

History of the Love family

My great, great-grandfather came from England. Settled in Virginia. My great grandfather came from Virginia and settled in Cabarrus Co N.C. on the East Side of Big Hickory Creek, then called Traver Co. of which Cleveland is now a part. He owned a number of slaves. My grandfather Charles Love came from Cabarrus Co. to Cleveland and settled. My ~~father~~ ~~James~~ ~~Love~~ grand mother's maiden name was Ingram, was from Cabarrus Co. Close connections of the Osbornes and Dulks families.

Sister, Mrs. J. S. Webb

mother of Mrs. O. Max Gorden for conveyance { put all 3 of these on separate pages }

in the margin

Capt. C. G. Lowe Co. "G." 5th Reg. N. C. T.

Confederate War

I raised the ~~second~~<sup>second</sup> Company of volunteers that left Cleveland County at the first call from our County. I remained in Infantry Service until the reorganization of the Army.
I transferred in the Cavalry under Capt. Perkins Co. F. 3rd Reg.
N. C. T. under Gen. F. V. Lee.

Remained in service until the close of the war. My brother A. M. Lowe was killed at the Battle of the Wilderness.