Visual Arts Department Student Show Open Through May 7

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C.— As Degas once said, “Art is not what you see, but what you make others see.” GWU students are hoping to offer a unique experience to others through the exhibition of their undergraduate work. The Gardner-Webb University Department of Visual Arts is showcasing the works of senior students in an exhibit on campus.

The 2016 Senior Art Exhibit is open for viewing now through May 7 in the Tucker Student Center Gallery. Artists include Ashley Bowen, Deborah Hamilton, Elizabeth Lawson and Lindsey Wright. A reception is set for April 14 from 4-6 p.m. in the gallery.

For additional information, contact the GWU Department of Visual Art at 704-406-4656 or email sbronner@gardner-webb.edu.

Auxiliary aids will be made available to persons with disabilities upon request 10 working days prior to the event. Please call 704-406-4253 or email servicerequests@gardner-webb.edu with your request.

Located in Boiling Springs, N.C., Gardner-Webb University provides exceptional educational opportunities within a Christian environment, preparing students to think critically, to succeed professionally, and to serve faithfully as members of their local and global communities.
