

Old George Blanton home at Webb's Ford near Albemarle, N.C. where Judge J.S. Webb born as his mother lived here with parents after marrying Rev. G.M. Webb

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE

College he attended

First home in Shelby, N.C. - W. Main St next to his parents. That he started housekeeping in and 3 of his children born there - Ralph, Madge & Fay

Court House at Shelby, N.C. He presided in so many times as a Superior Court Judge - also dedicated this building and his portrait hangs on its walls.

Second home, Judge Webb bought on S. Washington St. near Dell off home (1943)

First Baptist Church, Shelby, N.C. where he was a member and long time member. Turnover was from this church

Third home of Judge Webb - 403 S. Washington St. where he died, 1938

Sunset Cemetery - Shelby, N.C. Graves of Judge & Mrs. J.S. Webb