Sessions Consist of Biblical teaching, Sports & Chorus

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. – Once again this summer, Gardner-Webb University continues a commitment to summer camps that offer participants the chance to grow further in religion, athletics and education. The camps, mostly weekly, are ongoing now through the end of July.

The remaining summer schedule is as follows:

- North Carolina All State Youth Choir, July 15-22
- Women's Soccer Residence Camp, July 15-22
- Crossroads (Clayton King Ministries), July 16-20
- Michael Walker's Soccer Camp, July 19-22
- Men's Soccer Residence Camp, July 22-26
- Crossroads (Clayton King Ministries), July 23-27
- Volleyball Residence Camp, July 27-29
- CILD Conference (education department), July 30-31

The N.C. All-State Youth Choir is comprised of 71 auditioned youth who have completed high school and participate in choir activities in Baptist churches across the state. While at GWU, the choir will practice for upcoming events and participate in mission projects.

Gardner-Webb Athletics oversees all camps related to sports and can be reached at 704-406-4340.

Crossroads began in 1995 when Gardner-Webb alumnus and renowned evangelist Clayton King ('95) answered what he calls "a God-given, lifelong vision for me to do a summer camp ministry." Since then, more than 40,000 students have experienced Christ's love and grace through Crossroads summer camps. This year's theme, "The Dwelling Place," includes nightly worship services open to the community held Monday through Thursday at 7 p.m. until July 26. Further details about the ministry and future events are available online at crossroadsworldwide.com. A video about this year's camp is viewable here.

The purpose of CILD (Center for Innovative Leadership Development) is to serve leaders in the region with vital significant programs aimed at spiritual, economic, and academic growth. For more information, call 704-406-4402.

Located in Boiling Springs, N.C., Gardner-Webb University offers a comprehensive academic experience that introduces students to the diverse world of ideas and to the people who think them, preparing them for career success and for engaged, responsible citizenship in their professional, civic, and spiritual communities.
