GENERAL INFORMATION

LOCATION AND BUILDINGS

The school is located at Boiling Springs, Cleveland County, North Carolina . It is an incorporated village, in a rural section, noted for its beauty, for the thrift and hospitality of its people, and for the high moral and religious tone of the community. At the foot hills of the Blue Ridge, in the Piedmont section, the climate is ideal.

The school plant is made up of the following buildings for administration and dormitory use:

The Memorial Building. This is a large brick structure which has been erected recently in honor of those who served in the late war. This is the main administration building and contains a large auditorium, classrooms, music studios, the laboratories of the sciences and home economics, and offices of the dean and president.

The girl's dormitory is of brick, and contains the following: In the basement, a large and well-appointed kitchen, dining room for 300 students, butler's pantries, store rooms, a laundry and lavatories. On the first floor: office, an art studio, library, two music rooms, two parlors, a reception hall, two cloak rooms, and two society halls.

On the second and third floors are dormitory rooms for girls, each room having two closets. On these floors are bath rooms and lavatories.

The boys' dormitory is of brick, three stories in height, and is under the supervision of a teacher.

Adjacent to the boys' dormitory is a cottage in which many of the boys room.

In addtion to the dormitories which are under the direct control of the school, there are avilable many rooms in homes of the community. Many students use this means of enjoying a closer contact with the fine people who dwell in the town.

The gymnasium, which is the newest building on the campus, contains dressing rooms, showers, and a splendid basketball court.

Special Equipment

All buildings are equipped with steam heat, water works, and electric lights. Water is furnished from a deep well on the school grounds.

History of School

The need for an associational high school had long been recognized and agitated by leading members in both the Sandy Run and Kings Mountain associations, the former being the first to take active steps looking to such a school but finding it difficult to decide upon a suitable location.

In the year 1904, when the Association convened at Zoar Church, the Kings Mountain Association resolved to build a school and took active steps looking to that end. In 1905, Boiling Springs, on the border line of the two associations, was selected as the site and a happy arrangement made by which the two associations united in building and operating the school. The two bodies have worked together in perfect harmony at all times. The school was chartered on December 2, 1905, by the State under the style of "Boiling Springs High School, Incorporated."

In the fall of 1919 the Kings Mountain and Sandy Run associations, together with the Board of Trustees of the Boiling Springs High School, extended a hearty invitation to the new Gaston County Association to join with the two associations before named in the ownership and control of this school. In the fall of 1921 this invitation was heartily accepted and, in due time, the charter of the school was amended so as to admit the new association on equal terms and equal rights with the other two associations in the ownership and control. With a third strong, vigorous, progessive association behind this school its future is assured.

Through the efforts of The Baptist State Covention and the loyal friends of the school in these associations, a campaign was put on to raise funds to convert the school into a Junior College. This campaign came to a sucessful close on April 30, 1928.

On September 3, 1928, the College opened its first session, with J. B. Davis as its first president, and J. D. Huggins as its first dean.

During the past three years the college organization has been completed. The growth in all phases of the work has been steady. The enrollment in the college department was almost double the second year. By selecting competent teachers, adding to the material equipment, and providing an annual income, the school has been enabled to meet the requirements for standardizaton, and has been placed upon the list of standard junior colleges of North Carolina.

Endowment

One of the greatest, if not the greatest, needs of the school is an endowment. One of the most loyal and faithful friends of the school, Mr. J. L. Putman, of Zoar Church, in 1919, started an endowment with a gift of $1,000. Soon thereafter the girls of the school gave for this purpose a $100 Liberty Bond, and this has since been followed by a $100 gift from each of eight graduating classes, the last eight gifts to to be applied to the endowment of a Chair of Bible. In 1923, Gaston County Association made a gift of $1,102.42 to the endowment of the Chair of Bible. By a provision in the last will and testament of the late W. Harrison Eskridge of Shelby, N. C., he generously bequeathed to Boiling Springs High school 3-8 of 10 per cent of his estate, worth $34,048.46. May the spirit lead many others to follow the above example.

Library and Reading Room

The library is classified and catalogued, and in charge of a qualified librarian.

The number of volumes has been increased to approximately 3500 and others are being added from time to time.

A number of daily papers, magazines and weeklies are kept in the ample reading room, which is an enjoyable "work shop" for students and faculty.

Scholarships and Loan Funds

M. G. Martin Memorial Scholarship—To be given only to such student as is of Orthodox faith and preparing for the ministry in the Baptist church, preference being given to relatives of the Martin family. Value, $125.00.

Bostic Memorial Loan Fund, $35.00.

Lila Woodward Loan Fund, $90.00.

In addition to these, the College offers each year the equivalent of a tuition scholarship to the student making the best all-round record during his first college year in Boiling Springs.

The Athenian and Kalagathian Literary societies award each a medal to that member who makes the most improvement in debate and one to the best debater. The Athenian and Kalagathian Literary societies give jointly a medal to the best orator in the Junior and Senior classes, and one for the best declaimer in the Freshman and Sophomore classes. The Rhamsauer Literary Society gives a medal to that member who makes the most improvement. The Kalliergeonian Literary Society gives a medal to the best debater. Irregulars who have three or more studies in the two higher classes shall be eligible to the orator's medal, but not to the declaimer's medal.

Only those who are in actual attendance and who have been regular students of the school and active members of one of the literary societies for at least five months preceding contests for medals and honors, and who shall have made passing grades in at least three studies shall be eligible to contest for medals and honors.

Rev. R. C. Campbell and Rev. D. G. Washburn give annually a medal to that young lady who writes the best essay.

Mr. A. V. Washburn and Rev. W. A. Elam give annually a medal to the best student in the Bible Department.

Mr. Bynum Weathers offers each year the Lucile Green Memorial Medal to the best debater of the Rhamsaeur Literary Society.

Social Activities

The College controls all social activities through the social committee. The socials are well planned and properly distributed throughout the year.

Hand in hand with the program of studies should go the social program. As much care should be exercised in the making of one as in the making of the other. The aim of the program of intellectual work is to give the students the broadest acquaintance possible with learning, to cultivate enjoyment in its pursuit, and discrimination in the choice of interest and activities, to cultivate ability to enjoy the widest possible variety of relaxations, and to learn discrimination in the choice of pleasures. To accomplish these aims the Social Calendar for the Session of 1932-33, a worthy guide to this social program, will be posted in the hall of Memorial Building at the opening of school.

Literary Societies

There are four literary societies—two for boys, the Athenian, and the Kalagathian; two for girls, the Rhamsaeur, and the Kalliergeonian—which have regular weekly meetings. Every student is required to join one of the societies (unless excused by the executive faculty,) within four weeks after matriculation; and, neither boys' society shall have more than three-fifths of the total number of boys in the school, and neither girls' society shall have in its membership more than three-fifths of the total number of girls in the school.

Each pair of societies (Athenian-Rhamsaeur, and Kalagathian-Kalliergeonian) has an "Anniversary" each year alternating between the fall and spring semesters. Then at commencement, the two boys' societies stage a debate against each other for the "Question Decision," and each of the best high school and college debaters is awarded a medal; representatives from the girls' societies, two college and two academic, from each society, enter the recitation contest, each of the best high school and college readers being awarded a medal; likewise, two college and two academic representatives from each boys' society enter the declaimers' contest, and a like number of orators' contest, the winner in each being awarded a medal.

The institution cooperates with the societies in every way possible, and if members are expelled from the societies, upon approval of the executive faculty, they are expelled from school.

Religious Life

The ultimate aim of the Baptist Student Union is to develop the spiritual life of the individual student on the College campus. Believing that trained character is as essential to an education as a trained mind, the B. S. U. Council strives to cooperate with the faculty in setting a high moral standard for the conduct of the students and in using its influence to make doing right easy and doing wrong unpleasant.

While enrollment in the various religious organizations is not compulsory, it us urged and every effort is made to make the religious atmosphere felt. The school welcomes those who are seeking training for definite Christian service and encourages every factor contributing to that end.

The B. S. U. Council is the connecting link of all the religious organizations of the College. Since it is composed of the presidents of these organizations, the superintendents of Sunday School, and the pastor of the Baptist church, the interest of each unit organization is conserved and all are mutually helpful.

Note: The Young People's Department of Sunday school, which has classes for young men and women, is one of the outstanding organizations of the campus. All students are expected to attend Sunday school and church.

The Youngs Woman's Auxiliary, which for several years has had one hundred per cent membership of Baptist girls, maintains definite denominational program being made through the home church and reported to the treasurer of the college Y. W. A.

The Baptist Young People's Union meets every Sunday afternoon, and most of the students are active members of this organization.

The Ministerial Conference is held one evening in each week. The young men belonging to this class have not only the sympathetic support of the faculty, but the advice of the pastor of the Baptist church who visits them frequently.

Every student is expected to attend chapel exercises each day. One of the outstanding features of these exercises is Students' Day which is sponsored by the student body, the program being planned by the Student Council.

Besides the chapel exercises and weekly prayer meeting which is held at the church, a devotional meeting is held each morning for both the boys and the girls in the form of a "Morning Watch." These meetings are held immediately before breakfast in the society hall and attendance is entirely voluntary.

Absences

Earnestly conscious of the very great importance of the fullest and most personal cooperation between the personality of the teacher and that of the sudent in daily contact, the faculty would lend every encouragement to each and all students to utilize, for the above purpose, principles as outlined by the standardization committee relative to absences.

Absences are counted from the organization of classes, and absence from classes will be excused only when permission is allowed in advance by the dean and approved by the professor. Excuses for absence on account of illness, or other unavoidable causes, may be secured upon the student's return to school.

Excuses must be presented within one week after the student's return.

The certificate of the dean or physician will not excuse the student from making up the class work missed in his absence.

An accumulation of three unexcused absences will exclude the student from the class.

Advice to Parents

A clear statement of expenses will be found on another page of this catalogue. Parents are urged not to give their children more money than is necessary to meet school expenses.

If you wish your child to leave school for any purpose, please write the dean to this effect.

Students who make accounts with merchants without the consent of parents given to the dean may count on punishment and merchants who credit may lose thereby.

Inform the dean promptly in regard to any ground for complaint and do not jump to quick conclusions. Most complaints are written home in moments of anger. If young people have their seasons of dissatisfaction at home where the family ties are stronger, how much more natural at school, where there are so many and diverse conditions.

Write us freely about your children. If anything goes wrong at school, from your point of view, tell us about it in a plain, frank way, and we will do our best to correct at once any wrong, real or imaginary.

Parents who do not control their children at home need not expect the best results at school; as it is generally those children who give trouble.

Telegraph messages intended for the school, sent to Shelby or Lattimore, will be telephoned to Boiling Springs.

Visitors cannot be received by the pupils during study hours or later than 9:30 o'clock at night without special permission.

Young ladies who enroll in this school are under its control, and will not be allowed to visit either while leaving or returning for the holidays or any other times, without a teacher, and those who do so will not be allowed to enter until parents are notified.

Young ladies' parents are asked to write direct to the dean when any one other than the home folks are to take their daughters home.

Young ladies may spend two week-ends per semester with a friend away from the College with written permission of parents or guardian if sent through mail direct to the dean.

When students are placed in this school, its laws must prevail, and parents are not expected to interfere by calling their children away and directing their movements during the term, or while visiting the school during the term.

The young men of the literary societies, realizing the growing evil of hazing in school, passed resolutions against it, and hazing will be dealt with according to law.

Students are held responsible for conduct in their rooms and for the rooms and furniture.

Study hours will be: from 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 m.; from 1:00 to4:00 p.m.; from 7:00 to 10:30 p.m.

Discipline

The aim of all discipline is self-control. This result is most advantageously secured through the training of the judgment, the elevation of the ideals, the development of the powers of recognizing and obeying conscience, and the cultivation of honor. It is assumed that the students who enter this school are ladies and gentlemen; therefore, rules and regulations are reduced to a minimum, only such being formulated as are necessary for the general good of the students themselves. These, however, will be enforced kindly, but firmly, and those who, at any time, find themselves unable to abide by them will be earnestly requested to sever their connection with the school.

Each member of the faculty of the institution considers that his position imposes a sacred trust as responsible as that of the home, and supplemental to it. In all matters of discipline, therefore, both the good of the individual student and the influence of that student upon his fellow students must be taken into consideration.

A few underlying principles of discipline are hereby given in order that parents may know what to expect of the school:

1. The purpose of the school is to combine the influence of culture and moral training with the advantages of intellectual discipline.

2. It is expected that every student will appreciate the advantages offered and will courteously observe the regulations found necessary for the "greatest good to the greatest number."

Therefore, the following principles are set forth:

1. In deportment each student will be expected to be faithful on work, prompt and regular in the performance of all school duties, and in his relations with his teachers and fellow students, to cultivate and practice those courtesies recognized by gentlemen and ladies.

2. The use of alcholic drinks, card playing, gambling in any form, swearing, willful disobedience, cheating, dishonesty, or any gross immoral conduct will not be tolerated.

4. All boisterous conduct in the halls and rooms is forbidden.

5. Students will not be allowed to keep firearms while connected with the school.

6 Visiting during study hour is forbidden.

7. No secret societies will be allowed among the students, and no organization will be permitted that has not been approved by the faculty.

8. No boarding student will be allowed to keep and operate an automoblie without special permission.

Any time, when it is deemed best for the interest of the school, the faculty will amend or change any requirements or regulation, or if they deem it wise, will suspend any requirements made.

General Regulations

Unncessary absence from the school during the term cannot be allowed. It not only interferes with the student who is absent, but also with those of the class to which he belongs, and with good order of the school. Leave of absence, therefore, will be granted only upon evidence of illness or other imperative necessity.

Boarding students will not be permitted to go home more than once each four weeks except for special reasons.

Chapel Absences

Chapel services are held each week day, except Saturday, and all students are required to attend them. Students who are not in their assigned seats when the services begin are marked absent.

When his unexcused absence reach a total of six, a student will be automatically suspended from the College.

Directions

No. 1. All students registering late will be charged one dollar for the first day and two dollars thereafter. A charge of fifty cents will be made for each special examination.

2. Lattimore is the most convenient railroad station. Telegrams sent to the college will be delivered from Shelby or Lattimore.

3. Each dormitory room contains: bed, springs, mattress, dresser, washstand, table, and two chairs. All other articles will be furnished by students.

4. Boys who room out are expected to pay room rent to the owner of the home, furnish their own heat and light, and bring with them the same articles as those who room in the dormitories.

5. One light bulb will be furnished each room. If others are needed students must furnish them, but not stronger than 60 watt. The use of electric irons and double sockets is forbidden.

6. No smoking will be allowed in or near the buildings.

ADMISSION AND GRADUATION

Methods of Admission to the Junior College

1. By Diploma. Those who hold the Boiling Springs Academy diploma will be admitted thereupon.

2. By Certificate. Graduates of high schools affiliated with the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, or other recognized accredited agencies, are admitted on certificate.

3. By Special Permission. Students above twenty years of age, and of high purpose, upon the approval of the dean may be allowed to take Junior College work, and will be classed as "Specials."

In order to be graduated, a student must earn as many as 45 quality points based on the grade earned on his courses. A grade of 93-100 will earn 3 quality points for each semester hour in the course. 87-92 will earn 1 quality point for each semester hour. 75-79 will earn no quality points, and a grade of 70-75 will subtract one quality point unless the condition is made up before the end of the semester next following. A clear failure will subtract permanently from the student's record 2 quality points.

Two unexcused absences and ten excused subtract one quality point from a student's record.

All of those students who earn 33 or more quality points in any one semester shall be placed on the Honor

Roll and have their names inscribed in the catalogue of the following year so as to show the Honor Roll for each semester.

At the end of each half of a semester a check shall be made and all of those students not making a single quality point shall be placed on the delinquent list and called before the Dean for consultation.

Freshmen may not take more than fifteen hours in their first semester except by special permission. No student will be allowed to take more than eighteen hours in one semester.

To be entitled to the diploma, the student shall have taken sixty-six semester hours of college work selected from one of the following outlined courses:

JUNIOR COLLEGE

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

PROF. HAMRICK

The work in English will be practical. Much time, therefore will be given to the study of the fundamental principles of our language, such as drill in composition, writing, punctuation, paragraphing, capitalization, etc. Formal grammar will receive due attention but the more important thing is the use of our language. The aim will be to enable the student not only to express his thought so that he may be undersood, but so that he cannot be misunderstood. The masterpieces of our language will be studied thoroughly and critically.

A-B. Composition. A course designed for those who are deficient in the fundamentals of English grammar and composition. Students will be drilled in practical exercises to develop skill in the use of the language. No college credit will be given for the course.

Course 1. Composition. The work of this course will include the following: Fundamental facts of English grammar, effective note taking, outlining, choice and pronunciation of words. Practice in sentence construction, outline making, oral composition, and oral reading will be given. Parallel reading will be done. First semester. Three hours credit.

Course 2. Composition. Study of the principles of unity, coherence, and emphasis as applied to the sentence, the paragraph, and the whole composition will be made. Selected pieces of literature will be studied to discover these principles. Frequent practice in writing will be given. Second semester. Three hours credit.

C-3. A Survey of English Literature. The historical development of English literature from the beginning to the early nineteenth century will be studied with special emphasis on the works which represent the outstanding figures, types of literature, and systems of thought of the successive ages of English literature. Prerequisite, English 1-2. First semester. Credit, three hours.

C-4. A Survey of English Literature. A continuation of the historical development from the early nineteenth century to the present. Prerequisite, English 1-2. Second semester. Credit, three hours.

C-5-6. Argumentation and Debating. A study of both oral and written argumentation with special attention to the theory and practice of debating, including brief making, logical forms, fallacies, and refutation. Collateral reading. First and second semesters. Elective. Credit, four hours.

Eng. 7-8. American Literature. A survey of American literature from earliest writings to the present, with special emphasis on recent writers.

Both semesters. Credit six hours.

MATHEMATICS

MRS. PANGLE

The course given in Mathematics is broad. The object in teaching this subject is to enable the pupils to deduce their own rules and thus grasp the underlying principles of mathematics. The power to reason logically will be emphasized. Neatness in all work is demanded.

To take any of the following, the student must show that he has completed at least one year's work of Elementary Algebra and one year's work of Higher Algebra; and that he is familiar with the laws of exponents, radical expressions, quadratic equations, progressions and the binomial theorem. He must also show that he has thoroughly mastered the five books of plane Geometry.

Course 1. College Algebra.

Essentials of Trigonometry

1. The first semester's work consists of Algebra. The student is given a hurried review of high school work, paying special attention to exponents, radicals and quadratics. Then progressions and binomial theorems, logarithms, and general theory of equations are studied.

2. Trigonometry. The trigonometrical equations, theory of logarithms, solutions of right and oblique triangles, special problems. Three hours a week for second semester.

Course 3. Solid Geometry. Elective, especially for those who wish to continue the study of Mathematics.

Prerequisite, Plane Geometry. Second semester. Two hours.

Course 4. Analytical Geometry. Loci, the Line, the Circles System of Coordinates Parabola, Ellipse, Hyperbola, Higher Plane Curves, Figures in Space. Three hours a week, first semester. Prerequisite: Mathematics.

Course 5. Elements of Differential and Integral Calculus. Three hours a week, second semester.

DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL SCIENCE

Biology

C-1. General Biology. A study of the representative types of plant and animals with special emphasis upon their distribution, adaptations, development, and life cycles.

First Semester: Zoology. Text: Wieman: General Zoology.

Manual: Curtis and Guthrie.

Botany

C-2. General Botany. Lectures three hours a week and laboratory two hours a week throughout the semester.

Text: Smith and others: A textbook of General Botany. Credit, four hours.

Chemistry

1-2. General Chemistry. This course covers the fundamental laws of chemistry with a study of the properties, methods of preparation, and uses of the most important elements and their compounds.

Lectures three times a week and laboratory twice a week throughout the year. Credit will not be given for one semester's work alone.

Credit, ten hours.

Text: McPherson and Henderson, "Introduction to College Chemistry."

Manual: Belcher and Colbert: Experiments and Problems for College Chemistry.

Physics

1-2. General Physics. A course in the elements of physics. Problems and illustrative experiments. Lectures three hours a week, laboratory two hours a week.

Credit, eight hours for the year.

Text to be selected.

(This course will be given only in case ten register for it.)

DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES

MISS HAMRICK

Ancient Languages

Latin A-B — 6 Hrs.

(a) Roman Epic Poetry:
Virgil's Aeneid. (Bk. 1-VI.)

C-2 6 Hrs.

Continuation of grammar; composition ,reading. Prerequisite; German 1-2.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SCIENCE

Mr. Pangle

The aim of this department is not merely to teach facts, but rather the causes and results of the various movements of history, thus giving the student a sympathetic background to the present political, social, and economic life of the people of the world as well as a deeper appreciation of the development of modern institutions.

In addition to the regular classroom work, students will be expected to do collateral reading and research in each course, including the reading of magazines and newspapers which will be used as a basis for the discussion of current events.

HISTORY

Course 1-2 . History of Western Europe. Fall term. Three hours a week. Among the topics studied are the Roman Empire, the Church and Papacy; Feudalism; Renaissance and the Protestant Reformation. Text: Robbins' "History of Western Europe," Volume I.

Credit, three hours.

2. History of Western Europe. Spring term. Three hours a week. This course is designed to acquaint the student with the general trend of modern European history. Emphasis is placed upon the old regime, spirit of reform, the French Revolution, the Napoleonic era, struggle between conservatism and liberalism, causes of the World War, and current problems. Text: Robinsons '"History of Western Europe," Volume II.

Credit, three hours.

Course 5-6. American History. History of the United States (1783-1865).

5. Fall term. Three hours a week. This course includes a rapid survey of the social, political, and economic conditions at the time of the Revolution. Other topics studied are the formation of the Constitution and organization of the new government, the War of 1812, growth of political parties, westward movement, slavery agitation, and the Civil War. Prerequisite, History 1 and 2. Text: Muzzey's "The United States of America," Volume I. Credit, three hours.

10. Continuation of 9.
Spring semester, three hours.

BIBLE DEPARTMENT

S. E. WELCHEL

As a Christian institution, Boiling Springs College was founded upon the Bible. The chief aim of the school is the development of Christian character. Therefore, the Bible Department claims major attention. The following courses will be offered next year:

Courses 1-2.

Bible I. Old and New Testament. The whole Bible is studied from the historical point of view. In the fall semester a careful study is made of the Old Testament. In the spring semester a study of the life and teachings of Christ. This is followed by a study of the spread of Christiantity during the first century as recorded in Acts and the Epistles.

Credit, four semester hours. Two times a week throughout the year.

Courses 3-4.

Bible II. Bible Exposition. Doctrine. Missions. Church and Sunday School Methods. In this course a careful exposition will be made of some book in the New Testament. Observation will be made of great themes and subject outlines. A short outline of Christian doctrine and Christian Missions will be given.

Courses 5-6.

Course III. Christian History. The main facts of Christian history from the Apostolic era to the present are surveyed.

Bible I and Bible II a prerequisite. Credit, four semester hours. Two hours a week throughout the year.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Realizing that in all walks of life there is great demand for those trained in business, we have arranged with a private teacher to give instruction in business subjects. This department is one year old, and is adequately equipped to give instruction in Shorthand, Typewriting, Bookkeeping and related subjects.

The Shorthand Course includes the mastery of the principles of Gregg Shorthand, supplementary material for word building, dictation of actual business letters, and transcription of material from shorthand notes.

The Typewriting Course is recommended to anyone wishing to become proficient in the touch system of typewriting, whether or not he expects to do secretarial work. This course is designed to give a real working knowledge of all parts of the typewriter, and a complete command of the keyboard through finger concentration and accuracy drills, consisting of interesting word, sentence, and paragraph work. Practice in typing neat, correct business letters is emphasized.

A thorough course in Twentieth Century Bookkeeping is offered. The student completing this course will have kept three actual sets of books, and will have a practical working knowledge of the principles of bookkeeping.

Practice work in the school's offices will be allowed to students reaching such a degree of efficiency as to warrant such practice.

These courses are offered at remarkably reasonable rates, and offer a real opportunity to students desiring business training while completing their college course.

LIBRARY SCIENCE

MISS MCMURTREY

Course 1. 2 Hrs.

Fall term. On general, the aim of the course is to instruct the student in the use of books, the selection of books and children's literature, and the administration of school libraries, with special training in cataloguing and organizing a school library. The course not only arouses interest in and love for books, but also prepares the student for a better position in the professional world. Library scholarships are offered to students in this course.

EDUCATION

MISS ABLES

Course 1. Methods in Primary Reading and Language. This course will acquaint the student with the best methods of teaching primary reading and language, together with texts and valuable teaching material. Observation and practice teaching will be done. Credit, 3 hours. Fall semester.

Course 2. Methods in Grammar Grade Reading and Language. Same as course 1, except for grammar grades. Credit, 3 hours. Spring semester.

Course 3. Primary and Grammar Grade Methods. This course will include a study of the technique of lesson planning, general method, and special methods in elementary school subjects. Technical work continued. Studies Kohler, op. 242; Gurlitt, op. 198; Heller, op. 47; Bach (Hughes) "Master Series." Sonatinas by Clementi, Kuhlau (Reinecke).

Preparatory 3—Scales. Major and harmonic minor, hands together, parallel motion 1, 2, 3 and 4 notes at M.M. 60. Major, minor, dominant and diminished sevenths. Arpeggios, one and two octaves. Studies: Duvernoy, op. 120; Heller, op. 47; Berens, op. 61; Bach (Hughes) "Master Series"; "Little Prelueds." Sonatinas: Selected from Clementi. Kuhlau, etc.

Preparatory 4—Scales. All major and both forms of minor, parallel and contrary motion, M.M. 80. All arpeggios hands separately and together, 4 notes at 60; trill, 4 at 92. Studies: Bach, "Little Preludes"; Bertini, op. 29; Berens, op. 61; Heller, op. 46. Sonatinas: Kuhlau, Clementi, or easy sonatas of Beethoven, Haydn or Mozart.

Suitable pieces are given each year throughout the course. All pieces are memorized as well as a certain number of studies. At the mid-year and final piano examinations the student is required to play besides scales and technical work a movement from a sonatina, one Bach selection, one piece, and one previously selected study.

Voice

Elementary original studies for breath control and freedom of the articulating organs, and the emission and development of tone. Formation of vowels and consonants. F. W. Root, 68 Synthetic Exercises 1 to ER. Henneman, 101 Master Exercises, 1 to 22. Sieber, 36 Eight-measure 1 to 16. Marches, op. 15, Twenty Vocalises. Easy songs.

Theory

Theory 1. One hour per week. Notation; major and harmonic minor scales; key signatures; majors and minor triads with inversions; major and minor intervals; simple time; ear training in pitch and rhythm; simple melodic and rhythmic dictation; exercises in sight singing. Fall semester.

Theory 2. One hour per week. Review of major and harmonic minor scales; chromatic and melodic minor scales; dominant and diminished sevenths, augmented and diminished intervals; cadences; compound time; further ear training, dictation and sight singing. Spring semester.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

The Physical Education Department undertakes to develop good health along with good morals, trained minds, and consecrated lives. To do this, an all-round, well-balanced, rightly-coordinated physical education program is necessary. Therefore, the following outline will be of service to all students in contributing to such a program, and to all those intersted in physical education.

Calisthenics

All students (except those excused by the executive faculty), will be required to take gymnasium two hours each week—the boys, Mondays and Fridays; the girls, Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Health

All students will be required to take, as part of the gymnastic program, health lectures. The Physical Education Director will address the boys, and the director of the girls' physical education program will address the girls.

Athletics

All of the athletic sports will be fostered. Teams of high school students and college teams in football, basketball and baseball will be supported.

Other Games

Besides gymnasium and athletics proper, there will be developed also, tennis, volleyball and track. In addition to these recognized agencies for physical development, walking and all other forms of proper physical exercise will be encouraged.

DEPARTMENT OF ART

Art Course—for those who want to prepare to teach art, or for those who want to learn to paint in oils, water color, crayon, china, etc., just for the love of art and the cultural achievement. Tuition $20 per semester.

Drawing

This course aims to give certain skills fundamental in teaching drawing in the grades. Topics considered: Color, theory, lettering, poster designing, picture study, perspective methods and plan of work, etc. Media: charcoal, water colors, crayons, clay, etc.

Industrial Arts

Industrial arts for elementary schools. Manipulation and work with wax, clay, textiles, paper, wood, gesso, printing, plaques, dipped painting, water color, charcoal, etc. Two hours throughout the semester. May be taken either spring or fall semester.

EXPRESSION

The aim of this course is to develop logical thinking in reading. Topics considered include diction, poise, story telling, platform reading, ease and freedom, interpretation, literary and dramatic. Special attention is given to elimination of affectation and mannerisms in both voice and movement.

Tuition, individual lessons, $26 a semester; two in class, each $15 a semester.
