THE SUGAR COOKIE SOLDIERS

Words and Music by
EVANGELINE LEHMAN

Tempo di Marcia

Words and Music by
ELEANORE LEHMAN

Two by two, March-ing through, Even the weak be soldiers true, All in line and loo-king true. (P)
And then here and there 711 days Eyes a head, Even as dead, made of sparkling
Up as red, But two arms, made of frail, Each one dressed like a new to drink, Light a head, feet, Watch your pace, Every bit the soldier in the place; E-ven dead, I see work and they're made of dough and not at all dead, dying away
not at all dead, dying away

I DO NOT ASK, O LORD

THE STUDY

A. A. PROCTER

Almost a duet between the piano and voice. A large chorale at song service

CHAS. GILBERT SPROGS, Op. 24

Andante

I do not ask, O Lord, that I may be a pleasure to Thee;
I do not ask that Thou wouldst take from me the light of Thy love;
I do not ask that Thou shouldst always spring beauty from my face;
I know how well the joy was and the sting of things but want for am doing as Thy Lord, I plead, look on a sinner;
Thy strength should suffer and the weak should bleed, and pass to light;
do not ask, O Lord, that Thou shouldst shed full reward.

THE STUDY

I do not ask my arms to be strengthened, my way to me;
for I am darkness; yet to that Thy hand and Thy love shall joy to take you love day;
but please do not take you - as night;
Lord we, O Lord, Lord we, O Lord, Lord we, O Lord, all praise thy name;
thy shall thank, that person in light.

Arranged from one of the most interesting piano pieces in the entire "The Fire Dances" Suite.

There seems to be something magical

About SEVEN, as you can see

The other numbers are beautiful only

SEVEN has the important part.

To SEVEN comes as short as short

Four minutes are less, you'll say

To SEVEN look about seven SEVEN

What all you should say is SEVEN

In fact,

Of SEVEN nothing is so delightful

Only SEVEN of these are used

THE INSTRUMENT OF THE IMMORTALS

"PRELUDE IN C SHARP MINOR," PAINTED FOR THE STEINWAY COLLECTION BY J.M.W. TURNER

In the famous Prelude in C Sharp Minor by Frederic Chopin, the great Polish composer has brought a stirring beauty to the most dramatic of all piano compositions. In such a masterpiece, the piano is not only a means of expression, but a means of expression.

TO THE most modern, even the most sophisticated of minds, one can see the expression of personal music personally performed. For in playing a thing himself he finds the thrill and whole pleasure that comes of living and understanding, and of creating.

Among the musically minded, the Steinway has long been regarded as the standard piano—a prelude was by the distinctive richness, depth, and sympathetic quality of its tone. And for this reason the Steinway has been the choice of virtually every musician of note from Liszt to Rachmaninoff.

When your fingers touch the keys of a Steinway you will feel possessed of a new and liberating power. For your whole attitude toward music will tell you that this instrument is the ideal medium for self-expression, an exhilarating companion wherever there are games, and a handsome addition to the interior of your home.

With an original payment of no less than $117.50 you may have something more than a piano. You may have a Steinway Grand . . . an instrument equal to the demands of the most exacting artist. You may select your Steinway from many different sizes and models, each at a different price. But there is only one quality of Steinway.

At the Steinway Grand piano you can buy for a total of $1875
