President P. L. Elliott
Gardner-Webb College
Boiling Springs, North Carolina

Dear President Elliott:

I want to thank you, Mrs. Vicks, and Mr. Fisher for your considerate visit with Mother on last Saturday morning. I regret that I was in Charlotte at that time and unable to be with you.

I am just wondering whether or not Senator Broughton has finally written to you, accepting the invitation to be the dedicatory speaker on Easter Sunday at Gardner-Webb College. I was confident that you had already been notified when I told Holt McPherson about it in my office last week. As a matter of fact, I showed him the enclosed telegram which Mr. Ed Gill had sent to me, and naturally I assumed, after reading the telegram, that he had already contacted you prior to that.

I am positive that the Senator is planning to come, and if you have not heard direct there must be some deficiency in his secretarial staff.

With every good wish and kindest regards, I remain

Sincerely and cordially,

Ralph W. Gardner
