

Fay Webb Gardner Collection: Transcription
Series 2.5.11 - Correspondence - 1939 - Nan Andrews

University Archives; Gardner-Webb University

Dear Fay –

1939

I was surprised and so glad to hear from you. Aunt Clara had told me about you and Sue being down to see her and I have looked for you to stop sometime when passing through. Would be so glad to see you all.

I do have an old essay on the Shorter Catechism – printed in 1797 – that belonged to Benjamin Andrews home place where it had been thrown away.

Mitt (Uncle Moe's last wife) must have the old Family Bible and I think it could be found at her mother's at Sunshine. I wish I could help out more but I can't find any thing else written in the books I have but I do hope you can find some information from the old family Bible that Uncle Moe had.

Come to see me sometime when you are passing through. Lovingly

Nan

And the following names written in it.

Benjamin Andrews

His book October 1800.

Ben Andrews {F –(looks like.F.)

Samuel Andrews {B –

John N. Andrews {B –

Charity E. Andrews

Sarah Andrews

May 2nd, 1830.

The Bible I have has been abused very much for I picked it up on the hillside at the old

(last page missing from original document)