A 'happily ever after' homecoming

Our staff photographers covered many of Gardner-Webb's "happily ever after" homecoming events during the week of Oct. 5. Students participated in several events and activities that allowed them to show their school spirit throughout the course of the week. Check out the photo story below, and view all the photos from homecoming week here.

Gardner-Webb clubs and organizations designed banners with the theme of "happily ever after." All entries were hung in the Tucker Student Center during homecoming week.
