DEDICATION

By recommendation of the Resolutions Committee at the Tuesday afternoon session of the biannual meeting the 2000 Minutes of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association are dedicated to the memory of The Reverend Roschelle Ray Ingle.

IN MEMORIAM

Although a native of Rutherford County, the Reverend Roschelle Ray Ingle faithfully served churches and brought the gospel to many hurting people in Cleveland County through prison and jail ministries of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association and as an assistant chaplain of Cleveland Regional Medical Center. Rev. Ingle personified the words of our Lord in Matthew 25 when Jesus told His followers to visit those who are sick and in prison. Roschelle's passion in ministry was to teach Bible studies to inmates at the Cleveland Correctional Center in Shelby, along with small group ministry through the Yokefellow program. His love and care for people served him well as he ministered to patients and families in hospitals.

Rev. Ingle graduated from high school in Kentucky and graduated from Clear Creek Bible College in Preville, Kentucky, in 1953. After serving as pastor of Peach Street Baptist Church in Shelby, Roschelle served churches in pioneer ministry in Ohio. He was a U.S. Navy veteran who served in World War II.

In 1983 Rev. Ingle returned to Cleveland County and served in chaplaincy and pulpit supply ministry. He was a faithful member of Bethel Baptist Church in Shelby and is greatly missed by his family, friends, and church family.

Rev. Ingle is survived by his wife, Otis Queen Ingle; one son and daughter-in-law, Russel and Kim Ingle of Sweetwater, Tennessee; two daughters and sons-in-law, Carolyn and Dave Rising of Modena, Ohio; and Scott and Doug Layer of Columbia, South Carolina; seven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by two daughters, Patricia Wallace and Raye Ingle.

Respectfully submitted,
Resolutions Committee

DEDICATION

By recommendation of the Resolutions Committee at the Tuesday afternoon session of the biannual meeting the 2000 Minutes of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association are dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Jane Monroe Brindle.

IN MEMORIAM

A graduate of Lambertus High School and Lewis-Rhyme College, where she received a degree in early childhood education, Jane endeavored herself to ministry across the association since 1983 when she, her husband Jeff, and two daughters Quince and Paige moved to Shelby. It wasn't long before her skills in ministry became evident and she began working in our Church and Community Ministry in 1988 as an assistant to Bob Davis, the director at that time.

Her ministry didn't end with her work at the association building. She was a great teacher at Christian Women's events across the association, taught a number of adult Sunday School classes at Elizabeth Baptist Church, hosted a Bible study cell group in her home for two and a half years, and served on a partnership evangelism team to Indonesia through the Foreign Mission Board (now known as the International Mission Board).

Jane had a heart for counseling, making her especially effective in her position at KMBA. However, her counseling skills made their way into her lifestyle. Even after she left the KMBA to take care of family, Jane spent time sharing Christ to others through her joy, her kindness and her genuine care for them. She affected people across the county as she ministered out of her business, the Workshop at Hawthberry Hedge, where she worked with special occasion dried florals and with people God sent to her and her husband Jeff, a former pastor of Elizabeth Baptist.

Jane was most recently a member of Patrons Memorial Baptist where she was a member of the Agape Sunday School class and the adult choir. Her legacy is a large number of lives enriched by God's ministry through her, including the family she brought to this county fifteen years ago, two sons-in-law Jamie Bridges and Josh Tinner, and a grandson Max Tinner. Mary will miss her.

Respectfully submitted,
Resolutions Committee

DEDICATION

By recommendation of the Resolutions Committee at the Tuesday afternoon session of the biannual meeting the 2000 Minutes of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association are dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Mailey Richardson Season.

IN MEMORIAM

Mailey R. Season was born July 9, 1926 as the youngest of fourteen children born to Ivy Bryant and Mattie Temple Richardson in Wake County, North Carolina.

She was married to Ed Season, a marriage that exceeded fifty-three years, also of Wake County, North Carolina. They had two sons: Dennis H. and D. Michael Season. Dennis is employed by Duke Energy, a twenty-six year tenure of service. He is married to Ann Lane of Spartanburg, SC and they live at China Grove, NC. Michael was a minister of music, a pipe organ designer and a funeral director before his final work with the U. S. Treasury Department in Washington, D.C. He was placed on disability because of a life threatening disease in 1986. He died November 4, 1993 at the home of his parents.

Mailey was a team-mate to her pastor-husband often showing her love for God and her fellow Christians as she witnessed to them. On one occasion while witnessing to a young man, he committed his life to Christianity. She re-entered school and graduated as a Certified Nursing Assistant November 23, 1962. She also worked in this field until she had a cerebral hemorrhage leaving her paralyzed and classified as an invalid for almost twelve years.

The activities in her life included leadership roles in churches, nursing and volunteering with Hospice of Cleveland County. She left on August 12, 2000 to enter into the presence of her loving Saviour and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Mailey was a member of First Hill Baptist Church where her husband, Ed, had been pastor prior to his retirement. Mailey loved her church and the people of many churches in Cleveland County. Her caring spirit will be missed.

Respectfully submitted,
Resolutions Committee

HISTORY OF PATTERSON SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH

Historically speaking one hundred and five years ago thirty-five of God's children established a small church in a rural community south of Shelby. The Patterson Station Baptist Church, which is now the Patterson Springs Baptist Church, was organized on October 18, 1895, at the old Ellis School House. The organization was begun as a mission under the direction of Elizabeth Baptist Church, and met in a brush arbor. Handicapped in the beginning by short pastors, many dedicated and resourceful men have pastored the church with each making worthy contributions to its leadership and growth. The first full-time pastor was called in 1951 following sixteen men who served for fifty-five years as quarter-time and half-time leaders. In all twenty-four pastors have served the Lord at Patterson Springs with three of these pastors eventually being called to full time ministry service.

The first church building was constructed about 1897, the second in 1923, and the present in 1968. The parsonage was built in 1951. The education building was constructed in 1966-67, and a Christian Fellowship-Gymnasia Center in 1986. The CFHC building includes a kitchen, Sunday School rooms, meeting space, fellowship and recreation areas, and a full basement recently renovated for additional Sunday School space.

Many, many changes have taken place during the church's history. But the real "History" of Patterson Springs Baptist Church is that even through the opportunities and problems experienced in churches, PSBC continues to be a light for the community which it serves. Under the present leadership's tenure, the focus of the church has been prayer, Bible study, and evangelism. As a result, God has saved and changed hundreds of lives for His glory. Those born into the Kingdom of God have become great soul-winners and prayer warriors themselves as God has worked through the local fellowship. Our prayer is that God would continue to use our church to reach people with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Currently, Rev. Steve Waters serves as pastor, Rev. Dale Clark serves as minister of music, Tim Lee serves as minister of children youth and Mrs. Brenda Champion serves as secretary.

HISTORY OF NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH

New Hope Baptist Church was formally organized in August 1874. The records show that Earl School asked Rev. Thomas Dixon and the elders of Buffalo Church in South Carolina to help with the organization. This came after a week's brush arbor revival conducted by Rev. Dixon on the ground now occupied by the present church building. There were 50 converts from this revival and others from nearby churches brought their letters making a total of 161 charter members.

Rev. Thomas Dixon, then pastor of Buffalo Baptist Church, 5 miles to the south in South Carolina, with several laymen, helped to organize and start the new church. The name New Hope was chosen because it represented the feelings of the band of new converts.

Abie Earl gave five acres of land and J.W. Gibbons also gave land including a spring of water on the ground for the new church. Since that time New Hope has built 3 church buildings. The present church building has been occupied since August 1954. New Hope bought the Earl School property in 1968. The church has had 29 pastors during its 125 years of ministry.

During the history of New Hope seven people have been ordained into the ministry. Evans Crawford and Lawrence McSwain were ordained during the 1920's. Joe Bridges in 1958, Michael Sepough in 1967, George Griffin in 1968, Crystal Champion in 1997 and David Costner in 1998.

New Hope called its first full-time pastor in 1950 and built a parsonage that same year. In 1958 the church called its first paid part-time Music Director and in the 1960's a part-time secretary became a member of the staff. In 1987 the church took another large step and called a full-time Music, Youth and Children's Director. We also presently employ a custodian, organist, pianist and an acoustician.

Currently New Hope has a membership of 149. M. David Gordon is the Pastor and Bob Aubin is the Minister of Music, Youth and Children.

In August 1999, New Hope Church celebrated 125 years of service for our Lord and Savior. During this celebration the church had a brush arbor service that reflected the memories of the church's beginning.

Glenn Walker, as moderator; Dr. Marvin Gobble, pastor of Zoar Church, vice-moderator; Mrs. Dorren Wagaster, Association music director; team members for Sunday School, Discipleship Training, WMU and Men's Ministries. There were no nominations from the floor. Rev. Lowery moved these be elected. The motion was approved by messengers.
17. Mrs. Selvia Brown, minister of music of New Bethel Church, led the congregation in singing, "Redeemed, How I Love to Proclaim It."
18. In the absence of a clerk-treasurer, Rev. Leland Kerr presented the January - Sep-teaser 2008 Treasurer's Report. He called attention to the History account and stated that a history is being written and the stories in this account will be used for that purpose. He reported we received $32,000 more this year than last year for the same period of time (January - September 1999). He encouraged churches to increase their gifts to the Association in order for us to meet the budget. He also called attention to the Church and Community Ministries receipts from the churches. He moved the report be approved as printed. The motion was approved by consensus.

19. Rev. Kerr expressed his appreciation to the Associational staff, expressed appreciation for the support of the Association during the recent death of his mother-in-law, and welcomed Camps Creek Church into our Association.
20. Rev. Leland Kerr presented his report and challenge to the Association. He called attention to the new proposed Purpose Statement for the Association. He shared how our Counseling Ministry has already grown to a full-load for one day and how he anticipates this ministry is growing to more days in the future. He encouraged everyone to read over the brochure and covenant sheet distributed to messengers about this ministry. He expressed his pleasure with our Biannual Meeting theme and encouraged prayer to be a priority in our Association as churches appoint prayer coordinators, as they meet for training, etc., and as prayer events are conducted within the Association. He expressed concern that we get so side tracked that we cannot reach the lost. We continually add layers and layers of programs. Activities will not reach the lost. With America the fifth largest mission field in the world, we need to be serious about reaching the lost. His desire for our Association is to have a God-given vision. Our land needs healing. Let's be a people of prayer. He closed his report with prayer.
21. Rev. Ron Canfield, chairman of Evangelism Committee and minister of Oak Grove Church, presented the Evangelism Committee Report. He called attention to the goals set for baptisms for last year, this year and next year. He reported we have not reached these goals which presents a challenge for us to reach 1,000 for Christ in the coming year. Rev. Steve Waters, member of Evangelism Committee promoted a "Power Team Evangelistic Event" coming up in April 2001 whereby 500 people could be saved. He encouraged everyone to begin praying now for this event.
22. Moderator Walker introduced our speaker for the evening: Dr. Chris Schofield, Prayer Evangelism Manager for the North American Mission Board. He has been with the Board for three and one-half years. He is from Bessenter City, North Carolina and is a former member of Patterson Springs Church in our Association.
23. Special music for the evening was presented by a ministers of music ensemble led by Rev. Clyde Beckner.
24. Dr. Chris Schofield presented the annual sermon using our theme for the evening "Prayer and Evangelism." He stated evangelism should naturally take place in our lives and prayer is foundational in our lives. If God is having to call us back then we know that we are sick. Therefore, we need to cry out for His forgiveness. He does not have to call us back but he does because He is a merciful God, one that is full of grace. He began with prayer and shared scripture from Acts 4, Acts 13 and Colossians 4. He presented Six Marks of a Praying Church (which is a house of prayer with a passion for lost people): 1) definite dependence on the Lord and prayer; 2) demonstration of God's power at work; 3) send out witnesses; 4) boldly proclaim the gospel; 5) united; 6) sacrificial living and giving.

God is calling His people to pray so that the lost can know His grace. God wants to reveal His word to His people. This can be done through prayer. Will you say yes to a life of prayer so your church can become a house of prayer with a passion for lost people? He led in a prayer of commitment.

25. Mrs. Doreen Wacaster led the congregation in singing, "Just As I Am."
26. Rev. Bob Absber, minister of music/youth children at New Hope Church, pronounced the benediction.

Tuesday Afternoon October 24, 2000

27. At 2:45 p.m. as messengers and visitors gathered at Patterson Springs Baptist Church for the second session of our meeting, special music was presented by the Patterson Springs Music Ministry under the direction of Rev. Dale Clark. Moderator Glenn Walker called the meeting to order and expressed appreciation to Patterson Springs Church for being the host church today. Rev. Steve Waters, our host pastor, welcomed us and gave an explanation on the wonderful lighthouses that grace the property of the church. The lighthouse in the sanctuary is lighted when someone made a profession of faith during this week. Mrs. Teresa Edmondson, minister of music at Camp Creek Church, led us in singing "I Stand Aweared in the Presence" accompanied by Mrs. Mary Coker, member at Patterson Springs, on the organ. Rev. Tim Trencher, pastor at Mount Sinai Church, read scripture from Mark 11:24-25 and Philippians 1: 9-11. Rev. David Turner, pastor at Macedonia, led the opening prayer.
28. Our theme presentation was a video from the State Convention on the relief and recovery efforts of North Carolina Baptist after Hurricane Floyd last year. Many people in our association were involved in this ministry.
29. Dr. Chris White, president of Gardner-Webb University, gave a report from the university. He stated that "People Who Care" is the motto at GWU and this helps to involve the student and staff in Christian ministry. The enrollment is now over 1200 making GWU the fifth largest private university in North Carolina, there are 108 faculty members who are required to be Christian because GWU is a Christian university. Nursing, teaching and ministry are the three main courses at GWU. Two hundred are presently enrolled in the Divinity School. A Doctorate of Ministry program will begin next fall. Dr. White asked for our continuing support and prayers on behalf of GWU.
30. South Mountain Baptist Camp Director Al Tinsin shared with us the great things God has done at the camp this year. There were 600 campers, 150 professions of faith, 200 rededications and 4 who recommitted themselves to Christian service. Rev. Tinsin asked us to continue praying for the ministry at the camp.
31. Leland Kerr presented our 2001 Calendar for our approval with the following additions: Jan. 22-23 Associational Prayer Rally & Conference, March 2 RA Race at Elizabeth, and August 20-21 T.E.S. The Calendar was voted on and approved.
32. Rev. Michael Shonate, pastor at Union and chairman of the Committee on committees gave his report. He thanked each committee member for their work. He presented the following changes: delete Rev. Terry Jordan and Mr. Buford Self and add Mrs. Mona Schum on the Missionary-In-Residence Committee. Add Mrs. Beth McDaniel on the Personnel Committee, add Mrs. Juvie Humphries on the Telephone Contact Committee, and delete the title of chairman after Mrs. Karen Davis.

name on the Youth Ministry Committee. Rev. Schuartz made a motion that the 2000-2001 Committee on Committees be adopted with the noted changes. It was voted on and was approved.

33. The Memorials report was given by Rev. Elwood Orr. We have lost three pastors this year: Rev. Rachelle Ingle, Rev. Harold Dellinger, and Rev. John Zaron.
34. Rev. Dale Clark, minister of music at Patterson Springs, then led us in singing a medley of hymns: "All Day Long", "Trust and Obey", and "Just A Closer Walk."
35. Since the proposed by-law changes were presented at our Monday night session, Mr. J.A. West read over the changes and made a motion that these be approved. The following changes were voted on and approved: 1. Add assistant clerk-treasurer the By-Law IV, 2. Change the Contingency Fund to 5% of the operating budget, 3. Delete the following committees: Building and Grounds, Family Life and Single Adult Ministry, 4. Change in the Purpose Statement Article III (Part A). These changes were voted on separately and each was approved.
36. Rev. Paul Williams, pastor at Lawndale and chairman of the Finance Committee, presented the 2001 proposed budget which includes a 4.5% raise in salary plus residual changes for our associational staff. The overall total budget was increased by 3.5% over the year 2000. Rev. Williams asked that the budget be accepted as printed. It was voted on and approved. Moderator Glenn Walker read over the recommendation from the Executive Committee concerning the Contingency Fund: "If messengers vote to accept the by-law change regarding "Contingency Fund" the Executive Committee recommends that the balance above 5% of the association's operating budget be used to fund capital improvements in the Associational building."
37. The History Report was given by Mr. Lansford Jolley. He stated that this time next year, which will be our 150th anniversary celebration for EMBA, our new written history should be in print. This will contain a brief history of each church.
38. Executive Director Leland Kerr gave the Resolution Committee report. He moved that the 2000 Minutes be dedicated in memory of Mrs. Jane Henshale, Rev. Rachelle Ingle and Mrs. Mafrey Session. This was voted on and approved.
39. Moderator Glenn Walker made the appointments of the 2000-2001 Committee on Committees: Dr. Randy Bridges from Zion (chairman), Mrs. Maude Bown from Grover First, Mrs. Jackie Washburn from Kings Mountain Second, Mrs. Hazel Thrift from Mount Sinai, Mrs. Lili Dedmon from New Bethel, Mr. Myles Whitaker from Westview, and Mr. Richard Stoup from Elizabeth.
40. Since Vice Moderator Glen Bryman has moved to Gaston county, Leland Kerr gave the Missions Committee report. The following partnerships are recommended to be continued: Alaska, Appalachians, Eastern North Carolina Flood Recovery, Greater Rochester Baptist Association in New York, and South Africa. The Appalachian Ministries partnership will be with the Cokesburgh Valley Baptist Association in the Altoona, PA area. Rev. Kerr asked us to mark May 4-5, 1962 as our "On Mission Celebration" formerly known as World Mission Conference. This report was voted on and approved.
41. Rev. Ross Peoples, missionary from the Cokesburgh Valley Baptist Association in Duaneville, PA brought greetings from his Association. Their association is very large in area and covers 9-1/2 counties. They have 15 active churches with an average attendance of 50 each. Dover, Flint Hill, Carpenters Grove and Lawndale churches joined forces and went to Pennsylvania this past summer to help. Four hundred lives were touched through this effort. There are still ministry needs for any who would help. These opportunities include: start up for a Puppet ministry, build a new church building, land raising for land to build a church on, and 12 Mission VHS teams for three sites at housing projects. Their association had a total of 104 baptisms this year which was an increase from the year before. Rev. Peoples thanked the Kings Mountain Baptist Association for being a vital part in their ministry.

43. Rev. Donnie Doughtie brought a report of her past two years in the Western Province Baptist Association in Cape Town, South Africa. She stated that their association is about the size of Texas and very spread out. She is glad to be back in North Carolina but will be here only until April 2001 when she hopes to be appointed as full time missionary and return to South Africa. She has been interviewed by the IMB and is in the process of being voted on by them. She will hear their decision on November 7. She asked for prayer during this time that the Lord's will be done in her life. She thanked the association for the prayers and financial support through donations to the "Donnie Fund". She stated that December 2001 will end the partnership with South Africa so if you want to get involved you still have time.

44. Rev. Charles Reed, our Church and Community director, gave his report. He stated that again this year we will be the distributor for the funds of the Share the Warmth Program with Duke Power. This year each donation will be matched dollar for dollar up to $50. Our Christmas Toy Store is coming up soon and funds as well as volunteers are needed. Prayer is always a need for all our ministry efforts. Rev. Rick Bowling, associate pastor of Christ Covenant Church, shared with us how the church has been working in the community. They have established a "Laundromat ministry" in which they take people to wash clothes and have Bible study as they wait there. They are also working in trailer parks to get children involved in church, in hopes of reaching whole families for Christ. He read from 1 Corinthians 1:26 and said that we should partner together as churches to accomplish God's work here on earth.

45. Church Development Director Joe Collins gave his report. He stated that every one of our churches is different but the one thing that hold us together is the Lordship of Jesus Christ and this unity allows us the opportunity to develop our skills to share life's word. Among those opportunities in our association this past year were: Sunday School Consultation, literature workshops, VHS Clinic, and Mission Leadership Training. Next year, one major event is T.E.S. (Training and Equipping the Saints), which will be held August 20-21. This is similar to the past CPB Training. We can tell that we have been working together because so many have participated in mission trips in North Carolina, in the United States and outside the United States. Youth Mission Day was a great success this year with 160 of our youth participating. They worked all day September 16 doing things like cleaning, painting, building and picking up trash. The Kings Mountain Baptist Association offers many resources to our churches. We now have a video projector which will be loaned out and a mapping center program on the computer to help find prospects for our churches. A website for the association is also being developed by our intern Jeremy Asher who is a Graduate-Webb student.

46. Attendance cards were taken up at this time and Rev. Steve Waters gave directions and the blessing for our evening meal. The meeting was adjourned until after the meal.

Tuesday Evening
October 24, 2000

47. As messengers and visitors gathered for the evening session at Patterson Springs Church, everyone enjoyed a multi-media presentation prepared by Joe Collins which included pictures and information about mission trips by several of our churches.
48. Special music for the evening was presented by "Expressions," a Creative Worship Team from Flint Hill Church. Mrs. Dorcen Weaver directed the group as they presented "Shine On Us," and "God and God Alone." Mrs. Mary Ruth Dixon presented a beautiful and moving presentation of "Feed the Birds" through sign language and interpretive movement. Mr. Jerry "Bubba" Anthony carried a cross down the aisle during her presentation.
49. Moderator Walker called the evening session to order and asked that we focus our attention to worshipping God together during this time.
50. Rev. Paul McManus, minister of music at Bowling Springs Church, led the congregation in singing, "We've A Story to Tell." Mrs. Mary Coker from Patterson Springs Church accompanied at the organ for the evening.
51. Dr. David Irish, pastor of Trinity Church, read scriptures from Acts 14:5-18 and 1 John 5:14-15. Rev. Jimmy Black, pastor of Westwood Heights Church, led in the opening prayer.
52. Rev. Leland Kerr introduced Rev. Glenn Walker for the moderator's message. He also introduced his son, Jason Kerr, and his wife, Cindy, for our theme interpretation.

He also expressed appreciation to Rev. Walker for his passion for missions. Leland feels the Lord is using Rev. Walker to lead our Association to a new level of intensive work. Currently, Rev. Walker is the director of Hands on Missions. He served as pastor at Patterson Springs Church and Double Springs Church in our Association.

He reported that Jason and Cindy graduated in May from Southwestern Seminary. They both have served in active places in our Association. They were the first recipients of our Senter Scholarship monies. He explained that the scholarship is presented to students studying to be career missionaries in a foreign field. Jason and Cindy are currently in the appointment process to become career missionaries with the International Mission Board. Jason is pastor of New Way Church in Samson Park, Texas.
53. The Theme Interpretation "Prayer and Missions" was given by Jason and Cindy Kerr. They shared that we do not need to be afraid of "missions and prayer." If you are a Christian - you are a missionary. They are seeking appointment for the Last Frontier and asked for continued prayer as "prayer" is the only way these doors will be opened. They expressed appreciation for the monies they received from the Senter Scholarship Fund and for prayers and confidence in them from the Kings Mountain Baptist Association. They explained that International Mission Board desires that missionaries have 100 hours per week of prayer from Christians.
54. Rev. Stephen Sain, minister of music from Pleasant Grove Church, led the congregation in singing, "We Have Heard the Joyful Sound."
55. Rev. Glenn Walker presented the moderator's message. He shared scripture from Matthew 9:35-38 and Matthew 28:18-20. Concerning "missions and prayer" he stated we cannot do one without the other - these are what we must be about as the church of Jesus Christ. Many times we try to do "missions" within our own skills rather than finding and getting involved in where He is working. Jesus went out among the people. He sought the people. We need to see people as Jesus did - through the eyes of love - as sheep without a shepherd - as individuals who have needs. Everyone is important to God. He is giving us opportunities to minister on our own doorstep and into other parts of the world. We must minister physically in order to reach the people spiritually.

The disciples asked Jesus to teach them to pray. He stated "prayer" is an integral part of what we are about. He asked why we need emphasis on prayer and stated because the fields are white unto harvest; people are without God with no hope. We need to pray because the laborers are few. Without prayer our mission is in vain. He ended his message with prayer.

56. Mrs. Doreen Wacaster led the congregation in a hymn of commitment, "Set My Soul Afire."
57. Rev. Leland Kerr shared how we can get involved. He made note of how the sessions have stirred and challenged us. His prayer is for us to be known as a praying Association.
58. Rev. Kerr introduced Dr. Marvin Goble and asked that he come forward, along with the Rev. Glenn Walker, moderator, and the Associational staff. He asked that the churches pray for the officers and staff as they lead the Association.
59. Rev. Kerr led in the closing prayer and declared the 150th Biannual Session adjourned.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S CHALLENGE

I am pleased that Joe Collins joined our Associational Staff as Church Development Director last December. He is a vital part of our team and brings expertise in educational ministries to our churches. He is a wonderful friend and co-worker, a man with a servant spirit ready to assist our churches.

Speaking of Associational Staff, three of our staff celebrate "milestone" work anniversaries with us this fall:

Judy Franks, Financial Secretary - 20 years

Margaret Lipscomb, Administrative Assistant - 20 years

Charles Reed, Church and Community Ministries Director - 19 years

I appreciate their love for our Association and their long-term commitment to ministry with us. It is a joy to work with our staff - a team and a family!

The work of an Association depends in large part on the commitment of volunteers. We simply could not function as effectively without volunteers. Rebecca Bingham has served as our Clerk Treasurer for the last 9-12 years. She has served us well in this very strategic role. She has been a very valuable associational officer and we will miss her leadership. Another long-term volunteer is Mr. Joe Massey. Joe served as our Parliamentarian for over twenty-five years. He helped us to conduct our business and decision-making in a proper way. We appreciate the commitment of both of these volunteers and their length of service.

The Executive Committee has recommended a new "Purpose Statement" to more clearly define the nature of our work and our mission. I encourage the messengers to adopt this new "Purpose Statement" as we endeavor to join hands with "other Great Commission Organizations" to do mission and ministry. We must be open to new ways and new partnerships as we continue to reach a lost world for Christ.

One of our newest ministries that was initially discussed four years ago has begun - our Counseling Ministry. The Baptist Counseling Center of Cleveland County opened on August 1, 2008 with Dr. Gary McFarland as our Counselor. Gary is a state certified Pastoral Counselor and is licensed by the state of North Carolina as a Professional Counselor and Marriage and Family Therapist. He is available to work with individuals, couples, and families by appointment. The Counseling Center is located in the Library of First Baptist Church, Shelby and is a shared ministry of Kings Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. and the counseling Ministry Board of the Counseling Center of Charlotte. Dr. McFarland can be reached at 704-472-1437. We are grateful to First Baptist Church, Shelby, for making the space available for our Counseling Center.

This year's theme for our Biannual Meeting focuses on prayer. Throughout the meeting we will address various aspects of prayer. This builds on our emphasis the last two years of Prayer Rallyes for Evangelism. I propose that we increase our prayer efforts and ministry as an Association through some very intentional steps:

1. Each church elect appoint a Prayer Coordinator
2. Church Prayer Coordinators meet together for training, fellowship, prayertime, share-wrapping and coordinated prayer efforts
3. Regional prayer events conducted - prayer vigils, prayer walking, prayer rallies, etc.
4. Resources and support materials to help churches begin or enhance a Prayer Ministry
5. Associational Prayer events and activities

I encourage our churches to elect appoint a Prayer Coordinator before January 2001. On January 22-23 we will have a Prayer Conference led by Dr. Gregory Frazier. Dr. Frazier is pastor of Georgia Hills Baptist Church in Memphis, Tennessee, and the Director of the Spiritual Awakening Council of the Shelby Baptist Association in Memphis, Tennessee. He has written the book, Local Associations and United Prayer: Keys to the Coming Revival. In his book he states, "When an association or church is in the habit of periodically pausing to evaluate and seriously listen for God's directions, they are much more likely to receive a clear God-given vision." How serious are we about seeing revival come to Cleveland County? How serious are we about praying for revival? How serious are we about receiving a "clear God-given vision"? Let's get serious.

Seeking His vision with you,
Leland Kerr

CHURCH DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR

Kings Mountain Baptist Association is an exciting group of people. Scattered throughout the county, our churches are keeping worship, Bible study, discipleship, and missions alive and vibrant. Over the past several months, I have had the opportunity for the first time in my life to visit a host of churches and study with a number of Sunday School classes. Although each church is different (and there is a wide variety of churches), there is a common denominator that ties them together to do kingdom work. That common element is the lordship of Jesus Christ. From traditional to contemporary, churches who are in love with Jesus can work together in His kingdom.

Coming Together in Training

One evidence of this bond is the terrific response of our churches in coming together for training during the past year. Christian Freedom, a dynamic church in our Grover group, used our Sunday School team to help them fine-tune their Sunday School last winter. Each time our Sunday School team does a consultation, it learns something that can be used in the next church that takes advantage of the process. Any interested church can contact Joe Collins at KMBA or David Blanton, our KMBA Sunday School Director, for more details about how the consultation process works.

Other training events called churches together throughout the year. In the spring, many churches came together at Polkville Baptist and Elizabeth Baptist to learn about changes that took place in Sunday School literature this fall. Later in the spring, Vacation Bible School workers from across the association met at Hotelling Springs Baptist. In August, our missions training at Elizabeth Baptist and Sunday School workshop at Eastside in Shelby saw rooms overflowing with saints eager to learn how to do a better job at leading in their own churches. Training together in Jesus' name is an opportunity and a blessing that churches in our association have not neglected.

Working Together in Missions

Another evidence of a "tie that binds" is active involvement in missions. This year, members of our association have literally covered the globe. They built churches, restored flooded homes, taught children the Bible, shared Jesus in word and deed, cared for the hungry, and wore the hands and heart of Jesus in every hemisphere of the world. As I have compiled pictures and summaries of mission trips, I have noticed that there are more and more people crossing church lines to do mission work. It is so exciting to see churches challenging each other and joining together to do missions. My prayer is that this trend will grow and we will see ever-increasing numbers going out to the hurting places of the world.

Four churches led the way in setting up a relationship with Conemaugh Valley Association in Altoona, Pennsylvania this past summer. First Hill, Dover, Lawndale, and Carpenter's Grove joined forces and impacted a multi-county area with the Gospel through the media of construction, Bible clubs, clowning, and puppetry. The experiences of these churches have led us to consider going back to Pennsylvania again with other churches from our association. Churches who do missions together form a bond despite diversity. Let's continue to work together in the uttermost parts of the world.

Our churches also did mission work right here at home. Of special note is the 160+ youth and youth leaders who pitched in during the United Way Day of Caring doing carpentry, painting, sports clinics, backyard Bible clubs, and community cleanup among other things. (More details are in the Youth Committee Report.) We can celebrate the fact that our churches reach into the community with the care and love of Christ.

Sharing Resources

Our unity can also be seen in the way our churches share resources. Of course, there is a lot of borrowing and lending between churches, making good use of the resources God allows us to manage, but churches also give so that the KMBA might provide certain resources to churches who could not otherwise afford them. Two such resources now available are the Mapping Center and a new video projector. The Mapping Center contains white page listings, maps, and demographics all in an easy-to-use computer program. It can be a very helpful tool to help churches organize for surveys and other forms of outreach. Come by and talk with Joe Collins about how your outreach program might benefit from this tool.

It has been years in coming, but churches can now check out a projector that can be used with video and/or computer. It is a wonderful ministry tool for which our churches have been asking for several years. Churches will need to reserve the projector ahead of time and return it as soon as they are finished with it. I expect that this resource will be in great demand.

Furthermore, we hope to have another resource in place soon that will be used a great deal. Jeremy Absher, a Gardner-Webb Divinity student presently serving as an intern in our office, is assisting us in developing a website that we are projecting to be online by the end of the year. Besides making our presence known to others, this site will serve as a place where churches can get information to help them in their ministries and stay abreast of what's going on across our association.

Diversity is a fact in our association. We have big churches and little churches, traditional and contemporary, formal and informal. But we are joined in heart, the heart of God who wills that all will be saved and none perish. Thank you, KMBA, for your support and for the opportunity to serve you this year. I look forward to continue working with you and seeing the unity of spirit continue to develop as we serve the Lord together in Jesus' name.

Respectfully submitted,
Joe Collins, director

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING

The focus of Discipleship Training during the winter of 1999 and the spring of 2000 has been upon children and youth Bible drill and the youth speakers' tournament. This event was held Sunday, April 9th, at 1:00 p.m. at First Hill Baptist Church under the very able leadership of Cecelia Pearson and Carolyn Gordon.

Those participating on the associational level are reflected in the statistics below:

17 churches	16 churches	16 churches	15 churches
87 children	66 children	61 children	68 children
3 youth	4 youth	1 youth	4 youth
	1 speaker	1 speaker	1 speaker

Any church interested in having a Bible drill team in their church should contact the associational office.

It is hoped during the upcoming year that some opportunities for training in leadership, parenting, and marriage will be available on the associational level.

The use of short term training is the wave of the future.

MUSIC MINISTRY REPORT

Music has always played an important part in the worship of God's people. When offered with a pure heart, music can pierce through the thickest barrier and bring us into God's presence. What an awesome expression of praise God has given us. It is the goal of our associational music leaders to use the medium of music to praise our Lord and reach out to as many as possible with the gospel it shares.

We are excited about the many opportunities that God has in store for us, musically, in the upcoming year. The music directors of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association met in September to begin planning for the new church year. Fifteen of our area churches and over 188 young people will join together to present the associational musical, "The Message." The event will be held at Bethel Baptist Church on October 22, 2000. Plans are well underway for an associational Handbell Festival weekend in October. The weekend will end with a Handbell Concert for the community.

The monthly Music Director's meeting will be held on the first Tuesday of each month at the KMBA office building. All music directors (full-time, part-time, volunteer and others) are encouraged to join and share in the exciting ways that God is using the music ministry of our Association.

On a personal note, we gratefully acknowledge the dedicated efforts of Mrs. Faith Beam. We pray for her continued ministry as she seeks the Lord's direction.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Dorcas Wicaster, director

MEN'S MINISTRIES (BROTHERHOOD) REPORT

Men's Ministry has been very exciting in the Kings Mountain Baptist Association this year. If your men have not been involved, they have missed one of our greatest blessings. Many of our family problems exist today because our men are not involved in ministry. Please encourage your men to get involved.

One of the highlights of every year is our annual Cleveland County Fair Workers breakfast. Once again it was a great success because our men's ministries from many different churches joined together in a cooperative effort. It is always easy to organize because our men always say yes to helping.

Our annual R.A. Car Racers was the best ever. Thank you to David and Janet Brown and all the others who helped organize and carry out this event. Thank you to the many young men who participated to make this such a successful event. Adults, we can learn from our young people. If only we could be the gracious hosts they were. They taught me a lesson.

Our annual officer training was held again this year. We had good participation but it could have been much better. Take advantage of this training when it is offered. State level trainers are brought in and it is only done once a year.

Many of our men and women have been involved in Disaster Recovery this year. Many of our churches have responded to Hurricane Floyd. Many homes have been rebuilt, but there are still many to be rebuilt. Training was held in our Association this past spring. The turnout exceeded anything we ever expected. We will have many people qualified and ready when our next disaster occurs.

We look forward to working together in 2000-2001. Take advantage of what our Association offers.

Respectfully submitted,
Mr. Barry Collier, director

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION REPORT

Providing opportunities for women and children to learn about, and participate in, missions is the goal of the WMU.

Our year began with the World Day of Prayer at Beaver Dam Baptist Church where we gathered to learn and pray for our "neighbors of the world." In the spring we gathered at Double Shroals Baptist Church for the Spring Meeting and Salad Supper. Mrs. Lela Belle Washburn shared with us the experience she and her husband had working on a farm in Africa. We were pleased to have Dr. and Mrs. Gerhardt Venter of South Africa in attendance.

Again this year we participated in the Christmas ministry for women in prison. Additionally, many of the missions groups participated in the Operation Christmas Child drive. International students at Gardner-Webb University and the Missionary Kids were provided care packages during spring exams.

In February, a team of six went to South Africa to lead the Ladies Retreat. The WMU groups supported this group - literally and in prayer. Also, in February we assisted in the reception that welcomed Joe Collins to the KMBA staff.

The Associational WMU Brotherhood Training was held at Elizabeth Baptist Church on August 21 with the largest group to date in attendance. In addition to the regular missions group training, there were opportunities to learn about the Christian Women's Job Corps, Parish Nursing, Baptist Fellowship of Nursing and an introduction to The Fraggled Women by Cindy Woods. We were also able to provide a small bookstore of missions materials.

During this coming year each member of every missions group is asked to participate in the "Drive A Day" fund raising campaign to assist the North Carolina WMU ministry budget. Together - in our group, in our church, in our Association and across our state - we can make a difference in the missions opportunities that are offered to the young, the old and those in need.

Respectfully submitted,
Margie Christopher, director

YOUTH COMMITTEE REPORT

A meeting, for all members of our Association that work with youth in any capacity, was held on Tuesday, February 22, 2000 at 7:00 p.m. in the KMBA office. There were twenty-six youth workers in attendance. We shared a great deal of information with them concerning opportunities for training for the workers, events for the youth, and mission opportunities for all. The meeting was a great success.

The Crossroads Youth Crusade, led by Clayton King, was held on April 30 - May 3, 2000 at Harris High School. It was a successful event and we hope to see more of these events in the future with some of our other local high schools involved. Many of our young people made decisions and their lives were impacted as a result of the Holy Spirit's work during the crusade.

A Youth Missions Day Rally was held on Wednesday, September 13, 2000 at Ross Grove Baptist Church. The rally served as a kick-off for the Youth Missions Day to follow on Saturday, September 16, 2000. After a time of welcome and announcements, Redners' Five led the youth in a praise and worship concert. At the conclusion of the concert, the youth signed up for the mission projects that they wanted to participate in on Saturday.

The project choices were as follows: feeding the Homeless; cleaning out the Men's Shelter; repairs and painting at the Battered Women's Shelter; clean-up at the Broad River Greenway; home repairs; Soccer Clinic, Basketball Clinic, and Baseball Clinic led by GWU athletes; Nursing Home Visitation Teams; and an Inner-City Backyard Bible Club.

We all met at 8:00 a.m. Saturday morning at Cleveland Community College for breakfast and then divided up into our teams to go out and work on our projects in conjunction with the United Way Day of Caring. Most all of the projects went very well. We are looking seriously at doing other projects similar to this in the future.

We received many good reports on not only the quality of the work that our young people produced on the 16th, but also on the quality of the young people themselves. One such report was that this was the first time that a church group had signed through the United Way Day of Caring, and it was the hardest working group they had ever had. We are extremely proud of our kids and praise God they they are willing to serve the Lord doing missions.

We have had a good year and we praise God for the work that has been done through the KMBA Youth Committee, since we began meeting again in January. We look forward to the new year ahead and to the work that God has for us.

Respectfully submitted,
Karen Davis, chairman

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMITTEE

11 Chronicles 7:14 says: "If my people who are called by my name, shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked way; then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

How powerful those words of reinsurance are to our society today. We are a nation in need of sincere, focused prayer. As the "body of believers" we are called to pray for our world, our nation, our community, our families, and ourselves.

The Christian Life Committee helped to prepare for the County-wide participation by the Christian Community in the National Day of Prayer. On May 4, 2006, concerned Christians gathered to lift up our hearts and prayers to God. Our nation is in need of a "New Monastery", and the only way to have that need met is through the power of God. As we met together on the steps of our local town and city halls, many prayed for the vision of God in our lives, as well as our elected officials and our schools.

We ask that you continue to make a commitment to prayer wherever you are. As we join our hands and our hearts in prayer we make a difference, we are a witness, and we glorify our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Of course, there are many other issues that need each of our attention as our society deals with moral issues and Christian Life concerns. We must first submit ourselves to God's will for the Kings Mountain Association and the community of believers. We encourage your church's Christian Life Committee to actively seek out those folks in your community who are making a difference because of their moral stands, and bolster them in their efforts. Let us strive to work as encouragers of the faithful; and let us keep our hearts, minds, and souls focused on the Lord's desire for our homes, churches, and communities.

If you have a concern that our committee may address, or if we can assist you and your church in any way, please let us know.

Respectfully submitted,

J. Eric Davis, chairman

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE REPORT

The Evangelism Committee recommended to the Kings Mountain Baptist Association at the October 1998 goals for baptisms over the next three years: 800 baptisms in 1998-99; 900 baptisms in 1999-00; 1000 baptisms in 2000-01.

Our churches reported 702 baptisms for 1998-99 and 755 baptisms for 1999-2000. Though our goals have not yet been realized we praise God for every soul that has come into the Kingdom of God over the past two years and would like to thank our local churches for their outreach and witnessing efforts. The Evangelism Committee encourages each church in our Association to keep evangelism as a priority as we strive to reach a baptism goal of 1000 in 2000-2001!

The Evangelism Committee also worked with the six groups of churches within our Association to gather for prayer rallies as was done in 1999. All six groups made plans to meet in January 2000 but because of inclement weather the dates had to be changed. Consequently, only four groups of our churches were able to work out an alternate date (the Grover Group, the Kings Mountain Group, the Lattimore Group, and the Waco Group). Each of these four groups of churches indicated that their fellowship was strengthened and the priority of evangelism was reaffirmed. The Evangelism Committee has not planned a formal meeting of the six groups of churches for 2001 as we did for 1999-2000. However, we would encourage our groups of churches to meet from time to time for fellowship and prayer with an emphasis on evangelism.

The Evangelism Committee also helped to support the local area-wide crusades in May of this year: The Crossroads Crusade held at Burns High School and the Celebrate Jesus Crusade (Test Meeting) on the grounds of Bellwore School. Most of the public decisions made were first-time commitments.

The Evangelism Committee will host an Associational Prayer Rally January 22-23, 2001 to be led by Dr. Gregory Frazell from Memphis, Tennessee. More information concerning this rally will be published in upcoming issues of The Season. Also, our Association will partner with Elizabeth Baptist Church in bringing the Power Team evangelistic group to our area next year April 22-29, 2001.

The Evangelism Committee encourages our churches to take advantage of the resources available through our Association office and staff, such as: the Mapping Center for Evangelism, Prayer Walk video, gospel tracts, etc. Our committee encourages all of our churches to continue praying to the Lord of harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.

Respectfully submitted,
Ron A. Casider, chairman

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT

The Executive Committee met in a called meeting on November 22, 1999 to hear the recommendation from the Search Committee for a Church Development Director that Joe Collins be called as our Church Development Director. On December 13, 1999 messengers from the churches met at Eastside Baptist Church in Shelby to act on the recommendation and Joe Collins was unanimously called as our Church Development Director. He began his ministry with us on December 15, 1999.

The Executive Committee met March 26, 2000 and made a motion to recommend to the messengers in the April Biannual Meeting that we begin our Counseling Ministry as a shared ministry with the Counseling Center of Charlotte and that Dr. Gary McFarland become our counselor. This was approved by the messengers and the process to secure site for the Counseling Ministry was begun. This ministry started on August 1, 2000 in space provided by First Baptist Church, Shelby. During this meeting the Executive Committee also appointed an ad hoc committee to study capital improvement needs for the Association.

The Executive Committee met on June 30, 2000 and approved a recommendation to use $2,750 from our Contingency Fund to pave and stripe our parking lot. The committee also acknowledged that our two year partnership with Bonnie Doughtie - ISC missionary to South Africa - would end September 15, 2000 and the Association would no longer receive or hold gifts to the "Bonnie Doughtie Fund."

The Executive Committee met on August 29, 2000 and accepted the resignation of Ms. Erica Hingham as Clerk Treasurer and Rev. Olin Hynum as Vice-Moderator. The committee expressed appreciation to both of the individuals. The committee also expressed appreciation to long-time former parliamentarian, Mr. Joe Mauney. The committee also approved by-law changes and a purpose statement change that was printed in The Beacon thirty days prior to the Biannual Meeting. Messengers will act on these proposed changes during the Biannual Meeting.

The committee recommends that the following serve on a Counseling Ministry Advisory Committee: Mrs. Cindy Benson, Elizabeth Baptist Church; Rev. Randy Bridges, Zion Baptist Church; Mrs. Diane Brasch, Polkville Baptist Church; Mr. Cecil Clark, First Hill Baptist Church; Rev. Eric David (Chairman), Double Shoals Baptist Church; Rev. Robert Donawick, First Baptist Church, Shelby; Mrs. Sandra Kester, Patterson Springs Baptist Church; Mr. Charles Nalley, Westview Baptist Church; Mrs. Micki Padgett, First Baptist Church, Kings Mountain; Mr. John Radabaill, Union Baptist Church.

Ex-officio Members: Dr. Gary McFarland, Counselor
Rev. Glenn Walker, Moderator, KMBA
Rev. Leland Kerr, Executive Director, JMBA

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Glenn Walker, chairman

RECOMMENDATION

The Executive Committee recommends the following:

If messengers vote to accept the by-law change regarding "Contingency Fund," the Executive Committee recommends that the balance above 5% of the Association's operating budget be used to fund capital improvements at the Associational Building.

HISTORIAN'S REPORT

History Book coming up in 2001!

The History Committee of the Association is looking forward to having a history of the Kings Mountain Association by the fall Associational Meeting in 2001.

The history will include a brief history of Baptists in Europe, North America and North Carolina before zeroing in on the history of the Association. The Kings Mountain Association began in 1851 when thirteen churches came out of the Broad River Association to form the Kings Mountain Association. The story of the Kings Mountain Association is a story of Christians dedicated to missions, evangelism and education as they promote the Kingdom of God.

The Association exists to serve the churches and help the churches cooperate to do things collectively that would be more difficult to do alone. The story of the Association beginning in 1851 with thirteen original churches is the story of an Association that has grown to seventy-nine churches. The Association in an earlier period covered a larger geographical area. As an example, a number of churches that are now a part of the Gaston Association once belonged to the Kings Mountain Association.

The history of the Association cannot be told without telling some of the history of the churches. There could be no Association, State Convention or Southern Baptist Convention without the churches. Churches are where people are converted, grow and mature in Christ. Therefore, part of the book will consist of a short history of each church accompanied by a picture of the present church building and pastor. We appreciate the fine way in which many of the churches have provided the committee with this material. We are still lacking some or all of this material from some churches. Please get this material to us immediately. We want all of the churches to be included.

Respectfully submitted,
Lansford Jolley, chairman

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE REPORT

Camps Creek Baptist Church of 2218 Camp Creek Church Road, Macon, North Carolina requests membership in Kings Mountain Baptist Association, Inc. The deacons and congregation have met numerous times with our Executive Director, Leland Kern, to discuss and pray about this decision. The congregation voted in August of 2000 to request membership. Their congregation exceeded the 75% guidelines (99%) in voting to join our Association. They provided a statement of belief and practices as required by our guidelines. Their willingness to cooperate has been demonstrated by their participation in numerous events sponsored by our Association and by their efforts to invite K MBA churches to their church events.

Representatives from Camps Creek Baptist Church met with our Membership Committee on October 1, 2000 as our guidelines require. It is our enthusiastic recommendation that we receive Camps Creek Baptist Church under the watchcare of Kings Mountain Baptist Association and anticipate the granting of full membership status during our April 2001 Biannual Meeting.

MEMORIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

One of the evidences of the providence of God is His plan for rewarding His faithful stewards and welcoming them into the home He has provided for those who love Him. While it is emotionally difficult for us to lose the visual presence of our loved ones when they leave us for their reunion with loved ones who have preceded us in what we call "death," it is encouraging to know that God has His eye on us continually, and that "underneath are the everlasting arms," supporting us in every experience.

He understood that we, being mortal, could not deal with the ravages of time on our temporal bodies, and in His divine wisdom and generosity devised a plan whereby we could be relieved of our responsibilities in this realm, and anticipate the joys that await those who love and trust Him.

This year we have experienced the loss of fellow believers in each of our churches. We grieve with those who hurt, and also rejoice in knowing that their loved ones have joined that heavenly host who forever rejoice in the presence of the Lord. Let us each commit ourselves to a faithful stewardship in anticipation of personally hearing "Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

Rev. Elwood Orr, chairman

MISSIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

The Missions Committee continues to encourage churches to be involved in various missions endeavors such as partnerships, mission action projects and new church starts. Some of these will be highlighted during our Biennial Meeting.

We recommend that our Association be involved in the following Missions Partnership opportunities:

1. Alaska Partnership
2. Appalachian Ministries Partnership - Conemaugh Valley Baptist Association in Pennsylvania
3. Eastern North Carolina Flood Recovery
4. Greater Rochester Baptist Association, New York
5. South Africa

MARK YOUR CALENDAR: As approved by the messengers last year, our Association will have "On Mission Celebration" (formerly World Missions Conference) on May 4-9, 1992. More details later.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Leland Kent, acting chairman

ORDINATION COMMITTEE REPORT

Regrettably the services of the Ordination Committee were not requested during this associational year. It is our prayer that God will call out choice servants from the churches of Kings Mountain Baptist Association to ministry in Christian vocational service.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Phil Bailey, chairman

2001 GRAND TOTAL BUDGET 478489

Less amount for CCM director provided by Home Mission Board State Convention -1889

(5.) 2001 GRAND TOTAL TO BE PROVIDED BY KMBA 426600

Comments:

(1) PERSONNEL MATTERS:

- A. Salaries and housing/utility allowances, plus the resultant changes in retirement have been increased by 4.5% for our staff.
- B. The North American Mission Board pays life insurance, disability insurance and all but $135 a month of medical insurance for our Church and Community Ministries Director. Our association pays the remaining portion as part of his salary. In 2001, we will receive $1889 toward the salary, expenses, etc. of our Church & Community Ministries Director. This amount is deducted from our total budget of $428,489 and adjusts our budget needs for 2001 to $426,600.
- C. The Annuity Board has announced a 20% increase in health insurance rates for 2001. Our Church Development Director is covered by this insurance.
- D. The Association pays all of our Church Development Director's social security medicare because he is a non-ordained employee.

- (2) Church and Community Ministries was increased by $4000 to provide funding for two new ministries - Christian Women's Job Corp and Parish Nurse Ministry.
- (3) Housing allowance for Bonnie Doughtie ($6000) was removed as our partnership with her ends. Mission Partnership was increased by $2000.
- (4) Our Counseling Ministry started on August 1, 2000. The $10000 is the same amount as the 2000 budget. This is used to pay for travel reimbursement and telephone service for our counselor, client subsidy, subsidy for clients unable to pay, and printing and office supplies.
- (5) The 2001 proposed budget is a 3.5% increase over the 2000 budget.
