Dear President Phil:

I received your telephone message this morning. I should like to consult with my Mother about whom we should suggest for the speaker for the dedication exercises on Easter.

I think that the Under Secretary of State, Jimmy Webb, is an excellent idea; however, there is a grave doubt in my mind as to whether or not he will be able to accept at this time. The State Department is in the process of a reorganization, and I know that Secretary Webb is busy both day and night.

Just as soon as I can contact Mother, I shall let you know.

With every good wish and kindest regards, I am

Sincerely and cordially yours,

Ralph W. Gardner
