Blood Drive Organized by Community Blood Center of the Carolinas

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C. — The Gardner-Webb University Student Nursing Association (SNA) invites members of the community to join GWU faculty, staff, and students in giving blood to save lives on Friday, Oct. 28 from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. in Elliott Hall on the campus of GWU. The blood drive is organized by the Community Blood Center of the Carolinas CBCC).

For more information about the blood drive, call 704-477-4888 or email creed@gardner-webb.edu.

The need for blood is never ending. In fact, more than 300 pints are required every day in the treatment of the CBCC's local patients. There is no substitute for life-saving blood; it cannot be manufactured or reproduced. People who suffer from cancer, heart disease, and other major illnesses need blood on a regular basis. For more information, visit cbcc.us.
