The Gardner-Webb School of Performing and Visual Arts is proud to present its annual Faculty/Staff Art Show, on display in the Communication Studies Hall through September 30. The community is also invited to enjoy an evening of art and fellowship during the Artists Reception from 4-6 p.m. on Thursday, September 1, during which the nine featured artists will be on hand to answer questions about their artistic inspiration, their method, and their craft.

The exhibit will feature the work of faculty and staff members Doug Knotts, Susan Carlisle Bell, Paula Spangler Casper, Nancy Bottoms, Chris Keene, Beth Singer-Knotts, Andrea Worley, Jim Biggers, and Petra Pineau. For more information, call Justin Humphries, administrative assistant for the art and theatre departments, at 704-406-4656.
