Music Festival Will be Rescheduled for the Fall

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C.—Hosted by the Town of Boiling Springs and Gardner-Webb University, Webbstock 2020 has been rescheduled due to the Coronavirus pandemic. Originally scheduled for March 28, the music festival has been postponed until the fall of the year.

“I have been in coordination with GWU and monitoring the Coronavirus situation,” affirmed Lucas A. Shires, Boiling Springs Town Manager. “Events over 50 persons are being recommended for cancellation. While this is a very hard decision, we feel it is necessary to err on the side of caution, protect our citizenry and stand with the nation in common sense practices.”
