TERSE FACTS for BUSY TEACHERS

IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO OVERESTIMATE the value of having on hand a stock of music (and notes) consisting of the best pieces for instruction and recreation, as large as the number of pupils demands, added to, and by, packages of new music or for special needs as they arise. Settlements occur a year.

TO CATER SUCCESSFULLY to the needs and desires of a changing education requires peculiar conditions and advantages possessed by but few houses.

THE HOUSE OF THEO. PRESSER has an experience of over twenty-five years as publishers, based on a intimate knowledge of the needs of the profession, the result of actual work.

It is a large well selected stock of the publications of all houses, American and foreign, constantly added to, by the best of the new of all publishers.

A carefully increasing catalog of original publications of great educational value which will be found in the studies of every music teacher. One of our publications, "Mathews' Standard United Course," enjoys the distinction of having been awarded and paralleled to a quarter extent than any other educational work ever published.

A force of 300 efficient employees, drilled and trained, for our own particular business. That over 100 per cent of our employees of ten years ago are still with us and 67 per cent of five years ago, are significant facts.

Publications for particular purposes selected from the catalogs of the world, made into convenient size and sold at the lowest possible price, at a large discount, as a standard of service furnished in any particular.

TO WHICH WE ADD—Large Discounts, the same upon "On Sale" as upon regular orders.

Wanted A Music Teacher

We need, immediately, a local teacher in every community to co-operate with us and assist us in carrying on our work by the University Extension Method. The pay is good, the work light and will not interfere with your other duties. It may lead to an opening in our studios in Chicago, where we necessarily employ a great many assistants on varying salaries in our different departments.

Do you want this position?

If you are already one of our students, we shall be doubly glad to have you assist us and to give you this opportunity of increasing your income.

We have been advertising our University Extension Correspondence Courses of Music Lessons for teachers and students, by Sherwood, Rosenbloom, Froehner, Clarence Eddy, Frances K. Clark and other members of our faculty, in THE ETUDE and other magazines for many years. Our work has become universally known.

We have been in business ten years and now occupy our own new beautiful building with over 20,000 square feet of floor space. We have enrolled over 100,000 students. A larger number of successful students are rolling to us every week through the Postoffice than are in personal attendance at all the other conservatories of Chicago put together.

Our all-star faculty, our endorsements from the greatest musical authorities in the world, our thousands of graduates, the high character of our work, the prestige of our Diploma and Degrees are bringing inquiries from all parts of the country.

You may have seen our advertisements from time to time, and wished to take advantage of the training our courses afford, but may not have been able to do so for financial reasons. There is now an opportunity for you to secure this training free—and earn money besides.

From now on we expect to arrange each year to bring a limited number of our most promising and successful teacher students to Chicago, and give them the advantage of attending Grand Opera, listening to Concerts, Lectures, Recitals, etc.—all expenses paid.

We only require one teacher in each community, so fill in and mail the attached Coupon at once, as this is an opportunity to turn your talent and spare moments into Ready Cash.

IVERA & POND PIANOS

For Music Lovers:
Musicians and teachers agree that any other piano is inferior and requires the best in piano construction. The IVERA & POND offers them not only superior tone quality, but remarkable economy because of its wonderful durability. The cost of tuning and maintenance is less than half that of pianos of "concerted" standards, and after a generation of use it is a first-class instrument to replace the worn parts of an IVERA & POND and launch it on another long period of service.

HOW TO BUY

Why not let us place our equipment and experience at your service? Whenever an Ivera & Pond piano is sold with them we pay from the factory "no approval" fee per piano (such fees should be paid to the dealer). Liberal allowance for old instruments in exchange. Receive any payment plan. Catalogue and full information on request. #Free of charge.
