

Mrs. Webb Rites Held Here Today

Funeral services for Mrs. J. L. Webb, 81, beloved widow of the late Judge James L. Webb, were held this afternoon at 3:30 at the home on South Washington street, with an unusually large crowd of relatives and a wide circle of friends in attendance.

Mrs. Webb's death came yesterday morning at 8 o'clock after a period of three years declining health.

Dr. Zeno Wall was in charge of final rites this afternoon which were simple, but impressive. He was assisted by Rev. H. N. McDiarmid, pastor of the Presbyterian

(Continued on page two.)

Funeral Today

Mrs. J. L. Webb, known to many as "Grandma Webb," was buried here today, with impressive final rites.

MRS. WEBB RITES HELD HERE TODAY

(Continued from page one)

church.

Active pall bearers were O. M. Mull, Paul Webb, George Blanton, Aaron Quinn, D. W. Royster, Geo. Wray, Steve Woodson, and Stough Wray. A handsome floral offering was borne by members of the Chicora, 20th Century, Cecelia Music, and South Washington bridge clubs and Miss Elora Alexander, Miss Nora Bell Alexander, Miss Margaret Crowder, Mrs. Newman McEntire, and Miss Austine Brackett.

A quartet composed of Mrs. Ben Suttle, Mrs. B. M. Jarrett, Rush Hamrick and Horace Eason with Mrs. H. S. Plaster at the piano, sang "Safe In The Arms of Jesus" and "Shall We Gather At The River," and Mrs. Ben Suttle sang "Face To Face."

Interment was at Sunset cemetery.