Flavors of the Czech Republic to be Shared by Chef Lukas Jenista

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. – Sodexo Dining Services will present a unique culinary event on the campus of Gardner-Webb University next week. The international food services corporation is planning a complimentary food tasting, “Flavors of the Czech Republic,” on Monday, Oct. 12 at 3 p.m. in Tucker Student Center with international chef Lukas Jenista.

As part of Sodexo’s Global Chef program, Jenista will prepare a complimentary hors d’oeuvres reception in Stewart Hall for all attendees. On the menu are a range of delectable delights, including samples of soups, starters, main dishes, and dessert.

Jenista has served as an executive chef with Sodexo since 2013. His responsibilities include menu creation and high-profile catering. The Global Chef Program is a monthlong international chef residency that provides an opportunity for Sodexo’s top chefs worldwide to travel to different countries and share authentic international cuisine with students, faculty, staff, and the community.

There is no cost to attend the culinary tasting event on Oct. 12, but reservations are required by Friday, Oct. 9. To RSVP, contact Travis Burch, catering manager, at tburch1@gardner-webb.edu or call 704-692-1484.

Sodexo is a French food services and facilities management multinational corporation headquartered in the Paris suburb of Issy-les-Moulineaux, France. Sodexo is one of the largest companies in the world in its business, with 380,000 employees, representing 130 nationalities, present on 34,000 sites in 80 countries.

Located in Boiling Springs, N.C., Gardner-Webb University’s purpose is to advance the Kingdom of God through Christian higher education by preparing graduates for professional and personal success, instilling in them a deep commitment to service and leadership, and equipping them for well-rounded lives of lasting impact, Pro Deo et Humanitate (For God and Humanity).
