a caring and challenging environment, the 60-semester-hour mental health counseling program strives to facilitate the acquisition and application of knowledge and skills which will help prepare graduate students to make appropriate contributions to diverse clients, institutions, and society. To do this, using a scientist-practitioner model, the program emphasizes integration of theory and practice, critical thinking and decision making, as well as the examination of personal values and experiences as they influence clinical practice. Students have strong theoretical and technical training which is applied in field-based counseling practice and internships.

GOALS

1. In accordance with CACREP standards, curricular experiences and demonstrated knowledge in each of the following areas of mental health counseling will be required: mental health foundations, conceptual dimensions, clinical principles, general practice, and specific strategies of mental health counseling.
2. Graduate students will develop skills appropriate to beginning counselors in each of the areas specified above as required by state and national professional associations and by credentialing bodies.
3. Graduate students will demonstrate their understanding of the importance of continuing professional development, an underlying code of ethics, legal considerations, and standards of professional conduct in classes and in appropriate agency-based practices and internship experiences.
4. Students will be prepared to take the licensed professional counselor exam and complete all requirements for the LPC license.
5. Students will understand theory and appropriate standards of practice with identified special populations in mental health facilities.
6. Character and maturity will be nurtured throughout the program as moral, ethical, spiritual, and psychological dimensions of all areas of work are addressed.

CRITERIA FOR ADMISSION

The requirements for the role of a mental health counselor are both personal and intellectual. During an admissions interview the faculty will assess the academic background and personal qualities and goals of applicants. Applicants will be admitted who meet the personal and academic requirements of the program.

Recognizing the need to accept students who have the greatest likelihood of success in this role, the following standards will be used for admission to the mental health counseling program.

1. A bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution of higher education with a minimum 3.00 grade point average.
2. A minimum of 18 hours of psychology or related areas to include introductory, abnormal/psychopathology, personality theory, developmental, learning theory, assessment, and research.
3. Satisfactory test scores on either the Graduate Record Examination or the Miller Analogies Test.
4. Three positive letters of reference.
5. A successful interview by faculty within the program.
6. A questionnaire requiring applicants to respond to questions relative to the pursuit of a counseling graduate degree.

C. Applied Component

PSYC 675	Practicum in Mental Health Counseling 3 hrs.
PSYC 695	Internship in Mental Health Counseling 3 hrs.
PSYC 696	Internship in Mental Health Counseling 3 hrs.

All courses in both the school and mental health counseling curricula are open to all counseling students who have prerequisites and permission of the professor. All core courses should be completed before any student enters the practicum or internship and may be required for other courses by the professor. Graduate students should talk with their advisors when planning a course of study to be sure that they include courses required to become licensed as professional counselors.

ENGLISH

COORDINATOR: DR. DAVID PARKER

This program is designed to include two options: either twenty-four hours of choice credit plus six hours of thesis credit, or thirty hours of course credit with no thesis. In either case the candidate must take comprehensive exams either in the last semester of course work or during the following semester.

Admission standards are the same as those for entry into other graduate programs at Chadron State with one exception. Students without substantial undergraduate coursework in English should expect to be required to take undergraduate courses prior to admission in order to obtain background needed to be successful in graduate study in English. Students who do not meet these standards will be evaluated on an individual basis.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the program is to offer capable students an advanced program which will enhance their careers as college instructors or administrators and which will prepare them for doctoral level study. The program will prepare its students to be scholars who have not only mastered a basic body of knowledge in the field, but who have also developed the research skills to be self-educating learners, whether it is in the context of a doctoral program or as a teacher-practitioner.

GOALS

The Master of Arts program in English is designed to meet the following goals:

1. Graduate students will master important texts in British, American and World Literature.
2. Graduate students will become conversant in both older and more current theories and methods of literary criticism.
3. Graduate students will master the skills necessary for scholarship as each class will emphasize the development of research skills and familiarity with secondary sources in the content area.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

ENGL 671	Literary Theory 3 hrs.
27 additional hours selected from the following:
ENGL 655	Special Topics 3 hrs.
ENGL 611	Seminar in British Literature 3 hrs.
ENGL 643	British Literature: Selected Masterpieces 3 hrs.
ENGL 651	Seminar in American Literature 3 hrs.
ENGL 653	American Literature: Selected Masterpieces 3 hrs.
ENGL 651	Literature: A World Perspective 3 hrs.
ENGL 673	Contemporary Trends in Literature 3 hrs.
ENGL 675	Young Adult Literature 3 hrs.
ENGL 683	The Teaching of Writing 3 hrs.
ENGL 690	Thesis Prospectus 3 hrs.*
ENGL 691	Thesis 3 hrs.*

*Students selecting the thesis option take 690 first, and then 691. If the thesis is not completed and signed in the first semester the student takes 691, the student will repeat 691 until the thesis is signed (repeating during the summer term is at the discretion of the student and advisor). The grade for 691 is passed in semesters in which the thesis is not completed. The grade for 691 in the semester in which the thesis is signed is A, B, C, or F. Students who choose not to complete a thesis cannot use hours awarded for English 690 or 691 towards the degree.

Seminar and topic courses may be repeated with the approval of the coordinator of the program.

THE THESIS OPTION

A prospectus must be approved by the candidate's thesis committee before work on the thesis proper can begin. The thesis committee will consist of the thesis director and two other English faculty members. At the end of the program, candidates who have selected the thesis option will submit a master's thesis which must be approved by the candidate's committee.

M.DIV./M.A. IN ENGLISH DEGREE

Graduate-Wells offers a combined M.Div./M.A. in English degree. For details about this degree, see the Master of Divinity section of the catalog.

SPORT SCIENCE AND PEDAGOGY

COORDINATOR: DR. KEN BAKER

The Sport Science and Pedagogy program includes thirty semester hours in five components: methodology, science, socio-culture, administration, and elective. The primary focus of the program is instructional expertise in sport-related settings. The elective component of the program consists of six hours of subject area work that may be programmed to meet the specific needs of individual students. This program does not include recommendations for graduate level state licensure.

PURPOSE

Graduate courses for the Master of Arts in Sport Science and Pedagogy are designed to assist in the advanced preparation of individuals who are involved with sport and fitness-related endeavors. These fields of endeavors may include physical education programs, coaching environments, fitness centers, sport clubs, and other physical activity settings. The development of skills will be accomplished through coursework, research, and pedagogical experience. Students will benefit from a synthesis of current and applicable information derived from both theory and practice.

GOALS

The Master of Arts in Sport Science and Pedagogy is designed to meet the following goals:

1. Provide advanced preparation for leadership in the field of sport and fitness instruction.
2. Develop the skills essential for the research of various aspects of sport science and pedagogy.
3. Develop the capacity to interpret and then apply the findings of sport-related research to actual practices.
4. Develop skills and understandings of the numerous teaching styles used in sport instruction.
5. Foster the development of individual potential for becoming optimally effective as a teacher, coach, instructor or sport administrator.

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN NURSING

DIRECTOR: DR. REBECCA BECK-LITTLE

INTRODUCTION

The Gardner-Webb University School of Nursing provides the Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) Program which offers three areas of study designed to meet the needs of nurses seeking expanded roles in their profession: Family Nursing, Nursing Administration, and Nursing Education. The MSN Degree with specialty concentration requires 32 to 36 semester hours of graduate credits. In addition to the three areas of concentrated study, the MSN program offers the MSN/MBA dual degree and the RN to MSN option.

The Master of Science in Nursing with a concentration in Family Nursing is offered in collaboration with the M. Christopher White School of Divinity. This program of study is structured to provide students with knowledge from theology, pastoral care, and parish health nursing.

The Master of Science in Nursing with a concentration in Education is designed to prepare students to become professional educators in an academic or health care setting. This program of study allows students the opportunity to enhance their clinical expertise from a theoretical perspective and to apply nursing education and learning principles in practice settings.

The Master of Science in Nursing with a concentration in Administration is offered in collaboration with the Graduate School of Business. This program of study seeks to prepare the professional nurse for leadership roles in health care organizations.

The RN to MSN program is designed to facilitate an accelerated and integrated progression from the Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) curriculum to the Master of Science in Nursing curriculum. This program of study allows nurses to apply six hours of graduate course credit to the BSN degree.

The MSN/MBA dual degree program is a 63-semester-hour program. This interdisciplinary program combines nursing leadership with a working knowledge of business and managerial skills.

The courses in the MSN programs of study are offered in a logical sequence from the core requirements of theory, issues, research, statistics, and caring to courses in the major area of concentration. Elective requirements allow students to expand their educational perspective to other disciplines. The MSN educational experience culminates in a capstone course requiring the application of knowledge in a thesis or project.

A Post-Master's Nursing Education Certificate is also offered. (See pg. 77 for details.)

PURPOSE

The Master of Science in Nursing program provides opportunities for students to provide care within a global environment from an interdisciplinary perspective with a diverse population. Furthermore, the specialization of practice areas allows the nurse to integrate knowledge from diversity, administration, and education with the theoretical underpinnings of nursing.

GOALS

The MSN Program is designed to provide individuals with an opportunity to meet the following goals within a Christian environment:

1. Practice advanced nursing in direct and indirect provider roles in a variety of health care and educational settings.
2. Apply advanced knowledge of nursing theory, research, and health policy from a caring perspective.
3. Synthesize multi-disciplinary knowledge and scientific research to accomplish evidence-based nursing practice.
4. Integrate nursing knowledge and experiences in varied health care settings.
5. Implement competent practice to meet the challenges of the changing health care environments through application of advanced knowledge, critical thinking, and decision making.
6. Communicate effectively with health care providers both locally and globally.
7. Acquire the knowledge and expertise that meet basic requirements for entry into doctoral study.

CRITERIA FOR ADMISSION

Application for admission to the MSN Program should be made through the Graduate School. Application for admission to the MSN/MBA Program should be made to the Graduate School and to the Graduate School of Business. In order to enroll students from a variety of backgrounds with the greatest potential for successfully completing the program, the following criteria for acceptance will be used:

1. A Bachelor's Degree in nursing from a regionally accredited institution with a nationally accredited program.

2. Current unrestricted licensure as a Registered Nurse.
3. GPA of 2.70 on all undergraduate work.
4. Satisfactory scores on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT). (GMAT or GRE required for the MSN/MBA Program.)
5. Transcripts of all previous college studies.
6. Three letters of reference.
7. Proof of satisfactory criminal background check.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR THE RN WITH A BACCALAUREATE DEGREE IN ANOTHER FIELD:

1. A Baccalaureate Degree from a regionally accredited institution.
2. Current unrestricted licensure as a Registered Nurse.
3. GPA of 2.70 on all undergraduate work.
4. Satisfactory scores on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT). (GMAT or GRE required for the MSN/MBA Program.)
5. Transcripts of all previous college studies.
6. Three letters of reference.
7. Proof of satisfactory criminal background check.
8. Completion of a graduate or undergraduate general statistics course which includes probability theory, inferential statistics, and descriptive statistics.
9. Completion of a nursing health assessment course.
10. For admission to the Master's in Nursing Education and Parish Nursing: completion of a community health course.
11. For admission to the Master's in Nursing Administration: completion of a nursing leadership/management course.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION

EDLS 700 THEORY

DEVELOPMENT MODULE

6 semester hours

This module examines the historical context of curriculum development and organizational structure. In addition to the historical emphasis, the course facilitates investigation of current and future theories associated with organizational change and curriculum reform from a systematic approach. An integrated approach is used in the study of common theories and philosophies.

EDLS 702 OPERATIONAL

AND MANAGERIAL MODULE

6 semester hours

This module examines finances and facilities from the perspective of educational leaders who must determine the needs and functions of the fiscal operations. An integrated approach is used to establish the necessary leadership skills to create a cooperative working environment. The module also emphasizes a business management appreciation of the complexity and manitude of education as an important resource in the public sector. A thorough examination includes an understanding of how the American economy provides funding for public education, how funds are administered, and trends toward the efficient utilization of resources.

EDLS 704 RESEARCH MODULE 12 semester hours

Schools function as professional learning communities, from entering into decision-making processes that are inquiry and collaboratively based. This module develops the skills for individual and organizational inquiry.

EDLS 706 REFORM AND CHANGE MODULE 6 semester hours

This module examines the historical background of school reform and the impact upon change in the educational environment. In addition, emphasis will be placed on effectiveness, reform models, and the leadership implications of managing change efforts.

EDLS 708 ORGANIZATIONAL BEHAVIOR MODULE 6 semester hours

This module surveys historical and contemporary works in ethics and legal issues as they relate to the educational setting. The course explores managerial and governance roles of the school leader who creates a positive environment for an educational organization.

EDLS 710 INSTRUCTIONAL MODULE 12 semester hours

The purpose of this module is to develop creative leadership and skills for supervising educational programs and personnel. This course analyzes the nature, focus, and attributes of leadership. Furthermore, it explores theory and practices of leadership and various leadership inventories. The course focuses on the techniques, skills, and practices of the professional supervisor.

EDLS 712 DISSERTATION MODULE 6 semester hours

This module allows the student to examine, through quantitative and qualitative methods, a topic of interest with the approval and guidance of a dissertation committee.

EDLS 701, 703, 705, 707, 709, 711 MODULE SEMINARS 1 semester hour each

Each module incorporates a one (1) hour seminar designed for students as a means of reinforcing the module experience and expanding the level of engagement.

EDLS 713 DISSERTATION MODULE SEMINAR 3 semester hours

The dissertation module incorporates three (3) hours of seminar credit aimed at providing quality time for collaborative activities that assist in the development and completion of the final product.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Advanced Study of Business in a Christian Environment

INTRODUCTION

The Graduate School of Business currently offers master degree programs in Master of Business Administration (MBA), Master of Accountancy (MAcc), International Master of Business Administration (IMBA), MBAMAcc and IMBAMAcc. Two other degree programs are jointly offered with the M. Christopher White School of Divinity (MDiv/MBA) and the School of Nursing (MSN/MBA). The Graduate School of Business requires a minimum of 36 semester hours of graduate credits for an MBA or IMBA degree and 30 semester hours for a MAcc degree. The programs are specifically structured to accommodate the needs of working professionals - people who are seeking new ways to remain competitive in the changing environment of business and accounting. Each class meets only one evening a week for an entire semester and two evenings a week during the summer sessions.

LOCATIONS

The MBA Program is offered on the main campus in Boiling Springs, North Carolina. The MBA Program is also offered in Statesville, Winston-Salem, Vidette, Charlotte, and Spartanburg, South Carolina. The MAcc program is currently offered on the main campus, Charlotte, and Statesville centers.

THE FACULTY

Members of the Graduate Business Faculty hold doctorate degrees from major universities throughout the country and world. They have varied business experiences and bring to the classroom a mixture of practical and theoretical experience and training. The faculty is committed to providing a program of study which clearly gives its participants an advantage when competing with others in today's business climate.

Classes are generally small at Gardner-Webb University and faculty members are accessible. Professors' priorities are given to teaching and serving the program's participants. Professors also engage in consulting and research activities; these persons are then used in the classroom to make lessons up-to-date and meaningful. The environment of personal attention and dedication to teaching distinguishes the programs from other universities.

GARDNER-WEBB UNIVERSITY AND FREE ENTERPRISE

The University has been supported greatly over the years by Baptist churches, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and men and women who give their time and resources to provide students with an excellent Christian learning environment. Some of these supporters were successful business people who shared in Gardner-Webb University's commitment to the teaching of love and appreciation for the American free enterprise system. Many other small and large business entrepreneurs have made financial contributions that have enriched the University's campus community and enhanced its course offerings.

The graduate and undergraduate business programs provide opportunities for students to understand and experience the free market system. Student business organizations, on-campus seminars, and executive lectures help prepare students for successful business careers. The University's Brushhill Academy is dedicated to spreading an appreciation of free enterprise and teaching entrepreneurship.

WORLD TRADE RESOURCE CENTER

(The Free Enterprise Center)

The Gardner-Webb University World Trade Resource Center was established on October 2, 1997 as a resource base for businesses already competing or about to enter the global market. It is a non-profit organization which encourages the development of new businesses and foreign trade between and among all nations. Also, it serves as a practical resource base for students majoring in international business. The center's trade networks and other resources help simplify the theories of this discipline by disseminating global information about economic activity in the foreign arena. The center is located in the School of Business.

STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM

International Master of Business Administration (IMBA) majors are required to participate in a foreign study program offered through the Graduate School of Business. Other majors in the Graduate School of Business are encouraged to participate. Several programs are offered every year to the major continents of the world, including Europe, Asia, Africa and South America. This program provides to the individual practical international educational experience of culture, customs, language, and the impact of international business. It is a unique educational opportunity enrichment for the participants.

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS (GSB)/

EXECUTIVE ASSOCIATION

The GSB/Executive Association is an organization of current Graduate School of Business students, Alumni and business executives united to provide network services to its members, and further develop and enhance the partnership between the University and the business community.

The association is a self-supporting, not for profit organization, committed to meeting the needs of its members, the University and industry. The association objectives are:

- To provide social and professional activities for its members.
- Provide networking capabilities for its members, including employment opportunities.
- Invite nationally and world renowned speakers to the campus.
- Promote a positive image of Gardner-Webb worldwide and increase public awareness.
- Maintain a strategic planning process that is conducive to addressing the current and future needs of the program, to meeting changing academic and business requirements.
- Develop stronger relationships with the business community.
- Provide availability of resources for consulting or problem resolution.

STUDENT LIFE

Students enrolled in a graduate program at Gardner-Webb University are typically working professionals. Therefore, programs are carefully designed to accommodate their needs, especially as they relate to work schedules. Graduate students have representation on the Graduate Council and are entitled to attend campus events, receive campus publications, and request services which are offered to students at Gardner-Webb. Services offered include guidance and counseling, placement services, and the delivery of textbooks from the Campus Shop to off-campus students. Graduate students are invited to participate in campus life to the maximum extent of their desire and interest.

THE ADMISSIONS PROCESS

Admission to the University's Graduate School of Business program is selective. An admission decision is based on a balanced appraisal of the applicant's total academic and professional record, highest Graduate Management Admissions Test score, and overall excellence. While the Admissions Committee looks for responsible academic performance and excellence on test scores as evidence of the applicant's ability to do well in graduate study, it also looks for qualities of personal development which are relevant to career success. Extra-curricular involvement and leadership in college, useful assignments in military service or substantial work experience will strengthen the application.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Persons wishing to apply for admission to the Graduate School of Business Programs should request application materials from the Graduate School of Business Office of Admissions. No single criterion will be decisive, but each item will be considered in relation to the applicant's total qualifications. Gardner-Webb University seeks to enroll students from a variety of economic, occupational, racial, social, religious, and geographic backgrounds.

To apply for initial admission to the Graduate programs, the applicant should:

1. Submit an application and a detailed resume of professional experience to the Graduate Business Director of Admissions along with a $25 non-refundable processing fee.
2. Arrange for an official transcript of all previous academic work beyond high school to be sent directly from each institution attended. The Privacy Act requires that each student request in writing transcripts be released to the Graduate Business Director of Admissions.
3. Arrange for submission of scores on the Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT).
4. Have three evaluators mail recommendations directly to the Graduate Business Director of Admissions: (1) current or past professor, (2) current or past supervisor, (3) academic or business professional, or any combination thereof.

GMAT

Students are required to take the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) prior to full admission to the program. A GMAT score can only be used for evaluation if the test has been taken within the last five years.

Students must request the Educational Testing Service to send GMAT scores directly to Gardner-Webb University. The University ETS Code is 5242.

Applications for taking the GMAT may be obtained from the Graduate School of Business Director of Admissions at Gardner-Webb University. Students may register by phone to take the test by calling 1-800-GMAT-4ACW. Specific testing locations and additional information may be found on the web site at <http://www.gmat.org>.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International students follow the usual procedure for admission with these exceptions:

1. Transcripts must first be submitted to World Education Services (P.O. Box 745, Old Chelsea Station, New York, NY 10113-0745) for a course by course evaluation before being mailed to the Graduate Business Director of Admissions.

2. TOEFL score of at least 500 must be submitted unless English is the native language.

3. A Gardner-Webb University form, Statement of Financial Responsibility, must be completed, signed, and accompanied by a letter from the student's or sponsor's bank showing amount to cover one year of graduate study.

4. Once the student's file is completed and an admissions decision has been made, the Graduate Business Director of Admissions will send the student an I-20 Form, enabling the student to apply for a visa.

TYPES OF ENROLLMENT STATUS

Enrollment for graduate study in business is granted in the following categories.

FULL ADMISSION

An applicant who meets all of the formal requirements for admission to the MBA, MAcc, or IMBA degree program is granted full admission. These requirements include the following:

1. Graduate from a regionally accredited institution of higher education with a bachelor's degree.

2. Complete undergraduate course prerequisites or equivalents with a "C" or better.

Persons who have not completed requirement number 2 may be given applicant admission, and after satisfactorily completing the foundation studies at Gardner-Webb University or elsewhere will be granted full admission (see Undergraduate Foundation Studies, page 94).

3. Present a minimum cumulative undergraduate grade point average (GPA) of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale for MBA and IMBA Programs and 2.7 on a 4.0 scale for MAcc Program, on all undergraduate coursework completed and a satisfactory Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT) score. The GMAT must be taken by the fifth hour of course study.

4. Be recommended by three evaluators.

PROVISIONAL ADMISSION

An applicant who does not meet the formal requirements or standards for full admission may be granted provisional admission. A student admitted with provisional status must meet any condition attached to his/her admission before being granted full admission. Deficiencies may include lack of undergraduate foundation studies, low test scores, or low undergraduate grade point average.

For students admitted provisionally due to undergraduate course prerequisite deficiencies, Gardner-Webb University generally offers undergraduate foundation courses in Accounting, Microeconomics, and Statistics at various times throughout the year. An individual having foundation deficiencies may not enroll in any of the programs' courses until all deficiencies have been removed.

A student with low test scores or a low undergraduate grade point average may be asked to take two core courses over the next two semesters following application. The student's progress will be monitored and the student will be granted full admission status if the student receives an "A" or "B" in both courses. The student will be barred from continuation in any of the programs with a grade lower than a "D" in either of these courses. No student may be admitted to any of the programs who has a grade point average lower than a 2.25 on all college work attempted or the last sixty-four hours of undergraduate work attempted.

APPLICANT

An applicant to any of the programs may be granted permission to register for one semester of course work prior to the completion of the admission procedure. Credit earned will be considered graduate level work but may not be counted toward any of the degree programs at Gardner-Webb University until the student meets admissions criteria when all credentials are assessed. All supporting documentation must be submitted and assessed in order for the student to register for a second term of course work.

SPECIAL STUDENT

A student entering any of the programs to take courses for professional or career enhancement as a non-degree seeking student is granted special admission. A maximum of six semester hours of credit may be earned as a Special Student and applied toward any of the degree programs at Gardner-Webb University.

TRANSIENT STUDENT

Transient status is assigned to an applicant from another recognized graduate institution who desires enrollment at Gardner-Webb University to take courses for transfer to the institution in which he or she is enrolled as a degree candidate. A transient student must submit an application for admission and a letter from the director or dean of the MBA or MAcc program in which he or she is regularly enrolled indicating good standing.

TRANSFER OF COURSES FOR GRADUATE CREDIT

With the approval of the major coordinator, a maximum of six semester hours may be accepted from a regionally accredited MBA, IMBA, or MAcc program toward the fulfillment of requirements for the MBA, IMBA, or MAcc degree at Gardner-Webb University. Credit will not be given for courses taken more than six calendar years before applying for admission to graduate study. Only courses with a grade of "B" or "A" will be considered for transfer and must be substantially parallel to Gardner-Webb University courses. Credit will not be given for courses taken to obtain another master's degree. Students currently enrolled in the any of the programs at Gardner-Webb University must have prior written approval to take courses from another institution for transfer credit.

Courses accepted in transfer admission are recorded as credit only; grades are recorded on a transfer evaluation form, but no grade points or grade point averages are computed. The grade point average used for administering policy and for graduation is computed on academic credit earned at Gardner-Webb University. The Registrar interprets the transfer policy and certifies students for graduation.

The primary purpose of the transfer credits policy is to grant incoming students credit for work previously completed. Students are expected to take the appropriate courses offered by Gardner-Webb University once they enter the program. Permission is granted to take courses offered by other institutions when the appropriate course is not offered by Gardner-Webb University or when it is more convenient for the University to approve a course for transfer than to offer the course by special arrangement.

Second undergraduate students at Gardner-Webb University may be permitted, under special circumstances, to register for graduate courses with the permission of the Dean of the Graduate School of Business. Graduate level courses may not be counted toward both the bachelor's and master's degree.

READMISSION OF FORMER STUDENTS

Any student who does not register for three consecutive terms (the two summer sessions count as one term) must apply for readmission before resuming graduate work. The Graduate Business office keeps inactive files for a year after which students applying for readmission must submit all new application materials including transcripts and letters of recommendation, GMAT score and interview. The student will be notified by the Graduate Business office of their new status. No application fee is charged for readmission.

TIME LIMITS

Students have a time limit of six (6) calendar years to complete their degree from the beginning of the term in which they are initially accepted.

PROGRAMS

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (MBA)

Gardner-Webb University is committed to providing a program of study that clearly gives its MBA graduates an advantage when competing among others in today's dynamic business environment.

The University's 36-semester-hour course of study is structured to provide students with a working knowledge of business and the managerial skills needed for successful departmental, divisional, and organizational leadership. Students who begin in August and successfully complete two courses each fall, spring, and summer will graduate at the end of their second summer of study, two years after beginning the program. Courses are offered during evening hours.

Visitors to the University are welcome at all times; administrative offices are open Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. until 5 p.m. For more information, please call the Graduate Business Director of Admissions (704) 406-3968 or (704) 406-4489 or (800) 487-4622.

The MBA is recognized as the professional graduate degree designed to enhance effectiveness in upper-level managerial positions in a business setting. Many persons having career goals in non-profit settings also pursue the MBA degree. Graduate study in business not only helps individuals meet their goals of career development and personal growth but also contributes to their enhanced appreciation of the private enterprise market system.

PURPOSE

Effective managerial behavior depends on the knowledge and skills used in decision-making. A successful administrator not only must know about his/her own professional area, but he/she also must have considerable understanding of the professional areas of others. Students in the MBA program are expected to develop a working knowledge of accounting, finance, human relations and behavior, economics, marketing, production, business law and international business.

The applied nature of the MBA program provides training in management through the use of practical techniques that can readily be utilized by the students in their existing positions. Students learn to be innovative in their approaches to solving problems and making decisions. The program offers a unique opportunity to study with others who have similar interests and learn from others who have had varying work experiences.

The Master of Business Administration Program was developed to meet the following objectives:

- Prepare individuals for careers in business administration with advanced training in specific areas built on a broad understanding of business and its environment, both domestic and global.
- Provide individuals with the opportunity of gaining professional knowledge to attain their personal and career goals.
- Integrate business experience with current theories of management and explore new business concepts in various fields of the real world.
- Provide practical techniques to analyze alternative solutions to business problems involving economic, social, legal, political, and ethical factors.
- Develop practical skills for meeting the challenges of changing technology and managerial innovations.

THE CURRICULUM

Today, managers need skills in analysis, problem solving, interaction, and communication. Approaches to problem solving are stressed throughout the program through the use of practical applications of academic concepts and theories. Students learn to be innovative in their approaches to problem solving through assignments requiring teamwork, communication skills and computer applications.

The Program is structured, having 36 semester credit hours of graduate level studies with 30 hours in the core and six hours of electives. Each course is three credit hours.

PROGRAM GUIDELINES

All undergraduate course information deficiencies must be made up prior to enrolling in MBA courses.

■ BADM600, BADM610, BADM625 should be scheduled early in the program.

■ Electives should be scheduled in the latter stages of the program.

■ Strategic Management, BADM690, should culminate the program. A minimum of 24 hours of MBA core courses that include BADM 600, BADM 610, BADM 620, and BADM 630 are required prior to enrollment. A student receiving a final grade of less than "B" must repeat the course.

MASTER OF ACCOUNTANCY (MAcc)

The Master of Accountancy (MAcc) Program offered by the Graduate School of Business at Gardner-Webb University is structured to prepare students for the significant changes that are impacting the accounting profession. The MAcc is recognized as the professional graduate degree designed to enhance effectiveness in upper-level accounting and financial positions in public accounting, private industry or government.

The flexibility of the MAcc degree provides for the creation of several career-specific degree tracks. Among the degree tracks available are general accounting and taxation. While some tracks are accomplished primarily through selected accounting course work, other tracks require selection of complementary graduate business (non-accounting) courses. Courses are offered only in the evenings, to accommodate working professionals.

PURPOSE

Today's global business environment is dynamic. There are significant challenges facing accountants. Today's accountant is expected to know more and do more than ever before. It is not enough to know accounting rules and regulations. To be successful in providing value to employers and clients alike, today's accountants must demonstrate a combination of technical competence, oral and written communication skills, analytical problem-solving skills, technology skills and people skills. The intensive, applied nature of this MAcc Program provides training in an accounting through the use of practical techniques that can readily be utilized by the students in their existing positions. The program will also provide students with an educational experience to meet the North Carolina State Board of Public Accountancy's new 150-hour requirement to obtain the Uniform Certified Public Accounting Examination.

The program is designed to meet the following objectives:

- Prepare individuals for careers in accounting with advanced training in specific areas built on a broad understanding of accounting and the business environment.
- Provide individuals with the opportunity of gaining advanced knowledge in accounting to enhance success in completing certifying examinations needed for designations, such as Certified Public Accountant, Certified Management Accountant or Certified Internal Auditor.
- Integrate business experience with current accounting theory to enhance individual performance beyond the entry/certification stage in their professional careers.
- Provide techniques to analyze alternative solutions to accounting and business problems involving economic, social, legal, political and ethical factors.
- Develop techniques to meet the challenges of changing technology and today's global accounting dynamics.

MAcc DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

The program requires a minimum of thirty semester credit hours of graduate studies. Twelve hours in the required core, six accounting elective hours and twelve graduate business elective hours. A student may take the six accounting elective hours by selecting four among courses in the general accounting track or by selecting from among courses in the tax accounting track. Each course is three semester credit hours. Combining the six hours in the tax accounting track with the three hours of the Federal Income Tax course in the core provides students with a tax accounting emphasis.

BUSINESS ELECTIVES (12 HOURS)

The elective courses are chosen from the large number of Master of Business Administration (MBA) and International Master of Business Administration (IMBA) courses. These courses allow the students to address functional weaknesses or pursue additional specialization. For example, a student could take a group of courses related to health care management or banking and finance or international business. Students with no Baccalaureate degree in accounting are encouraged to take more accounting electives in place of the business electives.

INTERNATIONAL MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (IMBA)

The International Master of Business Administration (IMBA) Program offered by the Graduate School of Business at Oakland-Webb University is structured to provide a strong academic foundation in international business through a comparative approach to global business. The IMBA is recognized as the professional graduate degree designed to enhance effectiveness and provide comprehensive knowledge and skills involved in managing international profit and nonprofit organizations.

The thirty-six credit hour curriculum includes eighteen hours of graduate international business courses, twelve hours of required general Master of Business Administration (MBA) core courses and six hours of electives from the Graduate School of Business offerings. The two-year outline of courses has a logical sequence progressing from required courses of international business, international marketing, international finance, international trade law, corporate and cross-cultural communication, seminar in international trade to courses in the major emphasis area.

PURPOSE

The global competitive market is continuously changing as we move toward the next century. The magnitude and speed of the changes and their strategic implications for firms, irrespective of location or product/service is unprecedented. The aggregate impact of these changes and the competitive responses of individual firms on individual country and regional economies is equally powerful. To be an effective global manager, one must be equipped with the necessary tools for the challenges ahead. The IMBA program at the Graduate School of Business offers a cutting-edge graduate international business education that prepares students for these challenges. The intensive, applied nature of this IMBA program provides training in international business through the use of practical techniques, foreign country experience and other important tools that can readily be utilized by the students in their existing positions.

The program is designed to meet the following objectives:

- Prepare individuals for careers in international business with advanced training in specific areas built on a broad understanding of international business environment
- Prepare individuals with the opportunity of gaining cultural understanding with direct experience in a specific country or region of the world
- Provide practical techniques to analyze alternative solutions to business problems involving economic, social, legal, political, and ethical factors affecting international business
- Integrate business experience with current theories of management and explore new business concepts in various fields of the real world
- Prepare individuals with the opportunity of gaining excellence in service/customer contact, replacing a traditional internal, organizational perspective.
- Provide individuals with an overall global orientation through the development of practical skills for meeting the challenges of changing global technology and managerial innovations.

IMBA DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

The program requires a minimum of thirty-six semester credit hours of graduate studies: Eighteen hours of graduate international business courses, twelve hours of required MBA core courses and six hours of electives from the Graduate School of Business offerings. Each course is three semester credit hours. Students with an MBA degree seeking IMBA degree must take all courses listed with INTL, BADM 638 and any other elective from the MAcc or MBA programs. A minimum of thirty graduate semester hours must be earned in this program for those students with an MBA degree only.

In addition, the Macc Program requires:

■ Intermediate Accounting	2 semesters
■ Auditing	1 semester
■ Advanced Accounting	1 semester
■ Cost Accounting	1 semester
■ Individual Income Tax	1 semester

Persons who have not completed these requirements may be given applicant status and after satisfactorily completing business foundation deficiencies at Charleston-Wilds University or elsewhere may be granted full admission.

BUSINESS AND ACCOUNTING FOUNDATION COURSES

WHAT ARE BUSINESS AND ACCOUNTING FOUNDATION COURSES?

Business and Accounting Foundation Courses are designed to meet the needs of Master of Business Administration (MBA) and Master of Accounting (MAcc) students who are deficient in one or more of the business or accounting courses required for admission into the programs. They are integrative and taught as accelerated courses. These courses are usually offered on Saturdays and have also been offered on weekdays based on demand. When offered on Saturdays, classes meet from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. for five Saturdays. Upon completion of any of these courses, a grade of "P" for PASS or "F" for FAIL is assigned to the student depending on his or her performance in the course. A student who receives a grade of "F" earns a three-hour credit.

WHY A FOUNDATION COURSE?

It provides a student the opportunity to enroll immediately into the program and helps the student to move from a provisional status to full admission status upon successful completion of the course(s). It also provides that student the avenue of sampling quality instruction before actually enrolling for the full course of study.

WHO NEEDS A FOUNDATION COURSE?

Any student who is deficient in the follow courses:

- Principles of Accounting I and II
- Financial Analysis
- Principles of Economics I and II
- Statistical Analysis
- Management Information System

The courses - Principles of Accounting I and II, and Financial Analysis are combined as Foundation I. The last three courses - Principles of Economics I and II, Statistics and Management Information System represent Foundation II for MBA Program only. The MAcc Program requires in addition, Intermediate Accounting I and II, represent Accounting Foundations I and the other areas of Accounting represent Accounting Foundations II.

THE M. CHRISTOPHER WHITE SCHOOL OF DIVINITY

Stretching the Mind, Stirring the Heart, Serving the Church

INTRODUCTION TO THE SCHOOL OF DIVINITY

On October 22, 1992, the Board of Trustees unanimously approved the establishment of the Gardner-Webb University Divinity School, believing that such an action was an appropriate response for Gardner-Webb University given the needs of the denomination, the changes in theological education, the heritage of the University, and the strength of the University's support. On October 23, 1998, the University's Board of Trustees named the School the M. Christopher White School of Divinity in honor of the University's president.

The School of Divinity, one of four schools offering graduate degrees within the academic program of Gardner-Webb University, has close ties to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship.

SCHOOL OF DIVINITY PURPOSE

The School of Divinity is an academic unit of Gardner-Webb University is Baptist in origin and commitment, evangelical in outlook, and has as its purpose the preparation of persons for Christian ministries. To achieve this end, the School of Divinity offers courses of study in which, under the leadership of dedicated and competent teachers, students engage in the study of and reflection upon the ideas, meaning, and implications of the Christian faith, beginning as its biblical base, move into thoughtful and critical assessments of church history and theology, become involved in the process of spiritual formation personally, socially, and vocationally, and participate in the study and practice of various expressions of Christian mission and ministry.

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

The M. Christopher White School of Divinity at Gardner-Webb University is founded upon the affirmation of ultimate commitment and loyalty to the God disclosed most fully and completely in the person and work of Jesus Christ. The School of Divinity stands in the mainstream of the Baptist tradition within Christian heritage. The hallmark of Baptist faith commitment is the centrality and authority of the Bible in matters of faith.

The faculty of the M. Christopher White School of Divinity affirms the centrality of the Bible to the mission of the School by the symbolic placement of a commemorative copy of the sacred Scriptures in the School with the names of all faculty inscribed therein. In so doing, the faculty bears witness to their commitment that the Scriptures constitute the final authority in matters of faith.

GLOBAL MISSIONS RESOURCE CENTER

The Global Missions Resource Center stands ready to assist students and local churches in the areas of mission education and mission opportunities. The Resource Center works in conjunction with the M. Christopher White School of Divinity to encourage a sense of Global Awareness as students begin to serve as Christ's ambassadors locally and abroad.

CENTER FOR CONGREGATIONAL ENRICHMENT

In 1999 the University launched the Center for Congregational Enrichment as an auxiliary of the School of Divinity. The Center's purpose is to address the need for competent leadership in the local church by providing quality religious educational opportunities for laity and continuing education for clergy who are not enrolled as degree-seeking students in the School of Divinity. The Center offers classes, seminars, and conferences on the Gardner-Whit University campus and at various off-campus sites.

THE C.O. AND ELIZA GREENE LECTURESHIP

The C.O. and Eliza Greene Endowed Lectureship was established in 1993 in honor of the Reverend and Mrs. C.O. Greene of Lenoir, North Carolina. The Reverend Greene served for approximately fourteen years as Director of Missions for the Kings Mountain Baptist Association. Prior to that ministry, he served as pastor of four churches in Cleveland County and of two other churches in North Carolina. The lectureship, administered by the School's Center for Congregational Enrichment and funded by family members, friends, and members of churches where the Reverend Greene served as pastor, was established to preserve the legacy of excellence in pastoral ministry which characterized his ministry. The lectureship addresses various dimensions of pastoral ministry.

CHAPELAND FORMATIONS

Chapel is provided by faculty, students, and staff working together to plan regular worship experiences. Formations is a small group worship experience led by each student's faculty mentor in conjunction with spiritual formation (DSOF) classes. As the name Formations suggests, relevant issues of spiritual formation are addressed.

BIBLELAND STUDY

Believing that travel and study in the lands of Israel, Greece and Turkey greatly enhance the study and future ministry of School of Divinity students, the University provides substantial financial support for qualified students to participate. For details contact the Dean of the School of Divinity.

FOREIGN MISSIONS OPPORTUNITY

A goal of the School of Divinity is to assist each student with an opportunity to participate in an international missionary experience under the leadership of qualified supervisors. In order to facilitate these experiences the School of Divinity is establishing formal relationships with Baptist seminaries around the world. An example is the Theological Seminary Union of Evangelical Christian and Baptist Churches of Estonia, Tartu, Estonia.

THE SCHOOL OF DIVINITY SETTING

Students in the School of Divinity will find that the University setting affords them many advantages such as NCAA Division I athletic events, concerts and dramatic productions. In addition, the University sponsors the Concert of Prayer and the Staley Lecture Series.

Recreational facilities including the Suttle Wellness Center, weight room, indoor and outdoor jogging tracks, basketball courts, tennis courts, racquetball courts, and swimming pool are open to all School of Divinity students. Admission to University athletic and cultural events is provided through student identification cards.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

All students who are enrolled in graduate studies in the School of Divinity at Gardner-Webb University are members of the Student Association. The mission of the Student Association is to work in cooperation with the faculty and administration of the School of Divinity of Gardner-Webb University to develop and promote excellence in ministry education, innovation, and peer setting leadership in the Christian community in which all these students serve.

DEGREE PROGRAMS AND ACADEMIC INFORMATION

MASTER OF DIVINITY, PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Master of Divinity, a three-year course of study, is recognized by The Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (ATS) as the basic professional degree. The theological education associated with this degree has service to the church as its central focus. Predicated on the assumption that ministers in the church should share a common theological substructure irrespective of their particular calling, the School of Divinity offers the Master of Divinity degree (M.Div.) in five concentrations, each sharing a common 50-hour core comprised of biblical studies, historical/theological studies, spiritual formation, and ministry studies. Beyond the core, students may choose, by means of a 10-hour concentration, to earn the M.Div. degree with a concentration in Pastoral Studies, Christian Education, Pastoral Care and Counseling, or Missiology.

Emphasizing theological reflection and ministerial formation, this course of study is designed to provide men and women with a comprehensive, in-depth knowledge of the body of divinity and to help ministers develop the skills necessary for effective ministry. "Real world" ministry situations, surfaced by the students themselves, serve as catalyst for theological reflection in interdisciplinary courses, team-taught seminars, and spiritual formation experiences.

Moreover, not only does the curriculum seek to bridge the gap between "theory" and "practice" in ministry, but also to help the students to synthesize and integrate the theological content of the various disciplines of the body of divinity.

The School of Divinity's "Be, Know and Do Statements," encapsulated in the M.Div. "Program Objectives" (see page 111), is the guiding document around which the curriculum is built.

CORE CURRICULUM

The M.Div. core curriculum is designed to be integrative, inductive, and transformative, seeking to move beyond the artificial dichotomy between "theory" and "practice" that has often characterized theological education; the curriculum requires students to reflect theologically on the practice of ministry while they are actually engaged in ministry. The common core of diversity means that every student, irrespective of his/her ultimate vocational ministry, will share the same biblical/theological substructure for ministry, thus making "shared ministry" and "pastoral ministry" less an ideal and more a reality. Moreover, such an approach fosters a genuine appreciation for ministerial diversity and the rich variety of the ministries of the church.

A guiding principle behind the core curriculum is that effective ministry is not simply a function of what the minister knows, or even what the minister does, but must also include what the minister is, both personally and vocationally.

Assessment of who students "are," what students "know," and what students can "do" is informed by pre- and post-tests, specific assignments and assessment interviews/discussions associated with the following core courses:

- Introduction to Theological Education for Ministry (to be taken during first year of study)
- Spiritual Formation: The Christian Journey
- Old Testament
- New Testament
- Christian History
- Christian Theology
- Administration and Leadership in the Church
- Ethics
- Introduction to Preaching
- Introduction to Worship in the Church
- Ministry and Evangelization
- Introduction to Pastoral Care and Counseling
- Theological Integration Seminar

CONCENTRATIONS

Beyond the 60-hour core, students must choose one of four concentrations each requiring a further 30 hours: Pastoral Studies, Christian Education, Pastoral Care and Counseling, or Missiology; or in place of a concentration the student may pursue one of two dual degree programs – the M.Div./M.A. or the M.Div./M.A. in English.

MINISTERIAL FORMATION

Recognizing the importance of ministerial formation, each student's progress is tracked throughout his or her divinity school experience. Evidence of movement toward maturity in spiritual and ministerial formation is gathered into a student portfolio. Such vehicles as the Profiles of Ministry Instrument, Stage I, Annual Capstone Conference, Formations small group experience, Assessment Interviews and a Capstone Conference each emphasize that genuine spiritual formation involves healthy relationships toward self, others, the material world, and God.

Chapel and Formations are required of all students in first core spiritual formation classes: Introduction to Theological Education for Ministry (D6SF100), Spiritual Formation: The Christian Journey (D6SF200), Theological Integration Seminar I (D6SF300) and Theological Integration Seminar II (D6SF301). Finally, students, and staff work together, plan, lead and participate in Chapel worship experiences concurrently with their respective spiritual formation classes.

A small group Formations experience is led by each student's faculty mentor (and by the instructor of the DSSF100 night class) in conjunction with all spiritual formation classes. As the name Formations suggests, relative issues of ministerial formation are addressed. The five topics addressed in Formations include:

- What it means to bear the name Christian
- What is the primary focus of worship
- What is personal and ministerial integrity
- What are the sustaining spiritual disciplines
- What are appropriate outlets for managing ministerial stress

In consultation with the faculty mentor the student selects for inclusion in the Student Portfolio three to five examples of his/her best work done at various junctures during the course of study. Anecdotal items such as journal entries or faculty comments may also be included in the portfolio. A Ministry Formation Notation, should one be given, may likewise be placed in the Student Portfolio any time a matter of ministerial formation should be noted by a faculty member. These items become discussion points at Spring Meeting Conferences, the Assessment Interview and the Capstone Conference. The portfolio becomes the property of the School of Divinity for a period not to exceed ten years, with a copy provided to the student at the student's request.

SUPERVISED MINISTRY EXPERIENCE

Students will also participate in an approved Supervised Ministry Experience (SME). During two consecutive semesters of his/her M.Div. degree program, each student will serve in a ministry position, either volunteer or paid, which will involve the student in significant leadership opportunities requiring responsibility in planning, administering, leading, and evaluating.

These two semesters of SME will be taken in conjunction with the two-semester course Theological Imagination Seminars I & II (TIS I & II) in which each student will serve a minimum of 10 hours weekly in the ministry placements. Proposed SME placements must be approved by the Associate Dean of the School of Divinity who administers the program and oversees student progress in a ministry setting.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The program objectives for the Master of Divinity degree are to help students know at a rudimentary level the basic body of divinity including:

- a knowledge of the facts, histories, principles, philosophies, and current discussions in each of the following disciplines: biblical studies, biblical languages, Christian and Baptist history, hermeneutics, iconoclasm, ethics, philosophy of religion, eschatology, evangelism, worship, pastoral ministry, pedagogy, church administration, church policy and denominational organization, psychology, counseling, anthropology, and sociology;
- a grasp of the various aspects of ministry and how these relate to the needs of church and society;
- an understanding of personal gifts, talents, and abilities, and how these relate to ministry;

- a commitment to personal growth and development;
- the development of a lifestyle of healthy ministry and continuing educational preparation for effective Christian ministry;
- an understanding and development of expertise in leadership skills, organizational principles, and conflict management;
- an evaluation and improvement of interpersonal skills; and
- the ability to write and speak with clarity and persuasiveness.

ADMISSIONS

REQUIREMENTS FOR FULL ADMISSION

1. A baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university. Applicants are expected to have had broad baccalaureate preparation including studies in world history, philosophy, languages and literature, the natural sciences, the social sciences, the fine arts, and religion. In cases where the applicant's undergraduate preparation is deemed deficient, additional baccalaureate work may be required for full admission.

2. A grade point average (GPA) of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale in baccalaureate work. (See note to Provisional Admission pg. 98)

3. A stated and demonstrated commitment to ministry.

CRITERIA FOR ADMISSION

Applicants for admission are evaluated on:

- academic attainment
- writing skills
- promise for ministry
- vocational clarity and commitment.

PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION

1. Request application materials from the School of Divinity.

2. Submit a completed Application for Admission with a $25 non-refundable application fee to the Director of Admissions, School of Divinity, Campus Box 7127, Gardner-Webb University, Boiling Springs, NC 28013.

3. Request that official transcripts of all previous baccalaureate and any graduate-level work be sent directly to the School of Divinity.

4. Submit three recommendations from persons who know the applicant well. These recommendations should be submitted on the reference forms provided by the School of Divinity. One recommendation must be completed by a professor in the student's major area. The remaining two recommendations should reflect either personal or professional relationships.

5. Submit a completed Church Approval Form. The form must come from the church where the applicant is a member in good standing.

6. Submit a completed Immigration History Form.

7. Students for whom English is a second language must take the TOEFL examination. The minimum acceptable score is 550 on the paper-based test.

Applicants will be considered for admission when the above mentioned conditions have been met. All applicants are strongly urged to come for a visit and interview prior to final admission. Arrangements can be made through the office of the Director of Admissions for the School of Divinity.

ACCEPTANCE OF ADMISSION

Upon notification of admission to the School of Divinity, applicants must confirm their intention to attend by means of a $150 non-refundable deposit. Upon enrollment, the deposit will be credited to the applicant's account as partial payment.

Types of Admission

FULL ADMISSION

To be considered for Full Admission, an applicant must complete the requirements as outlined under "Procedure for Admission" found on page 112. Final decisions regarding admission will be made by the Admissions Committee. The applicant's file should be completed a minimum of 30 days prior to registration.

PROVISIONAL ADMISSION

In some cases as determined on an individual basis, Provisional Admission may be granted:

- when the baccalaureate degree has not yet been granted but the applicant is within six hours of completion;
- when the student does not come from a regionally accredited college or university;
- in cases of academic deficiency (less than 2.5 GPA on Bachelor's work) when the applicant gives other indications of ability (see note);
- when the process for Full Admission has not been completed prior to the beginning of the term, but information sufficient to support the applicant's request for admission has been received; or
- when an application is deemed marginal based on the criteria for admission listed on page 112.

At the end of the first semester of enrollment, the Admissions Committee will review the status of all individuals admitted provisionally and will (1) grant full admission to the degree program, (2) maintain the student in provisional status for one additional semester, or (3) terminate student status.

Note: Applicants whose undergraduate cumulative GPA is less than 2.5, may be asked to take either the Graduate Record Examination or the Miller Analogies Test to determine their readiness for graduate study. Students may be required to do remedial work in areas where they are deemed deficient.

Special/Transient/Other

Individuals who wish to take courses for credit but who do not choose to pursue a degree may apply for Special Status.

APPLICANTS FOR SPECIAL STATUS

* Special status may be granted for only one semester. Individuals accepted as Special Students must pay full tuition. Both grades and credit will be recorded on the student's transcript. Students seeking "Special Status" must:

1. complete an application form and submit it with the application fee;
2. submit an official transcript of the last degree earned; and
3. submit an Examination History form if taking 4 or more hours.

APPLICANTS FOR TRANSFER STATUS

Students enrolled in other recognized graduate institutions who wish to take courses for transfer of credit to their home institutions may apply for Transfer Status. Applicants for Transfer Status must:

1. submit an application for admission;
2. pay the application fee; and
3. submit a letter from the dean or director of the program in which the applicant is regularly enrolled indicating good standing.

APPLICANTS FOR OTHER STATUS

Students enrolled in Gardner-Whit University's undergraduate program or another graduate program may apply for Other Status. Students applying for Other Status must:

1. secure written approval from the student's academic advisor;
2. secure written approval from the Dean or the Associate Dean of the School of Divinity; and
3. return written approvals to the student's academic advisor and complete the registration process specific to the program in which the student is enrolled.

APPLICANTS TO AUDIT

Individuals who wish to audit classes in the School of Divinity must:

1. contact the Director of Admissions;
2. complete the Application for Admission to Audit;
3. pay a fee of $500 per course; and
4. meet requirements for auditors established by the professor of the course.

Permission to audit classes is subject to space availability.

READMISSION OF FORMER STUDENTS

Students who are not in attendance for one or more semesters or who withdraw during a semester for any reason must submit an application for readmission. No application fee is required. An exception will be made for students enrolled in dual degree programs (M.Div./MBA, M.Div./MA) in which they are working on the non-M.Div. portion of the degree.

Those seeking readmission after having not attended for as long as one calendar year will be required to follow degree requirements currently in effect.

The Admissions Committee is responsible for reviewing, evaluating, and acting on all applications for admission to degree programs offered by the School of Divinity. The committee is comprised of the Director of Admissions, one of the School of Divinity deans and a faculty member.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International students holding baccalaureate degrees from regionally accredited colleges or universities within the United States will follow the procedure for admission listed on page 112.

International students holding degrees from institutions outside the United States will follow the usual procedure for admission with these additions:

1. Applicants must submit their transcripts to the World Evaluation Service (P.O. Box 745, Old Chelsea Station, New York, NY 10113-0745) for evaluation before they mail them to the School of Divinity.

2. The U.S. Department of Justice form, "Affidavit of Support," must be completed, signed, and accompanied by a letter from the student's or sponsor's bank indicating sufficient funds to support one year of graduate study. A copy of this form is available from the School of Divinity.

3. Once the applicant's file is completed and an admission decision has been made, an I-20 Form will be sent, enabling the student to apply for a visa.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS

A minimum of thirty-six (36) hours of credit toward the M.Div. degree must be earned in the School of Divinity at Gordon-Wells University. These hours are exclusive of any hours gained through testing for Credit by Examination. The final twenty-four (24) hours must be earned consecutively at Gordon-Wells University unless the student obtains permission from the Dean of the School of Divinity.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Graduate-level credits earned in institutions accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada, regional accreditation associations and/or recognized specialized agencies may be considered for transfer credit toward degree programs of students enrolled in the M.Div. program of the School of Divinity at Gordon-Wells University. A request for a transcript evaluation must be submitted to the office of the Dean of the School of Divinity for adjudication. Each course considered for transfer is required to have a grade of at least C (2.0 on a 4.0 scale) and must be substantially parallel to a School of Divinity requirement. All other requests for transfer of credit must be approved by the faculty of the School of Divinity. Graduate-level credits earned at institutions outside the United States and Canada will be evaluated on an individual basis. The evaluation will take into account the institution where the work was taken, the level of the work, and the grades earned.

REPEATING COURSES

Only courses with a grade of "D," "F" or "WF" may be repeated and then only once. When a course is repeated at the School of Divinity, only the higher grade is counted in computing the student's overall grade point average, although the lower grade remains on the official transcript.

CREDIT BY EXAMINATION

Applicants holding a baccalaureate degree or the equivalent from a regionally accredited college or university may be granted up to fifteen hours of Credit by Examination toward their Master of Divinity degree. Requirements for Credit by Examination are:

1. Credit by Examination will be determined by a standardized examination in each course requested. The Associate Dean's office administers all exams. (Examinations are currently available in the following areas: Greek and Hebrew, Christian History, Old Testament, New Testament.)

2. The applicant must (a) have completed an undergraduate course in the discipline attaining a minimum 3.0 on a 4.0 scale, (b) make a written request to the Associate Dean for an examination and (c) score a minimum of 75% on the objective part of the exam and complete satisfactorily a written essay component.

3. The request and examination must provide the applicant's enrollment in subject areas where consideration for Credit by Examination is requested.
4. In no case will Credit by Examination be awarded during the student's final semester.
5. After successful completion of the examination(s), a fee of $150 per course, accompanied by a memo from the School of Divinity Dean's office to the Registrar, must be paid to the Business Office before course credit will be given.

COURSE BY ARRANGEMENT/INDEPENDENT STUDY

Courses within both the core curriculum and selected concentrations are scheduled on a rotating basis and in such a manner that students may graduate within three years (two fall and spring semesters consecutively) of study. All courses offered by the School of Divinity are found within the current catalog.

A Course by Arrangement is a course found in the current catalog but which is not being offered in the published schedule during the semester in question. A course of Independent Study is a course not found in the current catalog but which a student seeks permission to take.

Course by Arrangement

Courses by Arrangement are not encouraged and may occur only due to exceptional circumstances when the following criteria are met:

1. The course being requested must be in the current catalog but not found in the currently published schedule.
2. The request must be made in writing to the Dean.
3. If the request is approved, the Dean will enlist a faculty member for the course.

Independent Study

Independent Studies are not encouraged and may occur only due to exceptional circumstances when the following criteria are met:

1. The course being requested is not found in the current catalog.
2. The request must be made in writing to the Dean.
3. If the request is approved, the Dean will enlist a faculty member for the course.

ACADEMIC APPEALS

A student who experiences a problem concerning a grade or any other aspect of a course, including issues relating to but not limited to academic dishonesty, should first discuss the matter with the professor. If the problem is not resolved, the student should go next to the Associate Dean of the School of Divinity. If the student or the professor is not satisfied with the decision of the Associate Dean, either party may take the matter to the Appeals Committee whose decision is final.

The Appeals Committee consists of the Dean of the School of Divinity, who serves as chair, and two School of Divinity faculty members.

To initiate an appeal, the dissatisfied party should address a letter to the Dean of the School of Divinity, stating the reason for the appeal and explaining the circumstances. The Dean will convene the Appeals Committee. If the student or the professor is asked to appear before the committee, he or she at that time may bring a representative from within the University to act as counsel. The deadline for an academic dishonesty appeal is seven days after the date of the decision being appealed. The deadline for other types of academic appeals (except for grade appeals) is eighteen months after the date of the decision being appealed. Grade appeals must be completed prior to the last day of the following semester. Grade appeals relating to courses taken during the summer must be made prior to the last day of the following fall semester.

ACADEMIC HONESTY AND PERSONAL INTEGRITY

It is presupposed that all persons enrolling in the School of Divinity, at whatever level of admission, will exemplify a high level of Christian commitment as well as a high degree of academic and personal integrity. It is expected that this commitment will be reflected in personal relationships, academic performance, and conduct inside and outside of the classroom. A student's continuing enrollment may become the subject of a formal review if any of the above expectations are not being fulfilled. A member of the administrative staff, faculty member, or student may request a formal review and action by the Associate Dean of the School of Divinity. Upon the conclusion of the formal review, the Associate Dean may take action which may include but is not limited to: probation, suspension, counseling, etc. If any party to the review, student, faculty, or administrator, is not satisfied with the decision of the Associate Dean, he or she may request a hearing by the Appeals Committee, whose decision is final.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Students must meet the above requirements and have maintained a grade point average of 2.00 or better on a 4.00 scale.

TIME LIMITS

The maximum time for completion of the M.Div. degree is three years. The maximum time allowed for completion is six years from the date of first enrollment. Beyond the six-year time limit, students may petition the faculty for an extension of time.

STYLE GUIDE FOR WRITING ASSIGNMENTS

The SEB Handbook of Style for Ancient Near Eastern, Biblical, and Early Christian Studies, ed. by Patrick H. Alexander, et. al., is the official style guide of the School of Divinity. Any questions not sufficiently answered by the above should be referred to The Chicago Manual of Style or the latest edition of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations by Kate L. Turabian.

M.Div. Core	60 hrs.
TOTAL in the M.Div. in Missiology	90 hrs.

*Two of these three courses must be taken.

DUAL DEGREE PROGRAMS

MASTER OF DIVINITY/MASTER OF BUSINESS

ADMINISTRATION

The M.Div./M.B.A. program is designed to enhance the administrative skills and expertise of ministers by permitting them to earn a second degree, the M.B.A., instead of the usual M.Div. concentration. The program has three potential student populations in view: (1) the minister who desires greater expertise in business administration, (2) the church administrator in a large church, or (3) the bi-vocational minister.

Foundational courses in accounting, microeconomics, statistics, finance, and microcomputers are pre-requisite to the program. Students lacking academic preparation in these areas may take accelerated non-credit courses (Foundation of Business I and Foundation of Business II) at the University to satisfy these requirements (see the M.B.A. section of this catalog for course descriptions).

Managerial Accounting	3 hrs.
Managerial Economics	3 hrs.
Managerial Finance	3 hrs.
Marketing Management	3 hrs.
Organizational Behavior	3 hrs.
Quantitative Methods	3 hrs.

Practical Ministry Electives	3 hrs.
M.Div. Core	60 hrs.
TOTAL in the M.Div./M.B.A. Degree	108 hrs.

MASTER OF DIVINITY/MASTER OF ARTS IN ENGLISH*

The M.Div./M.A. degree is designed to enhance divinity students' literary skills by permitting them to earn a second degree, the M.A., instead of the usual M.Div. concentration. This degree provides students with a broad and rich literary context from which to do ministry and provides them with a common frame of reference with which to connect with persons of diverse cultures and background. Moreover, it provides students with enhanced critical and analytical skills with which to reflect on life and the world while providing them with additional literary models with which to understand and interpret the Scriptures.

The degree has two potential student populations in view: (1) the minister who desires greater background in the literary arts as a context for ministry, and (2) the minister who serves in a small church situation and finds it necessary to supplement church-derived income through secular employment. In the latter case an advanced degree in a non-ministerial discipline will be of significant value.

The M.Div./M.A. is housed in the School of Divinity and requires completion of the 60 hour core, 6 hours biblical studies electives, 6 hours historical/theological electives, 3 hours practical ministry electives of the M.Div. degree and the 30 hour M.A. in English degree.

Literary Criticism	3 hrs.
37 additional hours from the following:
Special Topics	3 hrs.
Seminar in Brit. Lit.	3 hrs.
Brit. Lit. Selected Masterpieces	3 hrs.

DSOT100 INTRODUCTION TO THE OLD TESTAMENT I

3 semester hours

An introductory survey of the Pentateuch and historical books of the OT Testament with attention to background, history, contents, and major themes.

DSOT101 INTRODUCTION TO THE OLD TESTAMENT II

3 semester hours

An introductory survey of the prophets and writings in the Old Testament with attention to background, history, contents, and major themes.

DSOT200 GENESIS

3 semester hours

A study of the English text of Genesis, with attention given to its composition, historical background, theological content, and hermeneutical application.

DSOT201 EXODUS

3 semester hours

A study of the English text of Exodus, with attention to composition, historical background, theological content, and hermeneutical application.

DSOT203 THE DEUTERONOMISTIC HISTORY

3 semester hours

A study of the English texts of Joshua - 2 Kings, with special attention to the role of historiography in the Old Testament canon. Historical issues will be addressed as well as the way the "history" of Israel in these texts is given interpretive force in the life of the community.

DSOT205 ISAIAH

3 semester hours

A study of the English text of Isaiah, with attention given to its composition, historical background, theological content, and hermeneutical application.

DSOT206 JEREMIAH

3 semester hours

A study of the English text of Jeremiah. The course will examine the thematic unity of the book as well as the theological and hermeneutical application of its message.

DSOT300 PSALMS

3 semester hours

A study of the English text of the Psalms, with attention to their place in Israel's worship, the specific literary genres represented in the psalter, and application of these texts to the worship and devotional life of the believing community.

DSOT301 ESTHER AND RUTH

3 semester hours

A study of the English texts of Esther and Ruth. Special attention will be devoted to the perspective these texts offer on the role of women in the Old Testament world. Theological and hermeneutical issues will be examined.

DSOT308 AMOS AND HOSEA

3 semester hours

A study of the English texts of Amos and Hosea, with attention to composition, historical background, theological content, and hermeneutical application.

DSOT310 PROPHECY AFTER THE EXILE: HAGGAI-ZECHARIAH-MALACHI

3 semester hours

This course will investigate the role of prophets and postexilic writings in the postexilic period. This course will explore postexilic prophecy by examining the writings of Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi in their historical, theological, literary, and canonical contexts. The course will have a dual focus: introductory issues and expository process. These writings will be discussed in comparison with other postexilic biblical texts to gain a clearer picture of the theological trajectories of postexilic texts with an eye toward interpreting these texts for the contexts of the contemporary church.

D80T400 OLD TESTAMENT THEOLOGY*3 semester hours*

The general purpose of this course is to provide a basic introduction to Old Testament Theology. The course will explore how theological discourse occurs when guided by the Old Testament text itself. The study will be historical and exegetical at the primary level. The exegetical work will be done with the assumption that exegesis is not complete until it is moved beyond the historical into relevant concerns of the church and the world. The enhancement of the ability to interpret and use Old Testament texts in ways that are theologically meaningful for the contemporary church is a major objective. Prerequisites: D80T 100 and D80T 101 or their equivalent.

D80T401 SELECTED TOPICS IN OLD TESTAMENT*3 semester hours*

An exegetical, historical, or theological study of a particular Old Testament writing, author, literary tradition, or theme. May be repeated if course content is different.

D80T402 HEBREW MESSIANIC THOUGHT*3 semester hours*

The purpose of this course is to examine the Hebrew concept of "messiah" from several different perspectives. An attempt will be made to identify the origins of messianic thought in Israel and to trace the development of messianism into the Christian era, noting the continuing streams of messianism in both Judaism and Christianity. Attention will be given to New Testament treatment of Old Testament texts as "messianic." Specific Old Testament texts will be examined to demonstrate various ways messianic thought originated and developed. Prerequisites: D80T 100 and D80T 101 or their equivalent.

D80T406 SCRIPTURE INTERPRETING SCRIPTURE*3 semester hours*

The course will survey the myriad ways in which some Old Testament texts shape the thought of other biblical texts. Techniques to be studied include promise-fulfillment, narrative threads across books, quotations, allusions, inter-biblical exegesis, and depictions, among others. Attention will be given to the ways in which recognition of these techniques enhances one's understanding of the transmission of scripture, the interpretation of biblical texts, and the theological affirmations of a given literary context. Prerequisites: D80T 100 or D80T 101 or their equivalent.

D80T404 OLD TESTAMENT APOCALYPTIC

3 semester hours

The course explores the development of apocalyptic writings in the context of the Old Testament canon. Attention is given to the foundational aspects of the Old Testament message which give rise to apocalyptic. Major focus is given to the body of texts which are generally identified with Old Testament apocalyptic literature. One aspect of the course will focus attention upon the origins of messianic thought as a related feature to Old Testament apocalyptic literature. Prerequisites: D80T 100 and D80T 101 or their equivalents.

D80T405 THE WISDOM LITERATURE OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

3 semester hours

This course is a study of the wisdom texts which are a part of the canon of the Old Testament. The course includes an introduction to Ancient Near Eastern wisdom writings with special attention to the texts which share features with biblical wisdom. The major focus of the course is a theological and hermeneutical exploration of the biblical books of Proverbs, Job and Ecclesiastes. Brief attention is also given to the apocryphal works which properly belong in this category of the Hebrew tradition. Prerequisites: D80T 100 and D80T 101 or their equivalents.

NEW TESTAMENT STUDIES AND GREEK

D80K100 GREEK I

3 semester hours

A study of the basics of biblical Koine Greek. In addition to learning elementary grammar, forms, and vocabulary, selected texts from the Greek New Testament will be translated.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The D.Min. degree is an advanced professional degree designed to equip persons who are committed to Christian ministry to fulfill their calling at the highest level of excellence in the practice of ministry. The program of study requires a Master of Divinity degree from an accredited theological institution and sufficient experience in ministry to insure a level of maturity appropriate to engage the intensity of the program design. The degree program identifies reflective thinking, or, more specifically, the ability to think theologically, as the primary skill essential to effective ministry. All aspects of the program build from that assumption. The degree program attempts to address ministry issues developing naturally from the global community which is the context for the 21st century church. Both by academic design and supervision elements, the degree intends to reflect the interactive, fully-involved, team-oriented nature of ministry required to address the needs of the 21st century church.

The D.Min. degree program models holistic ministry. Worship, the encounter with God and offering of self to God, provides the foundation on which all else is based. The care of the self and care for the community of faith is the natural extension of the experience of God's love and care. Effective administration of resources enables ministry to achieve its purpose and effective Christian education enhances faith development. Committed ministry engages the world, living out the Christian gospel in both the near and distant world community. Committed ministry includes dedication to life-long learning which prepares the minister to address the world with the ever-relevant word of God.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE PROGRAM

The D.Min. program operates under the guidance and administration of the Dean of the School of Divinity. Enforcement of all academic policies is at the discretion of the Dean in consultation with the Associate Deans and the Director of the D.Min. program. Instructional personnel, both adjunctive and residential, are appointed by the Dean to whom they are directly responsible.

DIRECTOR OF THE PROGRAM

The Director of the D.Min. program is responsible for the day-to-day administration of the program, and the D.Min. office is the primary communication portal for current candidates and prospective candidates.

COMPONENTS OF THE PROGRAM

The D.Min. degree is a 36-hour degree program comprised of three major components: seminars, supervision, and a ministry project.

SEMINARS

Five seminars are required of each candidate for which 18 credit hours will be earned. DSMD501 (The Ministry as Life-long Learning) is required of all students and is prerequisite to all subsequent seminars. All seminars have some impact of ministry as their primary focal point.

SUPERVISION

Each D.Min. candidate will complete a minimum of two semesters of Peer Learning Supervision (6 hrs.) under the direction of a School of Divinity appointed Field Supervisor. In lieu of one semester of Peer Learning Supervision, a candidate may substitute one basic unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE), with prior approval of the D.Min. Director. Candidates will participate in structured supervised peer-learning experiences related to their ministry.

MINISTRY PROJECT

Candidates will design, implement, and reflect upon a self-directed, original project of ministry conducted in the minister's own ministry setting (6 hrs.).

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The D.Min. degree seeks to enhance the capacity of the minister to engage in theological reflection in the real world in the service of the church. To achieve this end, the D.Min. degree will seek to lead the minister to:

- develop an appropriate biblical theology of worship and, in light of that theology, a capacity to lead effectively the community of faith in corporate worship;
- develop an appropriate pastoral theology, a level of personal, interpersonal, and spiritual awareness commensurate with mature ministry, and the requisite skills to practice pastoral care in a ministry setting;
- develop an understanding of the processes of faith development and to administer within a ministry setting effective structures and systems for the nurturing of the same;
- develop an understanding of the church, and her role in it, within a global context, and the capacity to reflect theologically on the implications of that global context for the nature and mission of the church;
- understand the ministry as a commitment to life-long learning, and to develop appropriate educational strategies within the ministry setting to realize that commitment; and
- demonstrate the ability to reflect upon the nature of one's ministry by conceptualizing and executing an original project in ministry, reflecting theologically on that project, and defending the project to a committee of faculty and other ministry professionals.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Seminars	(10 @ 2 hrs., 4 @ 4 hrs. each)	18 hrs.
Supervision	(2 sems. @ 3 hrs. each)	6 hrs.
Ministry Project		6 hrs.
Total Hours for D.Min. Degree		30 hrs.

PROGRAM COSTS

Tuition	($282 per hr. X 30 hrs.)	$8,460
R. & A. Administration Fee		$ 150
Graduation Fee		$ 80
Total		$8,690

ADDITIONAL FEE FOR EXTENSIONS

$500 (per semester)

ADMISSIONS

D.Min. applicants are required to meet admissions standards which are both general to the School of Divinity (see page 99 for "Admissions" requirements) and specific to the degree program. The processes for admission are described in detail as follows.

GENERAL ADMISSIONS CRITERIA

1. Original transcripts from all previous undergraduate and graduate study
2. Three references (one must be educational, the remaining two can be personal, professional, or educational)
3. Church recommendation form (must be filed before beginning first semester)
4. Immigration history (must meet North Carolina immigration standards)
5. $25.00 non-refundable application fee

SPECIFIC ADMISSIONS CRITERIA

1. Completion of the Master of Divinity degree (or its equivalent) from an ATS-accredited institution
2. Minimum Grade Point Average of "B" (2.75 on 4.00 scale) in Master of Divinity (or its equivalent) studies
3. Three years significant ministerial experience beyond the first graduate theological degree
4. Placement in a full-time vocational ministry setting
5. Ministry Essay

- The applicant will submit a 10-25 page double-spaced ministry essay.
- The essay should discuss the applicant's call to ministry, theology of ministry, history in ministry, goals for ministry, and how he/she believes earning the D.Min. will enrich his/her ministry.

6. Personal Interview

- Applicants deemed worthy will be invited to the M. Christopher White School of Divinity for a personal interview with the D.Min. Admissions Committee.
- At this interview the applicant will be given the opportunity to share his/her understanding of ministry and the D.Min.
- Based on the applicant's submitted materials, the D.Min. Admissions Committee will dialog with the applicant to assess his/her readiness for D.Min. study.

7. Aptitude Tests

- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL): This test is required for all candidates for whom English is a second language. The minimum acceptable score is 550 (non-computer test).
- Graduate Record Exam: Although not required of all applicants, the D.Min. Admissions Committee may request an applicant take this test to evaluate more fully his/her readiness for D.Min. studies.
- Miller Analogies Test: Although not required of all applicants, the D.Min. Admissions Committee may request an applicant take this test to evaluate his/her readiness for D.Min. studies.

PROVISIONAL ADMISSION

In some cases as determined on an individual basis, Provisional Admission may be granted when an applicant does not fully meet the criteria for admission.

At the end of the first semester of enrollment, the Admissions Committee will review the status of all individuals admitted provisionally and will (1) grant full admission to the degree program, or (2) terminate student status.

ACCEPTANCE FOR ADMISSION

1. The D.Min. Admissions Committee, consisting of the Dean or the Associate Dean of the School of Divinity, the Director of the D.Min. Program, and a faculty representative, will meet concerning each applicant. Huber readiness for D.Min. studies will be evaluated on the basis of the materials submitted and a personal interview.

2. Evaluation of applicants will be based on the following criteria:

- Academic ability;
- Theological preparation and readiness for advanced ministry studies;
- Ministerial experience and maturity; and
- Personal and professional integrity.

DEADLINES FOR ADMISSION

1. Candidates must complete the admissions criteria as listed above by sending all information to the Director of the D.Min. Program by April 1 prior to August matriculation. This ensures the applicant consideration for acceptance into the program.

2. Completed applications received after April 1 are NOT guaranteed consideration for the program.

Mailing Address:

Director of D.Min. Program
M. Christopher White School of Divinity
Gordon-Webb University
Box 7517
Boiling Springs, NC 28017

NOTIFICATION OF ADMISSION

Candidates for the D.Min. program will be notified of their admission status on or before May 15 prior to August matriculation.

ORIENTATION

Orientation to Gordon-Webb University, the M. Christopher White School of Divinity, and the degree program is required of all candidates and is a component of the first D.Min. seminar, The Ministry as Life-Long Learning.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS

Residency is required of candidates only during seminars. Currently, all D.Min. seminars are offered as on-campus experiences.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Four (4) hours of doctoral level course work can be transferred into the D.Min. program from another ATS accredited institution upon the approval of the D.Min. Director. This work can be completed prior to entering the D.Min. program or while in the D.Min. program. If a candidate plans to study at another institution during higher course of study, he/she should seek the approval of the D.Min. Director prior to matriculation at any other institution. Transfer of credit is not guaranteed.

FULL TIME STATUS

All students enrolled in the D.Min. program whose files are active are considered "full time" students. The minimum hour requirement to maintain full time status is 3 hours. There is no "part time" status in the D.Min. program.

INTERRUPTED STATUS

In special cases a candidate can petition the D.Min. Director to grant him/her interrupted status from the program. If interrupted status is granted, the time limits for completion of the degree are put on hold.

RETENTION POLICIES

All candidates are expected to maintain a GPA of 2.75. In the event that a candidate's GPA falls below a 2.75, he/she will be placed on probation until he/she is able to raise his/her GPA to 2.75.

If the candidate is unable to raise his/her GPA above 2.75 after two semesters of probation, or if it becomes mathematically impossible for he/she to improve his/her GPA above 2.75, he/she will be suspended from the D.Min. program.

APPEAL OF SUSPENSION

If a suspended candidate believes he/she has a legitimate appeal of his/her suspension, he/she may make a formal appeal to the Director of the D.Min. program. Upon request for an appeal of suspension, the D.Min. director will schedule a time for the D.Min. Admissions Committee to meet with the candidate. The candidate will be allowed to make his/her appeal to this committee. The appeal will be limited to 30 minutes. The candidate will be notified of the decision of the Committee within one week. The decision of the D.Min. Admissions (Appeals) Committee is final.

APPEALS COMMITTEE

The D.Min. Admissions Committee, composed of the Dean or Associate Dean (either of whom serves as chair), Director of the D.Min. program, and a faculty representative, will act as a supervisory appeals committee.

INCOMPLETE WORK

A candidate can request an incomplete from a professor. The professor holds complete discretion concerning the granting of an incomplete. If an incomplete is granted, it must be cleared in accordance with University policy by mid-term of the following semester. A candidate will not be permitted to enroll in another seminar until all work from previous semesters is complete.

CERTIFICATION OF SATISFACTORY PERFORMANCE IN SUPERVISION

Certification of satisfactory performance in supervision is required for each component of supervision (Peer Learning and Self-Directed).

1. Certification of CPE (which may be substituted for the second semester of Peer Learning Supervision) will be granted when the Director of the D.Min. program is presented with documentation of a candidate's completion of one basic unit of Clinical Pastoral Education at an Association of Clinical Pastoral Education (ACPE) verified center.

2. Certification of Peer Learning Supervision will be granted by the D.Min. Director upon the recommendations of the Field Supervisor, the Peer Group, and the Ministry Consultation Committee. The criteria for satisfactory performance will be the candidate's progress and learning as outlined in the goals of his/her Ministry Development Covenant.

3. Certification of Self-Directed Supervision will be granted by the D.Min. Director upon the recommendations of the Faculty Advisor during the project phase of the D.Min. program. The criteria for satisfactory performance is the candidate's ability to manage his/her time effectively and follow his/her self-imposed time-line for completion of the program. The candidate will also present to the Faculty Advisor a description of assistance and expertise sought and received.

APPEAL OF CERTIFICATION

If any area of supervision is not certified, the candidate has the right to appeal to the D.Min. Director. Upon appeal, the D.Min. Director will meet with the candidate, Field Supervisor, and others serving in a supervisory capacity with regard to the student as deemed appropriate. The candidate will be allowed to make his/her appeal to these individuals. The candidate will be notified within one week of the Director's decision which is final.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

All work submitted by candidates in each course is presumed to be the candidate's own. Cheating, plagiarism, or any other expression of dishonesty will be subject to the University's policy on academic dishonesty (see Student Handbook).

APPLICATION FOR GRADUATION

A candidate for the D.Min. degree makes application for graduation the fall before he/she anticipates graduating in the Spring. D.Min. degrees will be awarded only at the Spring Commencement. The application for graduation will be filed with the Registrar's Office according to the University academic calendar published annually.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

A GPA of 2.75 is required for graduation as well as completion of all degree requirements.

TIME LIMITS

The D.Min. is designed to be completed in a minimum of three years with a maximum time limit of six years. Approval for an extension of time must be granted in advance by the D.Min. Director. The candidate is required to pay extension fees for every Fall and Spring semester beyond the Spring semester of the third year.

FORM AND STYLE

All written work should be submitted in formal style according to The SBL Handbook of Style For Ancient Near Eastern, Biblical, and Early Christian Studies unless the candidate is instructed otherwise by a professor.

GRADING SCALE

Grades will be given on a 4.0 scale with the letter grade "A" representing superior performance and the letter grade "F" representing unacceptable performance.

A=100-94

DSMD501 THE MINISTRY AS LIFE-LONG LEARNING

2 semester hours

This seminar is an on-campus experience, taken as the candidate's first seminar experience, and prerequisite to all subsequent seminars, in which the candidate will receive general orientation to the degree program, to appropriate research methodologies to be utilized in the degree program, and to appropriate resources for developing successful strategies for life-long learning as a minister.

DSMD510 THE MINISTRY OF BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION

4 semester hours

This seminar is a study of various historical interpretive approaches to both the Old and New Testaments.

DSMD511 PAUL AS PARADIGM FOR MINISTRY

4 semester hours

The seminar will examine Paul's message and ministry as evidenced in his epistles.

DSMD520 THE MINISTRY OF WORSHIP

4 semester hours

Through a variety of pedagogical methods, the candidate will explore theological understandings of worship within the larger Christian community, hermeneutical applications of the Bible as critical to proper worship, the components of worship such as proclamation, music, and the reading of scripture, the worship leader(s) and the worshipping community and planning and evaluation of worship.

DSMD521 THE MINISTRY OF PREACHING

4 semester hours

The seminar will employ a variety of pedagogical methods, including lecture, video analysis of preaching events, small group experiences, and seminar preaching events. In particular the seminar will explore postmodernism in the contemporary context of preaching, a history of preaching with special emphasis on the rise of the so-called "New Homiletics"; a biblical theology of preaching; an exploration of the hermeneutical skills necessary for appropriate biblical interpretation in the service of sermon development; the method of sermon development with special attention to the day-by-day tasks of sermon preparation; methods, techniques, and strategies for effective sermon delivery; methods, resources, and strategies for developing an effective preaching plan for the parish and a pastoral theology of preaching including the place of preaching in the life of the pastor.

DSDM530 THE MINISTRY OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND ADMINISTRATION

4 semester hours

This seminar will probe the various components of effective Christian education that significantly contribute to one's faith development. Building community within the changing church paradigm requires leadership skills and the effective administration of resources. Developing these skills will be the focus of the seminar.

DSDM531 THE MINISTRY OF LEADERSHIP IN THE CHURCH

4 semester hours

This seminar will examine biblical, historical, and contemporary models for leadership in the local church.

DSDM540 THE MINISTRY OF PASTORAL CARE

4 semester hours

The role of the minister as pastoral care-giver and counselor is explored in this seminar, giving attention to the care of the self, care of the community of faith, and care of all others in the world who are objects of God's loving care. Seminar participants will develop an appropriate pastoral theology, a level of personal, interpersonal, and spiritual awareness commensurate with ministerial ministry, and the requisite skills to practice pastoral care in a ministry setting.

DSDM541 CONFLICT RESOLUTION IN THE CHURCH

4 semester hours

This seminar will examine the dynamics of conflict in the church. Attention will be given to assessing conflict from intrapersonal, interpersonal and systemic perspectives.

DSDM550 THE MINISTRY AND THE WORLD

4 semester hours

This seminar will challenge the student to engage with the important missiological issues related to being a Christian witness in a culturally diverse context.

DSDM551 MISSION AND MINISTRY IN A PLURALISTIC WORLD

4 semester hours

This seminar focuses on the role of the minister as a representative of the church in the world external to the church (both local and global). Seminar participants will develop an understanding of the church, and further role in it, within a global context, and the capacity to reflect theologically on the implications of that global context for the nature and mission of the church.

DSDM552 MISSION AND CROSS CULTURAL MINISTRY

4 semester hours

This seminar will challenge the student to engage the important missiological issues related to being a Christian witness in a culturally diverse context.

DSDM553 MISSION STRATEGIES FOR MINISTRY

4 semester hours

This seminar seeks to equip the student to be effective in use of relevant mission and ministry strategies.

DSDM580 CLINICAL AND PASTORAL EDUCATION

3 semester hours

This course provides training in pastoral care under supervision in an off-campus clinical setting whose program is accredited by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education.

DSDM581 SUPERVISION I

3 semester hours

Supervision will provide the candidate with a peer group experience that is intentional, collaborative, and theologically reflective. It will facilitate significant progress toward personal learning goals articulated by the candidate.

DSDM582 SUPERVISION II

3 semester hours

This course in supervision is a continuation of DSDM581.

DSDM583 SUPERVISION III

3 semester hours

This course in supervision is a remedial seminar for certain students.

DSDM590 MINISTRY PROJECT PROPOSAL WORKSHOP

no credit hours

This workshop assists the student in developing a project proposal to be submitted to the faculty for approval.

DSDM591 MINISTRY PROJECT DEVELOPMENT I

3 semester hours

The approved project is implemented in this course under the direction of the student's project committee.

DSDM592 MINISTRY PROJECT DEVELOPMENT II

3 semester hours

The approved project is completed, analyzed and defined by the student in this course under the direction of the student's project committee.

DSDM593 MINISTRY PROJECT EXTENSION

no credit hours

This course provides an additional semester, if necessary.
