Walter Dalton and Rodney Allison to Serve as Featured Speakers

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. – The Godbold School of Business Center For Ethics and Entrepreneurship and Center for Christian Ethics and Leadership at Gardner-Webb University presents “Entrepreneurship in the 21st Century” on Wednesday, April 10 at 10 a.m. in Blanton Auditorium, located in Hamrick Hall.

The event will feature successful individuals as guest speakers including Rodney Allison of the triangle region of the state, owner of Corporate Realty Services and Amherst Capital, LLC and Walter Dalton, former North Carolina Lt. Gov. and current distinguished visiting professor of Political Science at GWU. Dalton was also recently selected to become the next president of Isothermal Community College in Rutherfordton, N.C.

Those interested in starting a business or expanding an existing one are encouraged to attend the program for a variety of helpful information and advice from these experts. The program is free and open to the public.

More information about this event, the Godbold School of Business and the Broyhill Undergraduate School of Management is available through Natetsa Lawrence at 704-406-2260 or tlawrence@gardner-webb.edu.

Located in Boiling Springs, N.C., Gardner-Webb University blends a liberal arts core curriculum with more than 55 specialized major and minor programs, a comprehensive academic experience grounded in a Christian environment of service, leadership, and intellectual freedom.
