Ceremony Planned to Celebrate Conferring of Degrees

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. – Gardner-Webb University will award _____ nearly 240 degrees during the 2016 Fall Commencement exercises on Monday, Dec. 19 at 10 a.m. in the Paul Porter Arena of the Lutz-Yelton Convocation Center, located on the campus of Gardner-Webb University. Many students who have earned degrees will don their caps and gowns to celebrate their hard work.

The ceremony will honor students who have successfully completed undergraduate, degree completion, and graduate programs. Various students will participate in the commencement through prayer and scripture reading. Selected graduates will be honored with the Degree Completion Program Academic Award, the Senior Scholastic Achievement Award, the Most Outstanding Male Graduate Award, and the Most Outstanding Female Graduate Award.

The University encourages attendees to use the hashtag #WebbGrad2016 for social media posts including photos, tweets, and status updates.

Auxiliary aids will be made available to persons with disabilities upon request 48 hours prior to the event. Please call 704.406.4264 or email servicerequests@gardner-webb.edu with your request.

Located in Boiling Springs, N.C., Gardner-Webb University's purpose is to advance the Kingdom of God through Christian higher education by preparing graduates for professional and personal success, instilling in them a deep commitment to service and leadership, and equipping them for well-rounded lives of lasting impact, Pro Deo et Humanitate (For God and Humanity).
