Ceremony Planned to Celebrate Conferring of Degrees

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. – Gardner-Webb University will award _____ over 250 degrees during the 2014 fall commencement exercises on Monday, Dec. 15 at 10 a.m. in the Paul Porter Arena of the Lutz-Yelton Convocation Center, located on the campus of Gardner-Webb University. Approximately 270 students have earned degrees and a majority of those graduates will don their cap-and-gown to celebrate their hard work.

The ceremony will honor students who have successfully completed undergraduate, degree completion, and graduate programs. Various students will participate in the convocation through prayer, scripture reading, and delivering commencement speeches. Selected graduates will be honored with the Degree Completion Program Academic Award, the Most Outstanding Male Graduate Award, and the Most Outstanding Female Graduate Award.

The ceremony will be available for viewing online via live stream. Simply visit the Gardner-Webb University web page at www.gardner-webb.edu and click on the live stream link available on Dec. 15. In addition, the University encourages attendees to use the hashtag #WebbGrad2014 for social media posts including photos, tweets, and Facebook status updates.

Auxiliary aids will be made available to persons with disabilities upon request 48 hours prior to the event. Please call 704.406.4264 or email servicerequests@gardner-webb.edu with your request.

Located in Boiling Springs, N.C., Gardner-Webb University's purpose is to advance the Kingdom of God through Christian higher education by preparing graduates for professional and personal success, instilling in them a deep commitment to service and leadership, and equipping them for well-rounded lives of lasting impact, Pro Deo et Humanitate (For God and Humanity).
