Greater Opportunities for Adult Learners Meets Unique Needs of Students

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. – The Gardner-Webb University GOAL (Greater Opportunities for Adult Learners) program will conduct open house events at various satellite locations across North Carolina over the next several weeks. The information sessions are offered to potential and current students who would like to continue their college education and earn a degree. GOAL representatives will be on hand to answer questions and offer registration assistance for the summer and fall semesters.

The open house schedule with locations is as follows:

March 21 – Isothermal Community College, Rutherfordton (Lifelong Learning Center)

March 26 – GWU Hickory

April 4 – Gaston College in Dallas

April 8 – GWU Charlotte (Common Area on Second Floor)

April 10 – GWU Winston-Salem in faculty suite

April 16 – Montgomery Community College in Troy

April 23 – GWU Statesville

April 25 – Surry Community College in Dobson

April 29 – Mayland Community College in Spruce Pine (Gwaltney Hall)

The Gardner-Webb University GOAL program seeks to meet the unique needs of students working full-time jobs, while simultaneously seeking advanced education. Students can continue their studies culminating in a baccalaureate degree. Majors include accounting, business administration, business management, computer information systems, healthcare management, nursing, multidisciplinary, and religious studies. This important mission of Gardner-Webb celebrates its 35th year this fall.

More information about GOAL, the event, and satellite campuses are available at 866-GWU-GOAL and online at gardner-webb.edu/goal.

Located in Boiling Springs, N.C., Gardner-Webb University offers a comprehensive academic experience that introduces students to the diverse world of ideas and to the people who think them, preparing them for career success and for engaged, responsible citizenship in their professional, civic, and spiritual communities.
