

Gardner-Webb University

Digital Commons @ Gardner-Webb University

Gardner-Webb NewsCenter Archive

Gardner-Webb Publications

8-14-2013

Latest Issue of Gardner-Webb The Magazine Debuts in Print and Online

Office of University Communications

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.gardner-webb.edu/gardner-webb-newscenter-archive>

Latest Issue of Gardner-Webb The Magazine Debuts in Print and Online

 webpublish.gardner-webb.edu/newscenter/latest-issue-of-gardner-webb-the-magazine-debuts-in-print-and-online-2/

Office of University Communications

August 14, 2013

Award-Winning Publication Available for Online Viewing

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. — The latest issue of Gardner-Webb The Magazine is available for viewing on the web. Featuring a brand-new layout and format, the publication offers the latest University news and specialty stories. Click here to view the latest issue.

The issue highlights several recent events, including faculty, staff, student and alumni achievements. Other features include:

- Faculty Member Provides Assistance to Tornado Victims;
- Students Reach Out to Address Human Trafficking;
- GWU to Add Women's LaCrosse Program;
- WGWG Radio Transitions to Online Distribution;
- Student/Alumni Success Stories; and
- Much, much more!

Gardner-Webb The Magazine was recently named an award-winner for writing excellence by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) District III, which serves the southeastern United States. The magazine (Vol. 46, Number 2) was honored with a CASE District III Award of Excellence in Publications Writing at their annual conference, held in Atlanta, Ga. earlier this year.

“As always, the magazine offers stories on the people who best represent Gardner-Webb through their faith, service and leadership,” said Noel Manning, chief communications officer for GWU and managing editor of Gardner-Webb The Magazine.

Located in Boiling Springs, N.C., Gardner-Webb University seeks a higher ground in higher education – one that embraces faith and intellectual freedom, and inspires in students a love of learning, service, and leadership.