

Gardner-Webb University

Digital Commons @ Gardner-Webb University

Gardner-Webb NewsCenter Archive

Gardner-Webb Publications

12-1-2021

Gardner-Webb The Magazine Available in Digital and Print Formats

Office of University Communications

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.gardner-webb.edu/gardner-webb-newscenter-archive>

Recommended Citation

Office of University Communications, "Gardner-Webb The Magazine Available in Digital and Print Formats" (2021). Gardner-Webb NewsCenter Archive. 2365.
<https://digitalcommons.gardner-webb.edu/gardner-webb-newscenter-archive/2365>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Gardner-Webb Publications at Digital Commons @ Gardner-Webb University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Gardner-Webb NewsCenter Archive by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Gardner-Webb University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@gardner-webb.edu.

CAMPUS NEWS

Gardner-Webb The Magazine Available in Digital and Print Formats

BY OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY COMMUNICATIONS ON DECEMBER 1, 2021

Newest Issue Introduces Gardner-Webb's New Live Mascot, an English Bulldog, named Bo

BOILING SPRINGS, N.C.—The latest issue of Gardner-Webb The Magazine, recently mailed to GWU alumni and friends, is also available for viewing on the web. The publication offers the latest University news and specialty stories in a digital format.

This issue introduces Gardner-Webb's new live mascot, Bo, an English bulldog. After being officially introduced to the campus community at the Fall Academic Convocation on Aug. 24, 2021, Bo quickly became a celebrity on campus, putting smiles on faces and drawing crowds wherever he goes. The story also shares the history of Gardner-Webb's live mascot program with photos of other bulldogs who have served in that prestigious role.

Other stories highlight:

- Tayuanee Dewberry, a 1997 and 2009 alumna, who was recently named chief executive officer of the Girl Scouts Hornets' Nest Council.
- Mason Miller, a former GWU baseball pitcher, selected in the third round of the MLB draft.
- Nursing major Khalilah Conway, who is finding success in the classroom and on the track.
- The Dance To Remember, an award-winning documentary that captures GWU Men's Basketball's Magical Season.
- Paralympic Swimmer and Author Mallory Weggemann, who broke a record and won two gold medals and a silver in the games held in 2021.
- Six alumnae of the Class of 1964 who have remained close friends for nearly six decades.

View the latest issue of Gardner-Webb The Magazine.

Gardner-Webb University is North Carolina's recognized leader in private, Christian higher education. A Carnegie-Classified Doctoral/Professional University, GWU is home to six professional schools, 14 academic departments, more than 80 undergraduate and graduate majors, and a world-class faculty. Located on a beautiful 225-acre campus in Boiling Springs, N.C., Gardner-Webb prepares graduates to impact their chosen professions, equips them with the skills to advance the frontiers of knowledge, and inspires them to make a positive and lasting difference in the lives of others. Ignite your future at Gardner-Webb.edu.