Two Lions Clubs To Meet Jointly

The two Lions Clubs of Shelby will hold their meetings jointly Tuesday, Aug. 27 to hear the musical drama "Good News", presented by the Youths of the First Baptist Church of Shelby.

The musical is presented by 85 young people dramatizing the religious life of youth today.

The program will be presented at 7:30 p.m. at the Charles Hotel Dining Room.

One--Two--Three --Four Times

The Christian Folk Musical, Good News, will be presented for the fourth time this Friday in the Shelby Junior High auditorium at 8 p. m.

There will be no admission charge.

So far this program has been presented to 2,400 persons in three presentations.

"We are very gratified at this response. A recording was made last Saturday night and will be available through the music office at the First Baptist Church in four to six weeks," said Van H. Ramsey, Minister of Music.
