Department of Communication & New Media Exhibit Officially Kicks Off April 21

Written by Emily DeVries, Communications Intern

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. – The Gardner-Webb University Department of Communication & New Media will unveil its Annual Senior Show on April 21 in the Communication Studies Hall on Main Street in Boiling Springs.

Seniors from varying specializations, including public relations, graphic design, video and film, and photography will be exhibiting visual, written and recorded pieces, which they have created during their collegiate career.

This year's featured students are: Taylor Alexander, Travis Archie, Elizabeth Banfield, Jill Blank, Emily DeVries, Spencer Havird, Erick Hooker, Matthew Johnson, Courtney Keeter, Brooke Kelly, Anna Kullmar, Ellen Laws, Taylor Lillard, Liv Luvisi, Tyra Montour, Kerri Reibold, Amanda Szyjka, and Tristan Van Aken.

"I'm excited that I get to display my hard work," remarked senior Tyra Montour. "This show is a great opportunity for us to share with others the unique work we've done both in the classroom and out in the field."

A reception will be held on April 21 from 4-6 p.m. The event is free and open to the public, and members of the Gardner-Webb community are encouraged to attend. The students' presentations will remain on display in the Communication Studies Hall until after the conclusion of the spring semester.
